SWINE—Wholesale, Shoats at 4 to 5c., Still Fat at 5c. and hard corn-fed Hogs at 5½c. ℔ lb.

REMARKS—The market opened well on Sheep and Lambs, but there was a firm determination on the part of the buyers to contest strongly the prices of extra and first quality of Beef and in which they partially succeeded. Many of the Oxen were large, fat and handsome but slow of sale at the present high prices. Of the lot of Oxen from Keene, we noticed a fortnight since, have been since slaughtered and come to $255 68 instead of $300. Many of the Calves are small, poor, and holders must have lost money on them. 93 cars come over the Fitchburg Railroad, and 40 over the Boston and Lowell Railroad, loaded with Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Horses and Fowls.

The Beef market has not been quiet by any means, in and about Boston, the past week, and buyers are very cautious not to increase their stock at present high prices. The cattle trains were all in early enabling the market to open promptly, and facilitating business very much.
