Dr. Sanborn's Medicated Lung Vapor.—This new and scientific remedy, used by Inhalation, after the method adopted at the New-York Lung Institute, is now offered the public as the most effectual remedy yet discovered for producing a radical cure of Incipient Consumption, Bronchitis &c. The unparalleled success which has attended the treatment of Dr. Sanborn, in permanently curing illnesses of the Lungs and Throat, by the Inhalation of Medicated Vapor, is a sufficient guarantee that any remedy from this Institution, of which he has charge and control, must have been tested thoroughly before it would be offered for sale. The Medicated Lung Vapor is the only medicine used by the patent, for no nostrum of any kind is ever given into the stomach, nor is the patient allowed to take any drug while undergoing it. Any nostrum thus given only serves to destroy the appetite, and hence must prove injurious, and hasten the disease to a fatal termination. The Lung Vapor produces a radical cure of the disease, not by palliating symptoms, but by destroying and removing the causes which produce them. Persons using this remedy can have the privilege of consulting Dr. Sanborn, at the Lung Institute, relative to their diseases, without charge. Price $5 for each package, or two for $9. Sent free by express to any part of the United States.

MYSTERIES OF A CONVENT.—By a noted Methodist Preacher. 1 vol., 8vo. Price 25 cents.
"This book will be eagerly sought for and appreciated by all those sincerely and conscientiously opposed to the worst of tyrannies—the tyranny of Religion. The author grapples his subject with a keen, determined intellect, and all the bigotry, fanaticism, practices and doings in a Convent, are here exposed to the light of the noon-day sun. It is a work of especial interest at the present time. The author is one of the most celebrated Methodist preachers now living, and what he exposes and narrates he does from the heart. All should read and study it. It is a rich, highly interesting work, and the low price at which it is published, will, as it should, bring it within the reach of the tens of thousands in every section of our country that should read it." [True Sun.
For sale by BUNCE & BROTHER, No. 134 Nassau-st., N. Y.

FUN FOR THE MILLION.
A MOST UNIQUE AND PIQUANT VOLUME COMING.
In a few days the subscribers will publish, for the benefit of the dyspeptic, a work abounding in fun, humor and sunshine, entitled
"OUR HONEYMOON, AND OTHER COMICALITIES,"
with Eight elegant Engravings from Original Designs printed in tint—making a large 12mo. volume of 300 pages. Price $1 25.
Punch has made its mark on the age, and has done more for the wit and humor of the XIXth century than all the other periodicals published in Europe. From the start, Punch has been conducted with the most consummate ability. Among the writers who have sparkled on its pages are the immortal Hood, Dickens, Thackeray, Mark Lemon and Douglass Jerrold. These writers have produced a series of papers which will live as long as the language. Their humor does not lose the stamp of ephemeral jokes, but is as interwoven with good sense that every line may be looked upon as a sermon in disguise.
From the matter furnished by these authors the publishers of "OUR HONEYMOON" have selected a series of articles which cannot do otherwise than meet the approval of every person who is at all sensitive to the humorous effects of well-directed ridicule. Fun is a greater dread of laughter than of law. From each author has been made such a selection as would best convey to the reader an idea of his style and peculiarity.
"Our Honeymoon," is peculiarly adapted to the wants of such of the rising generation as contemplate white vests and matrimony, yellow kids, and a month's sojourn at the Rockaway Pavilion. It is a humorous production of the highest order of merit, full of gay and rollicking fun and wit. The whole work abounds in the richest humor, making a mosaic collection of exquisite drolleries, such as no one man could have produced. "Our Honeymoon and other Comicalities," will be found without exception the most taking book that has been published in this country during the past year.
N. B. To insure an early supply the trade should forward orders as early as possible. For Steamboat and Railroad readers, "The Honeymoon" papers will take precedence of any work in the market.
