TO THEATRICAL MANAGERS.—The Publishers of THE AMERICAN DOMESTIC ROMANCE, THE WATCHMAN, Which will be issued in a few days, hereby beg to inform Theatrical Managers, and all others concerned, that the story has been Dramatized, and the Copyright thereof secured. They have been solicited by various Managers for a copy of the Book in advance for the already purpose of Dramatizing it. These and others will perceive by this notice that their original right of copy cannot be invaded, and applications in future must be made to them for the especial right to perform this Drama. H. LONG & BROTHER, No. 121 Nassau-st., New-York.

100 COPIES of FINDEN'S ROYAL GALLERY—FOLIO.—FIFTY ENGRAVINGS.—Price only $15. FINDEN'S ROYAL GALLERY—British Art. 1 vol. Atlas Folio. Price $15. Embellished with Fifty Large Engravings, from the most celebrated English Painters. No book has ever been imported into this country which possesses the same interest as this SUPERB ILLUSTRATED WORK. It contains the chefs d'œuvre of the MODERN ENGLISH SCHOOL of ART, embracing such names as Sir Joshua Reynolds, Gainsborough, Sir David Wilkie, Stanfield, Turner, Landseer, Cooper, Collins, Eastlake, Webster, Maclise, and a host of others too numerous to mention within the limits of an advertisement. Upward of $10,000 was expended upon the engraving of these pieces which, for beauty of execution, are not equalled by any, whether by the French, Spanish, Italian or German school. They are all of a size for framing, enabling the engraver sufficient space to do justice to the painter's peculiar style. A rare opportunity is here offered for procuring this magnificent work of Art. D. APPLETON & Co., Importers, No. 346 and 348 Broadway, New-York.

THE MOST SUCCESSFUL STORY yet published.—Unprecedented demand for The SUNDAY MERCURY. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather last Sunday, the extra large edition of THE MERCURY containing the first part of the deeply interesting original Local Tale entitled THE LURE OF GOLD was completely exhausted before 8 o'clock A. M., and a second edition was worked off to supply the demand. The proprietors know not whether to attribute this extra call for THE MERCURY to the excellence of the capital series of original Local Tales they are publishing, or to the superior attraction of the general contents of the paper. They have good reason to attribute it, however, to both; and in order that all their patrons may be sure of receiving the paper, they promise to have a sufficiency worked to-morrow to meet all demands that may be made. Military men, Firemen, Politicians, the Dramatic and Musical professions, members of the Masonic Fraternity, as well as all those who desire good and entertaining reading matter for the family circle, will find in THE MERCURY much to interest, amuse and instruct them. PRICE THREE CENTS per single copy; country subscribers $1 per year in advance. For sale everywhere—Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore, Albany, Buffalo, Cincinnati, New-Orleans, San Francisco, &c. N. B.—As THE MERCURY is one of the most widely circulated of the New-York weekly papers, advertisers will find it to their interest to have their announcements appear in its columns.

LIEBIG'S NEW WORK ON AGRICULTURAL CHEMISTRY. JOHN WILEY, No. 167 Broadway, will publish in a few days PRINCIPLES OF AGRICULTURAL CHEMISTRY, With special reference to the late R. searches made in England. By Justus Von Liebig. 1 vol. 12mo., cloth, price 50 cents. "It is, so far as I can judge, by far the best of the author's writings on the important subject to which it refers. Apart from all controversy, it contains, in the shape of fifty propositions, a most admirable summary of the true relation between Chemistry and Agriculture. These propositions are, be
