BARNUM'S AMERICAN MUSEUM.—OPEN EVERY DAY AND EVENING, with its immense array of Curiosities and Amusements. THE GRAND NATIONAL BABY SHOW will take place on TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY and FRIDAY, June 5, 6, 7 and 8, 1855, when the most INTERESTING DISPLAY OF HANDSOME INFANTS, as well as the most extraordinary collection of TWINS, TRIPLETS, QUATERNS and FAT BABIES, ever witnessed in the world, will be presented, and upward of ELEVEN HUNDRED DOLLARS IN PREMIUMS distributed among the most meritorious by the lady judges.
The most ample arrangements have been made for INGRESS and EGRESS at the Museum on this occasion, by which FORTY THOUSAND VISITORS may be comfortably accommodated, on each day of the BABY SHOW, during the hours set apart for that exhibition. The Baby Show will continue EACH DAY, FROM 11 A. M. TO 3 P. M., and at 3 o'clock on Thursday afternoon THE ADDRESS BY MRS. L. N. FOWLER Will be delivered in the Lecture-Room.
Notwithstanding the large amount of money expended in premiums for this Show, the admittance to all the Curiosities of the Museum, INCLUDING THE BABY SHOW and the DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENTS, as well as the GIANTESS, DWARF LADY, ALBINO LADY, OURANG OUTANG, LIVING OSTRICHES, FEJEE MERMAID, HAPPY FAMILY, &c., will be as usual ONLY 25 CENTS—CHILDREN HALF PRICE.
In the Lecture-Room will be presented EVERY EVENING AT 8 O'CLOCK, and WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY AFTERNOONS AT 5, From Monday, 4th June, to Saturday, the 9th, the new and deeply interesting Drama in three acts, now being played in London with great success, and entitled THE LONELY MAN OF THE OCEAN, OR, THE NIGHT BEFORE THE BRIDAL.
Lieut. Adam Bashford.....C. W. Clarke.
Cyrus Bloom.....Hadaway.
Eve Hillinston.....Miss Mestayer.
On the OTHER AFTERNOONS OF THE WEEK select pieces of the most entertaining description.
The following is what The Evening Post newspaper says in regard to this Baby Show:
THE BABY SHOW.
This queer and much berated exhibition projected by Barnum is to open on the morning of TUESDAY, the 5th of June, without fail. It will continue open until the following Friday evening.
The premiums amount in all to $1,100, and the lady judges will be authorized to add to the list any number of diplomas, at discretion.
On Thursday Mrs. L. N. Fowler will deliver the address in the Lecture-Room. The judges are all ladies of respectability, and doubtless will be strictly impartial.
Barnum has been ridiculed and abused not a little for this exhibition, but we venture to say that he has struck a vein of public curiosity which most of the mothers and many of the fathers of the land will be glad of an opportunity of gratifying. One hundred picked babies, under five years of age, all in one room, is a sight never yet witnessed on this continent.
The Museum is unquestionably the GREAT PLACE OF FAMILY AMUSEMENT, is always clean, quiet, orderly, and visited by citizens and strangers who desire rational entertainment, and would avoid anything calculated to corrupt the mind or taint the juvenile imagination.
Admission 25 cents; Children under ten, half-price.

DUSSELDORF GALLERY, No. 497 Broadway—Open from 9 A. M. till 10 o'clock P. M., daily. Admittance 25 cents. One hundred and fifty of the choicest PAINTINGS ever collected together now adorn the walls of this Gallery. It is superior to any other collection on this continent. To be appreciated, it needs but to be seen.

J. R. SMITH'S TOUR OF EUROPE AND SIEGE OF SEVASTOPOL.—The most interesting Exhibition in New-York, showing 100 views, 40 feet wide, of the principal objects of interest in Europe. At the Chinese Rooms, No. 559 Broadway, EVERY EVENING, at 8 o'clock, and SATURDAY at 3 o'clock. Admittance, 25 cents.

MRS. WISE begs leave to announce to the public that she has opened her Rooms for the INVESTIGATION of SPIRITS, as a RAPPING and WRITING MEDIUM, at No. 653 Broadway. Hours from 10 to 1, and from 3 to 5, and from 7 to 9 every day and evening. Admission 50 cents

THE CRYSTAL PALACE will remain open to the public, at a small charge, until further notice. Most of the Paintings and Statuary are still on exhibition.

DAVIDSON'S ILLUSTRATED LIBRETTO-BOOKS of the OPERA—Elegantly printed in small quarto. Price 25 cents and under. A new work for the Opera admirer, printed on an entirely novel plan; the music of all the principal pieces being given, and placed over the English and foreign version of the words, so that the reader is not only able to follow the music as well as the Libretto of the Opera, but has a complete preservation of both for after reference or performance. Already published: IL BARBIERE DI SIVIGLIA, with 11 pieces of Music; LA CENERENTOLA, 10 pieces; OTELLO, 8 pieces; DON PASQUALE, 6 pieces; LINDA DI CHAMOUNIX, 10 pieces; DER FREISCHUTZ, 10 pieces; MEDEA, 10 pieces; SEMIRAMIDE, 10 pieces; LES HUGUENOTS, 10 pieces; LA SONNAMBULA, 10 pieces; GUSTAVUS III., 5 pieces; ROBERTO IL DIAVOLO, 7 pieces; ROMEO E. GIULIETTA, 7 pieces; LA FIGLIA DEL REGIMENTO, 8 pieces.

THE GREAT BOOK IS PUBLISHED—BLANCHE DEARWOOD, An American Novel of deep and absorbing interest, by an American writer of great promise. The question "Who reads and American book?" will now be changed to "Who has not read Blanche Dearwood?" Judging from what the critics say of this book, in a few years hence the term "By the author of Blanche Dearwood" will be as familiar to our lips as "By the author of Waverly."
Also, just published, THE MISSING BRIDE; Or, MIRIAM, THE AVENGER. By Mrs. Southworth, author of The Lost Heiress, &c.
All other books and publications on hand.

This paper is devoted to sound Evangelical principles, and the maintenance of pure Protestant Truth.

A WORD to TEACHERS about GRAMMAR.—The great demand for TOWER'S ELEMENTS OF GRAMMAR has obliged us to issue several large editions in rapid succession, and another is now in press. It is no exaggeration to say that it is better adapted to the mind of the young pupil than any other Primary Grammar in use, and it is so for the reason that it recognizes the fact that the child before he enters school has begun to make a grammar of the language for himself, and merely wants encouragement and guidance to accomplish his task. "Even the errors of children," says the author "show how early they acquire a knowledge of its general structure." The object of this little work is to furnish the child such guidance as he requires, and to make grammar an intellectual exercise, without loading the memory with abstract terms which it is impossible for the pupil to understand. Its definitions are clear as crystal, and the sentences which are used for illustration are perfectly simple and transparent, because they are intended for children, whose thoughts are simple, and whose minds are untrained to any severe exercise of the powers of discrimination, classification, or abstraction.
Although so small, it is truly a philosophical Grammar, and it is exceedingly popular wherever it is known and used.
To Teachers we would say "Get the best!" Look at Tower's Elements of Grammar, and decide for yourself whether it will relieve you of one of the burdens of the school room, and assist and interest your scholars in a study which they are apt to think dry and useless.
A copy of the work will be sent by mail, postage paid, on receipt of 25 cents.

NORTON'S TRANSLATION OF THE GOSPELS.
LITTLE, BROWN & Co., BOSTON, Have just published
A TRANSLATION OF THE GOSPELS, WITH NOTES.
Vol. I, Text; Vol. II, Notes. 2 vols. 8vo., 1,000 pp.
By ANDREWS NORTON.
Price, $4.
"This Translation of the Gospels occupied a portion of the author's time for many years of his life. It was undertaken in the conviction that no version of the Gospel existed in English which did not present many obstacles to a right understanding of them and to a just appreciation of the evidence for their truth afforded by their internal character. A translation was needed, which, while corresponding to the original as nearly as the idiom of our language would permit, should not be a mere verbal rendering, but should clearly express the meaning of the text—preserving as far as possible the simplicity which characterizes the style of the Evangelists. The present work was accordingly regarded by the author as the necessary basis of a treatise which it was his purpose to publish on the internal evidences of the genuineness of the Gospels; while that treatise, at the same time, might serve as an introduction to the translation. This intended treatise, though begun many years ago, was never finished. Such portions of it, however, as were left in manuscript, have been printed in a separate volume (see below) with other papers, relating more or less directly to the same subject."
Also, just published, INTERNAL EVIDENCES OF THE GENUINENESS OF THE GOSPELS.
By ANDREWS NORTON.
