Literary Notice.—The Pupils pursuing the study of Latin and Greek, under the care of the Rev. W. M. LIVELY, and who have been taught by early rising, so as not to interfere with his Missionary duties, will hold their next Examination on the 2d of May next, at 7½ o'clock P. M., at No 477 7th-av., between 29th and 30th sts. The public are generally invited to attend.

Donation Visit.—The friends of the Rev. CHARLES J. JONES, Pastor of the Mariners' Church (formerly of Roosevelt-st.) under the care of the Port Society, will pay him a Donation Visit, at his residence, No. 84 Madison st., on FRIDAY, May 4, from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. You and your friends are respectfully invited to participate with them on that occasion. Mr JONES has recently removed to this city from St. Louis, Mo., and it is hoped that those who sympathize with the self-denying work in which he is engaged, will make liberal donations, remembering how our Lord Jesus said: "It is more blessed to give than to receive." N. B.—Anything pertaining to housekeeping will be acceptable.

J. R. SMITH'S TOUR OF EUROPE AND SIEGE OF SEVASTOPOL.—There is but one opinion that the most interesting Exhibition in New-York is JOHN R. SMITH'S GRAND TOUR OF EUROPE, and SIEGE OF SEVASTOPOL, showing 100 views, 40 feet wide of the principal objects of interest in Europe. Gen Webb, of The Courrie and Enquirer, says: "I visited this Exhibition in London in company with our Minister, and it is assuredly the most effective Diorama we have ever seen, and richly merits the high encomiums bestowed upon it by the public and the press." At the Chinese Rooms 539 Broadway, EVERY EVENING, at 7½ o'clock, and SATURDAY at 3 o'clock. The Piano Amico by Mr. AYLWIN FIELD, of London. Admittance, 25 cents.

New Publications.

WATSON'S BODY OF DIVINITY: The Select Works of the Rev. Thomas Watson, comprising his celebrated BODY OF DIVINITY, SERMONS, &c. 1 vol., royal 8 vo. $2.
"It is refreshing to have our attention diverted from the metaphysical, hair splitting distinctions of a modern theology, from which too often the Holy Scriptures are kept at a respectful distance, and turned to the more solid, direct, scriptural theology of the Nonconformist times, when the Bible was the great authority of the Minister of Christ, and a "Thus saith the Lord" the most conclusive of all theological arguments. Watson lived and suffered for his principles in those times, and was one of the voluminous writers of the period. His discourses, illustrative of the Shorter Catechism, have been justly esteemed for their happy admixture of the credenda and agenda, the faith and the practice becoming the Christian; and although the old-fashioned method of dividing a subject too much discarded in modern times, is here adopted, there is at once directness and brevity of illustration. The miscellaneous Sermons appended are of the same general excellent character." [Presbyterian.
"Those who have never examined it will be surprised at the sententious wisdom and searching spirituality that are packed up into its compact lectures." [Watchman.
"It is thoroughly Calvinistic, ingenious in argument, copious in illustration, and full of suggestion." [Evangelist.
"As a judicious, well arranged and practical exposition of the doctrines of the system of Divine truth, it deservedly holds a high rank and for popular and profitable use it excels the systems of divinity which more lately have been given to the public." [Christian Intelligencer.
THE FOOTSTEPS OF ST. PAUL. 12mo. $1.
"If we were limited to any single, uninspired volume, we would prefer to follow the footsteps of Paul "The Youth," "the Scholar," "the Persecutor," "the Convert," &c., under the guidance of this author, in preference to any other." [Colonial Presbyterian.
THE RICH KINSMAN; Or, THE HISTORY OF RUTH, THE MOABITESS. By the Rev. Dr. Tyng. $1.
"It is done in Dr. Tyng's clear, nervous, and evangelical style of thought and expression. It is, beyond all doubt, the best practical exposition of this book that we have." [Watchman and Observer.
STRAY ARROWS. By the Rev. T. L. Cuyler. 40 cents.
"The author of this work, though a young man, has already attained a place among the most popular and useful ministers in the Dutch Church. These productions of his pen will, we think, go far toward accounting for it—they are full of bright, earnest, pungent thoughts expressed in appropriate and glowing language." [Argus
THE FAMILY AT HEATHERDALE. By Mrs. Col. Mackay. 18mo. Illustrated. 50 cents.
ASHTON COTTAGE; Or, THE TRUE FAITH. Illustrated. 16mo. 50 cents.
PHILIP COLVILLE; a Covenanter Story. By Grace Kennedy. 18mo. 50 cents.
"A short touching story of the Covenanters, from the accomplished pen of Grace Kennedy—exhibiting a beautiful picture of pious endurance and faith, with many incidental notices of a memorable religious era." [Evangelist.
RICH AND POOR, AND OTHER TRACTS FOR THE TIMES. By the Rev. J. C. Ryle. 16mo. 75 cents.
"The readers of Mr Ryle's previous works will be prepared for these Tracts, and will not be disappointed. They will find the same earnest, outspoken piety, that searches the deep things of the heart, which they have admired in his previous works." [Watchman.
MEMOIRS OF JOHN FREDERICK OBERLIN. 18mo. 40 cents.

Published This Day:
THE ENGLISH WOMAN IN RUSSIA.—Impressions of the Society and Manners of the Russians at Home. By a Lady, ten years in that country. 1 vol. 12mo., with 6 engravings. $1 12.
From The N. Y. Tribune
"She certainly appears to have had uncommon opportunities for observing the manners of domestic and social life among the Russians, and to have used them with the nimble tact and fluent pen of a woman intent on making an entertaining book. She is a very agreeable story-teller, never growing drowsy in her narrative, showing a quick sense of the comic, and chatting away with her readers in a tone of such charming confidence, that you can scarcely help feeling that she has an eye to your own special amusement."
The Gentleman's Magazine says: "It is not only an interesting, but an extraordinary work. The authoress is not a person who has run through the country, guide-book and note-book in hand. Here is no fortnight in Russia, nor even the fruit of a long vacation trip. Strange to say, she really knows something of the people of whom she writes. She has lived ten years among them, moving in good general society, and seeking and finding constant opportunities of becoming acquainted with the habits of that most heterogeneous mass, which is called the Russian people."
Now Ready:
N. P. Willis's new work—THE RAG-BAG. 1 vol. 12mo. $1 25.
