New-York Fire Department.—The following arrangements have been adopted, and are to be observed on SUNDAY, 30th inst., the occasion of the funeral solemnities of the members of the department, whose lives were sacrificed on Tuesday evening, at the fire in Broadway:

The line will form in Broadway at 11 o'clock A. M., the right on 10th-st. and will move six abreast, in reversed order down Broadway through the Park to the City Hall, where the bodies will be received; thence to Chatham-st., up Chatham-st. and the Bowery to Astor-place, through Astor-place to Broadway, down Broadway to the South Ferry, where the line will halt and open on each side of the street to enable the procession to countermarch.

The Chief Engineer will act as Grand Marshal and the Assistant Engineers as his aids.

The order will be as follows:

First—Mayor and Common Council, Heads of Departments, and Firemen of other cities.

Second—Judiciary, Mayor, Common Council and Heads of Departments of this city.

Third—Association of Exempt Firemen.

Fourth—Ex-Chiefs and Assistant Engineers.

Fifth—Officers and Trustees of the Fire Department Fund.

Sixth—Fire Department, commencing with Engine Co. No. 1, Hose Co. No. 1, Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1, and Hydrant Co. No. 1, and in regular order throughout the line.

Seventh—Fire Department Banner, in charge of Hose Co. No. 49.

Eighth—Hearses containing the bodies of deceased, each surrounded by the Companies to which they belonged, followed by relatives and friends.

The members of the Department will appear in citizens' dress, without banners or music, wearing the usual badge designating the Company to which they belong; the officers of each Company carrying speaking trumpets shrouded in crape. No boys will be permitted to appear in the line.

The bell ringers are directed to toll the bells while the funeral is moving.

Edward H. Senior, Esq., will superintend the funeral.
ALFRED CARSON, Grand Marshal.

Fire Department.—The following correspondence has passed between Master Paul Julien and the officers of the Fire Department Fund:

No. 239 BROADWAY, April 27, 1854.

MR. ZOPHAR MILLS—Dear Sir: In consequence of the recent calamity at the fire in Broadway, Master Paul Julien, the celebrated violinist, has requested us to communicate to you his desire to give a Concert at the Tabernacle on Wednesday evening next, for the benefit of the Fire Department Fund.

We will be glad to confer with a Committee from your Trustees, and make the necessary arrangements for the same.

Very Respectfully, WM. HALL & SON
NEW-YORK, April 28, 1854.

MESSRS WM. HALL & SON—Gentlemen: Your kind note of 27th inst., on behalf of Master Paul Julien, tendering the Fire Department Fund of this city the benefit of a Concert, was received this day.

It is with sincere pleasure that we accept of this very liberal offer, and especially as it is a free-will offering of Master Julien, unsolicited by us. We trust that it will be the means of contributing to our fund, and thus enable the Trustees to relieve the afflicted families of firemen.

Your Obedient Servants, ZOPHAR MILLS,
JONAS N. PHILLIPS,
JOHN B. PECK,
Special Committee on Donations of the Trustees New-York Fire Department Fund.

JOHN C. SCHARFF, Secretary.

At a Special Meeting of Mutual Hook and Ladder Co No. 1, held at the Truck House on Wednesday evening, April 26 the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, By the decree of inscrutable Providence this Company is called upon to mourn the death of its late esteemed member and ex-foreman, Andrew C. Schenck, who lost his life while nobly endeavoring to save that of others at the late fire in Broadway; and

Whereas, It is incumbent upon us, out of respect to the memory of our late beloved and now lamented associate, and from a sense of the responsibility under which we rest, as well to his family as to the public, that we should place upon record the feelings which animate us under this sad bereavement, and also our views as to the cause of the disaster that has fallen upon us, therefore be it

1. Resolved That in our deceased friend we ever found a warm and true-hearted companion—a man free from guile, blameless in life and character, and every way worthy of the high position which he held among his fellows.

2. Resolved. That as a fireman, Andrew C. Schenck was one of the noblest in our ranks; as a leader, safe, experienced and careful—as a member prompt and active in the discharge of his duty, whether at fires or in the more retired company circle—as an adviser, judicious, free from prejudice, and above all, mere personal consideration.

3. Resolved, That both as a man and a fireman, he had our unbounded confidence, respect and affection; and although we shall soon be compelled to follow him to the grave that forever shuts him from our sight, yet his memory will be enshrined in our hearts and forever be cherished as one of our most hallowed recollections.

4. Resolved, That to the family circle who have thus at once been deprived of an affectionate and dutiful son and a warm-hearted brother, we tender our most sincere condolence, in the hope that they, with us, will be sustained by the confidence that a bright future has already opened upon their beloved one—a future in which all is eternal calm and sunshine, unclouded by sorrow and unclouded by care.

5. Resolved, That, knowing the high respect and esteem which our brother entertained for the Second National Guard, of which he was a worthy and respected member, we tender to that organization our united regret at the calamity thus suddenly brought upon them, and can only give them this mournful satisfaction of knowing that he died a hero's death in the cause of suffering humanity.

6. Resolved, That to the relatives and friends of those whose lives were sacrificed along with that of our deceased comrade, we offer profoundest sympathy, and trust that it may be long ere such another calamity falls upon them and us.

7. Resolved, That while our tears flow fast over the lifeless corse of our friend, we cannot close our eyes to the fact that he was sacrificed to the spirit of mammon which is fast turning our City into a "Golgotha," every block of which is watered by the blood of the mechanic and the artizan employed in erecting these modern structures, as well as of the firemen who enter them in the discharge of their duty.

8. Resolved, That we earnestly and solemnly enter our protest against the prevailing mode of erecting buildings and call upon the Common Council to see that a law is enacted by the proper authority making it a misdemeanor to erect a store or warehouse without the same having four independent walls, all well secured to each other, and all built up together.

9. Resolved, That the usual badge of mourning be worn by the members, and placed upon the hose and apparatus during the space of thirty days, and that a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased and to the Second National Guard, and the same published in The Tribune, Daily Times, Commercial Advertiser, New-York Observer, and Sunday Mercury.
Signed NOAH L. FARNHAM, Foreman.
R. B. HATHAWAY, Secretary.

THE MILLER AND HIS MEN; OR THE
SECRET ROBBERS OF BOHEMIA.
By the author of "The Brigand," &c., &c. Price 25 cents.

The character of this thrilling romance are well imagined, both as regards their beauties and defects, and they have that "touch of nature" which is the only thing that can make them kin with the tender. The incidents, too, are ingeniously devised, and come about with something of the spontaneity of real life rather than the mechanism of artificial contrivance. The story we can cordially recommend as one which cannot be read without deep emotion and intense interest. The author's heart is thoroughly with his subject; his style is vigorous and picturesque.

PRINCIPLES OF POLITICAL ECONOMY. In 3 vols. 8vo.

"Whether we accept or reject the views of Mr. Carey, it must be acknowledged that we find in his works a store of number of ideas that are new, and worthy of serious examination." [Dictionnaire de l'Economie Politique.

"Carey has, in his 'Principles' and above all, in his 'Past, Present, and Future,' wonderfully placed the question of fact between himself and Mr Ricardo. The right is altogether with him. He has shown that the Providential theory—the destiny appointed for man by the Creator—is the, and not that of the English school; the theory of progress and harmony, and not that of retrogration and antagonism." [Bibliotheca del Economista.

"The most important product of political economy for the last half century." [Journal des Economistes.

THE PAST, THE PRESENT, AND THE FUTURE. In 1 vol. 8vo.

"The system here developed, of which we have included only one of the principal features, is supported and illustrated by numerous examples. It is, to our readers, see the theory of progress, redeemed from the wilderness of philosophical speculations, economically established and brought home to us by a vigorous and eloquent style." [Dictionnaire de l'Economie Politique.

"The effective array of facts and the natural flow of the argument, render the doctrines exhibited so familiar in their plain conclusiveness, that one can scarcely feel the admiration and surprise due to their grandeur and benevolence, so much as the still greater wonder which quite up, that they could so long remain unknown." [Saturday Magazine.

"One of the strongest and most original writers of the age." [Westminster review.

"It is not all economists that have sought to enable themselves to comprehend the (Ricardo) theory of rent. Mr. Carey is to this day the only one that appears to us to have attacked it in regular form." [Journal des Economistes.

"Decidedly a book to be read by all who take an interest in the progress of social science." [Spectator.

THE PRINCIPLES OF MONY OF INTERESTS: AGRICULTURAL, MANUFACTURING AND COMMERCIAL.

"Mr. Carey, the well known statistical writer of America, has supplied us with ample materials for conducting such an inquiry; and we can safely recommend his remarkable work to all who wish to investigate the causes of the progress or decline of industrial communities." [Blackwood.

THE CREDIT SYSTEM IN FRANCE, GREAT BRITAIN AND THE UNITED STATES. In 8vo.

"The best work on the credit system that has ever been published." [Journal des Economistes.

BLENNERHASSETT'S LIFE and BURR'S EXPEDITION—By William H. Safford, Esq. 1 vol. 12mo. 75 cents.

"A volume on a subject of great interest. The fate of Blennerhasett, tempted from an earthly Paradise, by the wiles of Aaron Burr, and induced to risk his life, fortune and honor on the insidious scheme of that brilliant adventurer, has excited sentiments of pity and indignation in all who have heard of it." [Mr. Safford has given us at length the interesting narrative." [Daily Times.

"A substantial addition to the history of our country." [Presbyterian Witness.

"The materials of this volume have been gathered from the best sources." [Presbyterian.

"One of the most interesting books of the times." [Western Christian Advocate.

"Written by a judicious and able hand. The life of the scientific and distinguished Blennerhasett will be sought and read with deep interest." [Saturday Age.

"One of the most interesting personal sketches that has lately been given to the press. It delineates in graphic and true colors the rise, progress and disastrous conclusion of the great 'Burr Conspiracy.'" [Ladies' Repository.

"A man of cultivated tastes and peaceful disposition, he left his native country because it was rent by political discord, and went in search of a home in the New World, where he might pursue his favorite studies undisturbed. To his want of the Ohio Paradise, he contributed by his presence. * * * But his secluded habits did not protect him; and herein lies an invaluable lesson. Let it be examined and remembered by such as would exchange a life of active usefulness for unpitiable repose. We were made not to vegetate, but to live and act." [Home Journal.

"Will arouse the attention of thousands." [Albany New-Yorker.
