B., in the Broadway Tabernacle, on FRIDAY EVENING, June 1. HENRY LLOYD, G. W. P., will preside, supported by the National Division.
Interesting exercises may be expected—the programme of which will be published in the morning papers of that day.
The friends of Temperance and the public generally are invited to attend. Admission free.

The New-York Weekly Critic.—The first number of this paper will be for sale on SATURDAY MORNING, June 2, in every newsroom in the city; also at the bookstores of Stringer & Townsend, De Witt & Davenport, and J. T. Crowen.
THE CRITIC will be what its name indicates—a paper that will fearlessly discuss political and social questions of general or local importance. No man, profession or subject, will be considered by the writers for THE CRITIC too sacred for wholesome ventilation. The public will of course be able to form a more just idea of the probable course of THE CRITIC from the contents of the first two or three numbers than from the promises of the proprietors in an advertisement; but it is thought necessary to mention the above feature of the paper for the reason that the impression prevails to a great extent among literary men that THE CRITIC is to be a journal of the Oyster House school, and devoted nearly exclusively to the Fine Arts, which is not the case, as politicians, and "shams" generally will discover quite soon enough to be agreeable to them. CLEVELAND & McELRATH, No. 17 Spruce-st.

Remittances to Iowa.

FINDEN'S ROYAL GALLERY.—Retail price only $20.
FINDEN'S ROYAL GALLERY OF BRITISH ART. 1 vol., atlas folio, price $20. Embellished with fifty large Engravings from the most celebrated painters. No book has ever been imported into this country which possesses the same interest as this super-illustrated work. It contains the chief d'œuvres of the modern English School of Art, embracing such names as Sir Joshua Reynolds, Gainsborough, Sir David Wilkie, Stanfield, Turner, Landseer, Cooper, Collins, Eastlake, Webster, Maclise, and a host of others too numerous to mention within the limits of an advertisement. Upward of $100,000 was expended upon the engraving of these plates, which for beauty of execution are not equaled by any, whether by the French, Spanish Italian or German school. They are all of a size for framing, enabling the engraver sufficient space to do justice to the painter's peculiar style.
A rare opportunity is here offered for procuring this magnificent work of Art. D. APPLETON & Co., Nos. 346 and 348 Broadway.
