CITY ITEMS.

AMUSEMENTS.—The crowd of news this morning leaves us no space to refer to amusements. The reader will please consult our advertising columns.

THE ANTI-SLAVERY LECTURE, at the Tabernacle, to-morrow evening, will be delivered by the Rev. HENRY W. BELLOWS, who proposes to cross-question the "Pro-Slavery Testimony of the Northern Conscience"—a task which, we doubt not, will be skillfully performed. It requires no small degree of moral courage in the occupant of a popular pulpit in New-York to appear in such a course of lectures, and we trust that all those who appreciate that invaluable quality in a clergyman will evince the fact by their attendance at Mr. Bellows's lecture. Of his eminent ability as a writer and speaker, we need not say a word. We trust he will have a full house.

MORTALITY.—The weekly report of the City Inspector gives a total of 446 deaths during the past week, viz: 83 men, 101 women, 139 boys and 123 girls. This is an increase of 67 on the mortality of the week previous. Annexed is a list of the principal causes of death: Consumption, 68; inflammation of the lungs, 35; bronchitis, 13; atrophia, 9; convulsions, 24; dropsy in the head, 14; debility, 10; diarrhea, 11; apoplexy, 8; croup, 17; scarlet fever, 16; typhus fever, 9; marasmus, 17; inflammation of the bowels, 9; dysentery, 5; congestive diseases, 13; and diseases of the heart, 6. There were four premature births, and thirty-four cases of stillborn reported. There were five deaths from casualties, one from burns, one drowned, one from poison, and four from old age. Seventy deaths occurred in the public Institutions—thirty-four of them at Ward's Island, and thirteen at the Bellevue Hospital. The nativity table gives 293 natives of the United States, 91 of Ireland, 44 of Germany, 13 of England, 2 of Scotland, 2 of Holland, and 1 of Prussia.

PRESENTATION TO POLICE CAPTAIN BRESNAN.—A magnificent service of silver, costing upward of $600, was presented, on Saturday evening, to Matthew T. Brennan, late Police-Captain of the Sixth Ward, now one of the newly-elected Police Justices. The plate is from the establishment of Ball Black & Co., and bears the following inscription: "Presented "to Matthew T. Brennan, Esq., by the members of "the Sixth Ward Police Corps, and friends, as a mark "of respect and esteem, on his retiring from the office "of Captain—he having been elected Justice of that "District."

THE COURTS.—The Circuit, Superior and Common Pleas commence their January trial terms on Tuesday next, at which time the Juries summoned will attend. Judge Edwards, having completed (agreeably to law, being the last but one previous to the termination of the term for which he was elected,) his year in the Court of Appeals, will resume his position in the Supreme Court, making five Judges; and two branches of the Circuit Court will be held. There will be but two branches of the Supreme Court.

THE OCEAN BANK DEFALCATION.—The decision of Judge Beebe in this case was rendered on Saturday evening, and he required Mr. McGuckin, the late defaulting paying-teller of the bank, to give bonds in $25,000 to appear and answer a charge of embezzlement.

DEATH FROM EXHAUSTION.—Coroner Gamble yesterday held an inquest at the Fifth District Police Station upon the body of George Collins, a laborer, residing at No. 103 Charlton st., who, on Saturday evening, accidentally fell into the dock foot of Beach st. and, though rescued, died soon afterward from exhaustion. The Jury rendered a verdict of accidental death.

PASSING A FALSE TOKEN.—Frederick G. Wildman was yesterday arrested charged with passing a worthless bill, purporting to be on the Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown, D. C., to Jarvis Moore, baker, at No. 176 Delancey-st. The accused is also charged with attempting to pass a worthless $5 bill on the Bank of North America, D. C., at the store of another baker. He was committed by Justice Welsh for trial.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Henry Huntley, a brakeman on the New-Haven Railroad, fell from one of the cars when near New-Haven, on Saturday, and one of the wheels passed over his arm, crushing it to the shoulder. He was conveyed to the New-York Hospital, where the limb was amputated.

CHARGES OF GRAND LARCENY.—Geo. Wilson, a barkeeper, was arrested on suspicion of having stolen $60 from the pocket of William Early, a boarder at the Irving House, with whom he had been on a spree.

Wm. McKenna was arrested charged with having, four months ago, stolen a coat valued at $40 the property of Robert Walker, of No. 299 Grand-st., and selling the same to Martin Hanagan, of No. 240 Canal-st. He was committed to answer the charge.

CHARGE OF BURGLARY.—Thomas Cannon, a boy 16 years of age, was on Saturday arrested, charged with burglariously entering the dwelling of John Fitzherbert, No. 130 Eleventh-st., and stealing therefrom $103, a watch and chain, and a pair of pistols. He was detected in the act by a female, but managed to escape until the following morning, when the Police found him in bed in a house in Eleventh-st., near Fourth-av. He was committed to await examination.

SUFFOCATED IN A LIME KILN.—Samuel Malony, a lad 17 years of age, fell into a lime kiln in Fifteenth-st., corner of Avenue A, on Saturday night and was suffocated. His body was partly burned to a crisp and was taken out yesterday. Coroner Gamble held an inquest upon it and a verdict of accidental death was rendered. The deceased, with other boys, had been in the habit of sleeping about the edge of this kiln, which was left open by its owners and the Coroner's books show that this is not the first fatal accident that has happened there.

THE HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Another New-Year sun has dawned,
Another year of hope begun.
A year we fondly trust may prove
More blissful than the year that's gone.
We send upon the wings of wind,
A "Happy New Year" greeting all
Who, in the days and years of yore,
Have patronized our Artist Hall;
Those thousands, scattered far and wide,
From Maine to California's strand,
Or North or South, or East or West,
In native or in foreign land;
To those our warmest wish we send;
May peace and health, and love and joy,
Prosperity one length of days
Be ever their's, without alloy,
May nature's bountiful increase
Insure the line of every one,
And children's children live to bear
The name of honored parents on.
And may they come, as you have come,
For those unequaled pictures made
By Root, the artist world-renowned,
In storm or calm, in sun or shade.
Those plain Daguerreotypes that bore,
In half a dozen mighty fairs,
The highest prizes—pictures done
Up only two short flights of stairs.
Those Stereoscopes, that carve as ivory,
By great Canova's matchless hand,
A marble statue from the air,
Till self before yourself you stand.
Those Photographs of every size,
Up to the full and perfect form,
Daguerreotypes for likeness sal,
But with the pencil's colors warm,
Like summer flowers o'er all the land
These matchless gems of art are strewn
Till not a hamlet sees the sun
Where ROOT is not already known.
Patrons! by your kind aid he stands
With scarce a rival who can claim
A fraction of the honors you
Have heaped upon his humble name.
And now, farewell! this homely rhyme,
The promptings of a grateful heart,
Must close, e'er partial friendship tire;
And we our "calling" done, must part.
Thanks for your generous confidence,
So often shown in days gone by;
We hope twas not unmerited;
And now, to merit more we'll try.

GURNEY'S PALACE OF ART—ANNOUNCEMENT FOR 1855.

DAGUERREOTYPES IN EVERY STYLE. PHOTOGRAPHS IN PASTEL, WATER COLORS AND OIL.—In announcing the arrangements which have been perfected for the ensuing year, Mr. GURNEY desires to call the attention of the public to the fact that he is now the oldest established Daguerreian in the United States. That his rooms were first opened in the year 1841, at a time when the Daguerreian art was in its infancy, and previous to the existence of any establishment now in this City. During a period of fourteen years he has devoted his attention to the advancement and perfection of this art. No time or expense has been spared in the accomplishment of his design, and now, thanks to the correct judgment of an appreciative community, he can truthfully say, that he has succeeded beyond his most sanguine hopes.

Mr. GURNEY desires to return thanks to his friends for their encouragement and support. His recommendations as to the perfection of his portraits he would merely refer the reader to his pictures. Desirous of keeping pace with the improvements of the age, he has, from time to time, engaged artists from Europe who have added him with their genius. At the present time he has no less than eighteen constantly employed in the different departments.

GALLERY OF PORTRAITS.

These rooms containing portraits of the most eminent persons of our day, are open at all times for the inspection of the public. Mr. B. GURNEY, who has charge of this department, is ready at all times to explain the different works of art which surround the walls, and also to those wishing pictures. The reception rooms have been fitted up in the most elegant manner, and contain every convenience.

DAGUERREAN OPERATING ROOMS.

These are superintended by Mr. GURNEY in person, assisted by Messrs. HAYS, PERRY, and JOHNSON, all of whom are proficient artists. Mr. GURNEY attends to the delicate coloring and finishing of the Pictures, which have been so successful in carrying off prizes; they will also be found superior in clearness, correctness, and beauty of finish to those of any other establishment.

PHOTOGRAPHIC ROOMS.

This portion of the establishment is under the direct control of the celebrated FREDRICKS of Paris, whose establishment in the Rue Vaux du Rampart stands unrivalled. Mr. FREDRICKS was the first to introduce the new styles and improvements in the art of PHOTOGRAPHY, and the only one who takes Pictures of life size! Of course, there may be imitators in the art, as there are charlatans in the wake of every successful discovery, but Messrs. GURNEY & FREDRICKS merely refer the Public to the evidence of their total superiority over those of any other artists. Not desirous of discussing the merits of rival establishments, they merely state their own, satisfied to await the so oft favorable judgment of the public.

Photographs cannot be taken in cloudy weather. They are first taken upon glass by the action which light possesses of changing chemical preparations, and afterwards impressed upon paper. Messrs. GURNEY & FREDRICKS have been to great expense in introducing this method of taking Pictures, but they are happy to state that the demand is so great that they cannot doubt the judiciousness of the expenditure. PHOTOGRAPHS can be either plain or finished in oil or pastel and so far superior to the portraits taken by other means. Mr. FREDRICKS is assisted by Mons. PANERERT and other artists.

PASTEL STUDIO.

This is purely an Artist's Studio, where the Photograph receives the colors of life and where, by the most delicate process the picture increases in correctness and beauty at each touch. Mons. Santais and Martain, from Paris, attend to this branch, and bring the highest recommendations. Pastel is not exactly painting in water color, but the stick of paint is used as a brush, and requires the finest pencilling. It is indeed an interesting process and one which will repay a visit.

ARTISTS' STUDIO OR OIL PAINTING.

This is the highest branch of all, where artists of the first distinction labor for the perfection of art, where day after day the portrait of some person is seen from its commencement to completion, and where the Photographs, which are the head of this branch, received the gold medal at Rome, Italy, for his talents. The portraits finished in this studio have already gained fame for this deserving and meritorious artist, and it can be safely stated that they will rival in correct coloring with those of any portrait painter on the Continent.

MINIATURE STUDIO.

Messieurs Vuillez and Hoefer are the Artists in this room. Besides these departments, there are many others devoted to the minor branches of the business, such as preparing plates, which requires a thorough knowledge of the principal of Daguerreotyping.

Mr. GURNEY having thus presented his plans to the public, desires their approval for the success of his new Palace. Upon the foundation of these plans he expects to rise still higher in his profession. Combining all the arts of imitation in his Gallery, and the perfection of finish, he safely challenges the rivalship of any other establishment.

A PAIR OF PICTURES AS LARGE AS LIFE.—A couple of gentlemen engaged in making pictures, who keep a jolly establishment in Broadway, have advertised within the past few weeks as copied below. We place their palpable contradictions side by side, and leave the public to judge whether soliciting patronage by such means is likely to add to the dignity of art or the honor of the men who do it:

LOOK ON THIS PICTURE.	NOW LOOK ON THIS.
In Tribune, Dec. 2, 1854. "The attention of the public is called to our new style of Daguerreotypes ON PAPER, in size as large as life, for expression, in depth of tone and brilliancy, the most finished paintings on canvas.	In Tribune, Dec. 30, 1854. Photographs CANNOT BE TAKEN ON CANVAS—They are first taken on glass, by the action which light possesses of changing chemical preparations, and afterward impressed upon paper. Mr. —, having thus presented his plans to the public, desires their approval. Upon the foundation of these plans he expects to rise still higher in his profession. Combining all the arts of imitation in his Gallery, and the perfection of finish, he safely challenges the rivalship of any other establishment.

Notwithstanding these remarkable assertions, there is an artist in the same block, Root, No. 363 Broadway, who makes life-size Photographs, not on paper only, but directly from the glass to the canvas, thus producing a picture as much superior to the paper-and-canvas combinations as can be imagined. Photographs of every size, on paper or on canvas, as desired. The above remarkable advertisers ask the public to examine their work. We hope they will do so thoroughly. Said a Judge one day to a culprit: "Never mind, I'll see that you have "justice." "Ah! Your Honor," said the fellow, "that's "just what I'm afraid of!"

BROOKLYN ITEMS.

EXTRAORDINARY MARRIAGE.—An extraordinary and most important marriage, in which over 200,000 persons were interested, took place at precisely the hour of midnight, viz: by the Right Honorable, the Voice of the People, the City of Brooklyn, and Wil-Lamsburgh and Bushwick. The question of union was first submitted one year ago last November; there was a feeble objection raised to the proposed union by Mr. Minority, which was silenced by the overwhelming assent of Mr. Majority, and consequently the nuptial ceremony was allowed to proceed, and, according to the terms of the contract, at precisely 12 o'clock last night the trio, for better or for worse, became one. There was no marriage feast, no ringing of bells, no rejoicing at the consummation of the nuptials, but, on the contrary, the occasion was allowed to pass off in silence. Perhaps this can be explained from the fact that it was a marriage of self-interest altogether; no love ever did or ever will exist, but, on the contrary, many little petty selfish squabbles and family jars may be expected. Whether or not the union will prove desirable, future time will show.

There were 52 deaths in Brooklyn last week, of which 25 were adults, and 27 children.

THE LAST MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL.—The final meeting of the Common Council for the year 1854 was held on Friday night; and, as there was much business to transact, the session did not close till 1 o'clock Saturday morning. A number of petitions were presented and referred to Committees, to be acted upon by the incoming Board. The yearly salary of J. E. Perry, the assistant in the office of Commissioner of Repairs and Supplies, was fixed at $700. Several communications from the Mayor were received. One states that he had received copies of charters and ordinances from the municipal authorities of Providence, R. I., Salem, Mass., and the city of Louisville, Ky. A record was made of their acceptance, and courtesy to be reciprocated. Another communication was presented from the Mayor, relative to the increase of his salary, which was ordered to be entered on the minutes. The Chairmen of the several Committees were requested to inclose all papers referred to them, and, remaining undisposed of, in an envelope, and forward them to the Clerk in presentation to the next Board. The proposal of Chas. Robinson to keep the Fire Alarm Telegraph in order at the rate of $100 per annum, previously made, was accepted, to take effect to-day, Jan. 1. The difficulty between the Long Island Railroad Company and the Board was settled by the adoption of the report of the Committee on the subject—the Company ceding to the city a strip of land on Atlantic-av. in exchange for privileges granted to the Company. The thanks of the Board were tendered to the President, Ald. Joseph Wilson, who responded in a neat speech, to the Mayor—Edward A. Lambert—for the able manner, untiring zeal and perseverence in which he discharged the duties of his office; to Joseph Hegeman, City Clerk, and Deputies, for the faithful manner in which they performed their duties
