To the Public.

WHEN THE BLOOD IS IMPURE, the stomach and bowels become disordered, the mental faculties prostrated, and the whole human system disordered and deranged—the great secret then is to

PURIFY THE BLOOD,

for if the blood be only pure the body must be in a healthy state and free from disease.

DR. TOWNSEND'S SARSAPARILLA,

as manufactured under the direction and supervision of Dr. JAMES R. CHILTON, the most celebrated Chemist and Physician in this country,

NEVER FAILS TO PURIFY THE BLOOD.

It is the only GENUINE SARSAPARILLA put up in this country, and is manufactured from the very best imported HONDURAS SARSAPARILLA, in connection with other vegetable substances which science and experience have proved useful in ERADICATING DISEASE FROM THE SYSTEM.

We would PARTICULARLY CAUTION the Public against using other preparations purporting to be Extracts of Sarsaparilla, as none of them are prepared by persons at all acquainted with the properties of the ingredients which they use; and in some cases the effects of using them may be disastrous and fatal to the patient, from the want of proper experience in the compounder. Thousands who have used those other preparations in vain can testify that Dr. TOWNSEND'S SARSAPARILLA is the

ONLY SARSAPARILLA

which will effectually eradicate disease, cleanse the system, restore a healthy action to all the functions of the body, and

KEEP THE BLOOD PURE.

ACADEMY of MUSIC.—The Committee of Management having announced that the Academy would be closed during the absence of the Italian Company at Boston, it is deemed proper to make the following explanation as to their motives in allowing it to pass temporarily into other hands. A negotiation took place, as the public are aware, for the junction of the La Grange troupe with the present one, but circumstances prevented its consummation. One of the results of this change of plan, however, was to deprive the La Grange troupe of the occupancy of Niblo's Garden, and there being no other theater vacant at this moment in New-York, an urgent appeal, supported by cogent reasons, was made yesterday to the Committee of Management for the possession of the Academy of Music during the interval that their Company was performing in Boston.
Sincerely reluctant to expose the parties concerned to the serious loss a refusal would have entailed, the Committee decided to abandon their first intention of closing the Academy, and have therefore consented to the appearance of the La Grange troupe, with the understanding that their own Company shall, on the close of their limited number of representations at Boston, return thither to give their final performances in New-York.

HEIR AT LAW.

TESTIMONIAL to JAMES W. WALLACK, Esq.—At a meeting of the ladies and gentlemen of the company, the musicians, artists, mechanics and attaches of Wallack's Theater generally, held on the stage on the forenoon of WEDNESDAY, May 16,
the following proceedings took place:
Mr. BLAKE was called to the chair; Mr. J. BROUGHAM appointed Vice-Chairman, and Mr. H. B. PHILLIPS, Secretary.
The Chairman then stated the object of the meeting to be the adoption of some suitable and substantial method of manifesting the good will and kindly considerations of the entire establishment toward their friend and manager. Mr. Blake said he would always feel gratification in having originated this proceeding, which was now enhanced by the spontaneous exhibition of admiration and regard with which all seemed to participate in the preliminary arrangements. Mr. Wallack's fame as an actor, said he, is world-wide; and at this time it was not intended to say more than that no small portion of his long professional life had been passed in the United States—the citizens of which had always borne ample testimony to his rare qualifications, and would now, he felt assured, cooperate with the profession in doing honor to one of its most gifted and respected members. By those whose duties in the theater had rendered intercourse with Mr. Wallack necessary, cheerful and honorable testimony will be borne to the energetic, correct, impartial and dignified manner in which he has acted; nor is it less essential to acknowledge the liberal and punctual fulfillment by him of all his contracts—establishing in each particular the good government of his popular theater and the patronage of the friends of the drama. Mr. Blake then alluded in most considerate terms to the lessee's prolonged illness and the pleasure generally expressed in the prospect of his returning health—adding that the tribute about to be given would also be congratulatory on that score. [Much applause was given during Mr. Blake's address, in which the ladies joined most heartily.]
Mr. Dyott then read the following resolution:
Whereas, All present duly acknowledge the claims which Mr. Wallack has upon our best efforts, in reference to the matter now under consideration, it is Resolved, That every member of this establishment shall offer his or her services on a night hereafter to be appointed, as a BENEFIT TESTIMONIAL TO MR. WALLACK, with such other additional demonstration of their respect and esteem as shall be further determined upon.
Seconded by Mr. Vincent and carried with the greatest enthusiasm.
A Committee of General Superintendence of the Festival was then appointed, with directions to call a meeting of the citizens and friends of Mr. Wallack generally, in connection with the occasion.
Sub-Committees were then appointed for the arrangement with Managers of Theaters, the Profession, Operatic and Musical Attractions, Finance, Printing, Requirements of the Stage, Costumes, &c. (with power to add to their number), embracing the names of Mr. Blake, Mr. Brougham, Mr. Dyott, Mr. Phillips, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Bernard, Mr. Chippendale, Mr. Stoddart, Mons. Chatel, Sig. La Manna, Mons. Rishein, Mr. W. B. Moore, Mr. Isherwood, Mr. Demilt, Mr. R. Williams, and others.
Mr. Blake then announced that he had anticipated the enthusiasm with which the design of the meeting would be accomplished, and as an earnest that the endeavors made in the premises here would be nobly responded to in all quarters, he was gratified to be able to state that early that had cordially and promptly tendered his services [Great applause and cheering].
MR. E. DAVENPORT would also contribute his aid, in conjunction with MISS FANNY VINING
[Continued applause and cheering]. The list of eminent Volunteer Talent for this manifestation (concluded Mr. Blake) will form the Greatest Galaxy ever presented to a New-York audience, and will remain a record of interest to "all time."
The meeting then adjourned.

A NEW WORK by the Author of "The Heir of Redclyffe."
D. APPLETON & Co., Nos. 346 and 348 Broadway,
Publish This Day,
THE TWO GUARDIANS; Or,
HOME IN THIS WORLD.
By the Author of
"The Heir of Redclyffe," "Heartsease," &c.
1 vol., 12mo.; paper covers, 50 cents; cloth, 75 cents.
The Plan of the Author in Writing this Series of Books:
Throughout these tales the plan has been to present a picture of ordinary life, with its small daily events, its pleasures and its trials, so as to draw out its capabilities of being turned to the best account; great events such as befall only a few are thus excluded, and in the hope of helping to present a clue, by example, to the perplexities of daily life, the incidents which render a story exciting have been sacrificed and the attempt has been made to make the interest of the book depend on character painting.
Each has been written with the view to illustrate some principle which may be called the key note.
The present story is intended to set forth the manner in which a Christian may contend with and conquer this world, living in it but not of it, and rendering it a means of self-renunciation.
Extract from a Review of the "Heir of Redclyffe" and "Heartsease," in The North American Review for April:
"The first of her writings that made a sensation here was the 'Heir,' and what a sensation it was. Referring to the remains of the tear-washed covers of the copy aforesaid, we find it belonged to the 'eighth thousand.' How many thousand have been issued since by its publishers, to supply the demand for new and the places of drowned, di-solved, or swept away old copies, we do not attempt to conjecture. Not individuals merely, but households, consisting in great part of tender-hearted young damsels, were plunged into mourning. With a tolerable acquaintance with fictitious heroes (not to speak of real ones) from Sir Charles Grandison down to the nursery Idiot Carlton, we have little hesitation in pronouncing Sir Guy Morville, of Redclyffe, Baronet, the most admirable one we ever met with in story or out. The glorious, joyous boy, the brilliant, ardent, chivalrous child of genius and of fortune, crowned with the beauty of his early holiness, and overshadowed with the darkness of his hereditary doom, and the soft and touching sadness of his early death—what a caution is there! what a vision!"
