CRICKET.

PATERSON vs. NEW-YORK CLUB.

New-York got a great victory on Wednesday at Paterson, N. J., in the above match, winning by 72 runs. The day was all a cricketer could desire—little or no sun, and the ground beautifully situated near the Falls—on the place occupied by Washington when he treated from Long-Island—drew together a great many visitors. New-York having won the toss commenced the game, and got 71 in good style—Scott and Davison making the score; the latter showed some good cricketing. In the second innings Addy Barclay came out nobly and made 24. Porter, Richards, Tower and Maxwell also batted well. Richards and Baillerie bowled good, but the fielding on the second innings was bad, if we except a new player, Preston, who made two excellent catches. The Paterson-boys, though terribly behind in their score, played well and fielded better than New-York. Law and Hinchcliffe made two splendid catches. Hallins bowled well. Treguar, Shaw, Pearson and Law deserve a notice as batsmen. The New-Yorkers spent a very agreeable day, and everything passed off pleasantly. The Union Club engaged a suite of rooms for their accommodation at Messrs. Brady's Cottage on the Cliff, looking the Falls, and between the innings presented them with an excellent collation. The game finished at about 6¾, but no train running till 10:18, they did not reach New-York till 11¼ o'clock. The game stood as follows:

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

CASE OF COL. KINNEY.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT—JUNE 7—Before Judge BETTS.

The District-Attorney called on the trial of Messrs. Kinney and Fabens, jointly indicted for the alleged breach of the neutrality laws in setting on foot an expedition against the State of Nicaragua, with which the United States are at peace, &c.

Mr. Eager, one of the counsel for defense, said he answered for Col. Kinney for the purpose of renewing a motion made yesterday that the trial of Col. Kinney stand over till after the trial in the case of Mr. Fabens who is now present in Court. The District-Attorney objected, as he wished to try the parties together.

Mr. Eager said that Messrs. Van Buren and Hoffman, the associate counsel with himself and Mr. Fancher could not be present, and on that ground he also wished the trial to be put off. The Judge replied that he had given notice that the trial must proceed to-day.

Mr. Eager said that Col. Kinney had all the papers in his own possession, and his counsel do not know the names of witnesses, &c. Mr. F. finally said he does not know where Col. K. is, although they had a note from him and he was at their office yesterday, and if the District-Attorney determines to go on he will withdraw from the case.

The District-Attorney then moved that the recognizance of Col. Kinney be forfeited, and that a bench-warrant issue, and he must postpone the trial till he could see the effect of the bench-warrant. The Judge thought the idea a proper one. He (the Judge) would see that the Court is not trifled with.

Mr. Fancher then urged the Court to proceed in the trial of Mr. Fabens, who, he contended, was entitled to be tried, notwithstanding the absence of Col. Kinney. He is detained at great sacrifice, and his case should be disposed of.

Mr. Cutting, associate counsel with the District-Attorney, remarked: "Suppose we show that Col. Kinney is away by consent with Mr. Fabens."

The counsel said it is to be presumed that he is not.

The Judge said the Court would not make any presumption against a party, nor will it presume anything in his favor. If there is any good cause for the case to proceed, it should be shown by affidavit.

Mr. F. then drew up an affidavit, which was sworn to by Mr. Fabens, in which latter stated that he is a resident of Nicaragua; that he has been detained in this city since 5th April for the sole purpose of this trial, and is here on expense, &c.; that he has received dispatches from Nicaragua in relation to his private interests, and that he has landed and other property which requires his attention at home. He says he has not been connected with Col. Kinney or any other person in any expedition, and he does not know of any in which Col. Kinney is engaged; nor does he know or believe that any such expedition as spoken of is purposed by Col. Kinney.

The District Attorney remarked that the affidavit is little more than a plea of not guilty, merely adding cato his private business. A severance of the cases must be on different grounds, that the testimony to be presented against one will unjustly affect and injure the other, and matters such as that.

The Judge said the Court is to assume that there were facts before the Grand-Jury sufficient to authorize them to associate the defendants in the indictment. They being connected, the first question is, Can the trial be separated? The Supreme Court has sealed that separating the trial of parties joined in one indictment is altogether a matter within the discretion of the Court before which the parties are brought. I would not permit two parties to be tried together, the Judge said, where the testimony as to the one would prejudice the other; on the other hand I would not consider it proper to place upon the District-Attorney the burden of two trials when the evidence would not probably have such an effect. The present motion is on altogether new grounds. The application to postpone the trial yesterday was on account of the counsel being engaged elsewhere, but there was no objection made to the parties being tried together.

Messrs. Fancher and Eager made further remark.

Finally Mr. Eager inquired of the District-Attorney if he would try the case to-morrow if Col. Kinney came into Court.

The District-Attorney replied that he would. The matter then lay over with the understanding that the trial proceed on Friday.

The Assistant District-Attorney called Wm. Kneass, a witness, but he not answering, an attachment was moved for and ordered. The Court then adjourned.

MARINE COURT.—JUNE 7.—Before Judge MCCARTHY.

William H. Ponell agt. William O'Brien.

Plaintiff is assignee of William M. Peck, on alleged promise of defendant to pay said Peck $500, in consideration of one-half of such sum as Señor Marsoleta and Joseph L. White, by agreement with defendant, should pay defendant for loss of time, money and services for obtaining men for Col. Kinney's expedition to Nicaragua; and on further consideration, that plaintiff should remain as a witness for the United States Government in the proceedings on the indictment against Col. Kinney. The defendant, it is alleged, had received $650 from Messrs. Marsoleta and White. Plaintiff also claims $200 under an assignment, for work, labor and services of Wm. H. Peck.

The Court under the testimony dismissed the complaint, considering that there was no evidence of the delivery of the assignment to plaintiff, nor authority from plaintiff to commence the action.

SUIT FOR SERVICES.

Frost against Tyler & Veltman.

By a clerk against Messrs. Tyler & Veltman, crockery dealers, Maiden-lane and Liberty-st., to recover salary, having made a verbal agreement to be employed a year, at $600 a year. He was discharged not very long after the commencement of the engagement, a portion of the salary (to the time) being paid. He sues for the balance of the year. In defense incapacity for the duties of the situation was set up, which was denied. Verdict for plaintiff $400. For plaintiff Mr. H. D. Townsend. For defendants Messrs. Barnard and Rice.

CIRCUIT COURT—JUNE 7—Before Judge ROOSEVELT.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Adeline Curtis agt. Joseph T. Curtis.

In this case, already referred to, it was shown that Dr. C. (defendant) went to board with Mr. John T. Cleveland, in May, 1853. A young woman also boarded there part of the Summer named Howard. Dr. C. went from there to board with Dr. Wellington in Twelfth-st., and Miss Howard soon afterward also took up her residence at Dr. W.'s as Dr. C.'s nurse. He was unwell of congestive fever. They subsequently went to the West together and returned to New-York and resided as man and wife, and Dr. C. introduced Miss H. to parties as his wife. At a former period it was shown Dr. C. had been twice in the Lunatic Asylum. The witness could not tell if plaintiff influenced his being placed there; supposed it to be by his physicians. He did not exhibit any indications of insanity while at the houses above named, although one of the witnesses said he had understood that he was at one time so afflicted. A witness who is acquainted with them said he did not know that Dr. C. had been sick since his return from the West. He pursues his profession as a practicing physician.

An offer was made on the part of the defense to read a decree of the Supreme Court of Indiana, divorcing plaintiff and defendant, but it was objected to and ruled out.

The Court in its charge said that a decree of divorce obtained against plaintiff in Indiana, he not residing there, but residing here, is not valid; and that if the Jury consider that defendant and the said Miss Howard lived together as man and wife, the charge of infidelity, so far as the law is concerned, has been made out.

The Jury found a verdict that defendant had been guilty of the offense as charged. The Court then adjourned.

SUIT FOR INSURANCE.

Harper & Brothers agt. The Mutual Insurance Company of Albany.

Messrs. H. were insured at different offices, (mostly in sums of $5,000 at each,) $127,450 on their printing and publishing establishment, and stock, in Cliff and Pearl-sts., which was destroyed by fire, it will be recollected, 10th Dec., 1853, but since rebuilt, and a splendid establishment again occupying the old site. Of the amount, we understand, all the offices paid their losses except ten, of which number the defendant is one.

The defense is that by the terms of the policy Messrs. Harper had no right to use, on the premises, camphene and spirit gas or burning fluid; but that they used and kept in the buildings a large quantity of camphene, whereby the risk and danger of loss was greatly increased. They claim, therefore, that in consequence of said use of camphene the policy is void.

It was shown that camphene was used in the establishment in the cleaning of the rollers, or inking machines, and the stereotype plates. It was also shown that turpentine has been used for a long time in printing offices for such purposes, and that camphene is composed almost entirely of turpentine, and that camphene is used in printing offices for fine work.

The Court in its charge left it for the Jury to say from the evidence whether it was customary in such an office as the Messrs. Harpers' to use camphene as a part of their printing operations, and whether it was so generally used that the Insurance Company could be supposed to know that such was done. If so, the verdict must be for plaintiffs; if it was not in general use in such establishments, but that the Messrs. Harpers' was an exception, the verdict must be for defendant. The Jury then retired. For plaintiffs, Messrs. Bowne and Whiting. For defendants, Messrs. Thompson & Haynes.

After being out sometime the Jury were brought into Court. Eleven were in favor of a verdict for plaintiffs to full amount, and one for a verdict for defendant. By consent a verdict was entered for plaintiffs in the amount claimed, and interest, subject to the opinion of the Court.

ALLEGED LIBEL IN CIRCULAR.

Henry Fern agt. Francis and Geo. W. Smith.

Plaintiff was employed by the Messrs. Smith to canvass for subscribers to a picture of a View of Brooklyn, and he alleges that they subsequently issued a circular to the subscribers reflecting upon his character. He sues to recover $25,000. In defense circumstances are alleged with a view of substantiating the truth of the circular. To be continued. For plaintiff, Mr. Wm. Mootry. For defendants, Messrs. Field and Brainard & Rice.

KINGS COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT—JUNE 8—Before Judge RECKWELL.

Henry G. Hazen agt. Cortlin Pearsall.

Action brought against the defendant, a horse-dealer in New-York, by plaintiff, who alleges that by fraud he had been induced to part with his money, the horse represented as sound having turned out to be lame and unsound. The Court charged that the Jury must be satisfied that the representation was fraudulent; that where breach of the warrantee would not entitle the plaintiff to recover in the present action. The Jury after about two hours absence returned a verdict for the plaintiff—damages $50.

Timothy Hoggett against Englebert Lott, sheriff.—Action brought by Timothy Hoggett against the defendant for the value of horses, wagons, and other property taken in execution against Samuel T. Hoggett, son of the plaintiff. The defense was that the assignment of the father was merely colorable, as S. T. Hoggett, the judgment debtor, had personally bought and dealt with the property, and that it was his in fact. Verdict for the plaintiff, with nominal damages.

The case of Christopher Bellmer against Hanford R. Fierden and others, was called in its order, and on motion of defendants' counsel went off on payment of cost for the term.

DIVORCE—CURTIS agt. CURTIS.

To the Editor of The N. Y. Tribune.

SIR: The undersigned, in behalf of Dr. Joseph T. Curtis, begs leave to correct the erroneous reports in the other daily papers of the case of Curtis agt. Curtis, tried before Judge Roosevelt on the 6th inst. The only point of importance in the entire case was whether a decree or judgment of divorce regularly obtained in the State of Indiana was valid and binding in the State of New-York. By Act of Congress of May 26, 1790,

"the records and judicial proceedings of the Courts of any State in the United States are proved or entitled to be admitted in the Courts of any other State upon being authenticated by the attestation of the Clerk and the seal of the Court annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate of the Judge, Chief Justice or presiding magistrate, as the case may be, that the said attestation is in due form. Such records and judicial proceedings, authenticated as aforesaid, have the same faith and credit given to them in every Court of the State where they may be offered as they have by law or usage in the Courts of the State from which such records are taken."

See also 2 New-York Rev. Statutes, 4th Ed., p. 642.

Such a decree properly exemplified was introduced in evidence on the part of Dr. Curtis, and submitted under the foregoing acts and under the decisions of the Courts under the same as binding and conclusive in the present action. Judge Roosevelt however held for the purposes of the trial that the same was not admissible, and the Jury under his direction were obliged to find a verdict for the plaintiff on the technical point merely. The Judge has reserved the case however for the consideration of the full Bench, as the point is one of great importance and worthy of a more mature consideration. No moral turpitude is or can be imputed to Dr. Curtis in any way. I make this plain statement so that his friends and the public generally may not draw erroneous conclusions in regard to the alleged facts stated in the papers. Until the point above mentioned is fully argued before the General Term there necessarily must be a suspension of opinion.

Very respectfully yours, WM. MOOTY.
New-York, June 7, 1855. Defendant's Counsel.

THURSDAY, June 7—P. M.

There was again a large business at the Stock Board but the market does not appear to be quite so strong as for the last few days. Reading was still the leading speculative stock but the upward tendency in the price appears to be for the moment exhausted. The decline in tunnage is given as one reason for the heaviness. This falling off in tunnage just as certain parties have sold out and would probably like to come in again at lower figures, appears to be one of those curious coincidences such as occurred to the elder Weller when his coach with a load of voters was upset on election-day on the very spot which had been suggested by the Opposition Election Committee as one where such an upset was very likely to occur. The market opened at 91¼, fell off to 90¾, and recovered to 90¾@91. The sales of the day were large but less than for several days past. Erie closed at 49—a decline of ⅛ ⅌ cent; Harlem fell off ¼; Central was 94¼; Panama declined ½ ⅌ cent. The Western Stocks generally were firm; Michigan Central 91½; Chicago and Rock Island 86½; Cleveland and Toledo 81½, &c. The most buoyant movement today was in Cumberland, which went to 31¼ in the street, but closed at 30¾—a further advance of 1 ⅌ cent. The transactions were unusually large—some 7,000 shares. Delaware was firm at 127, seller 90. A sale of Hampshire Coal was made at 14, buyer 30, and more offered at that price. The supply of Illinois Bonds was good, but the price was sustained at 80½. Freeland Bonds sold at 75½; Eries 1875 are firm and in demand at 89½; Goshen Line sold at 90 both at the Board and at private sale; New-York Central 104½. The aggregate sales were $125,000, of which $80,000 were Illinois. State Stocks were firm with considerable orders in market from Banks which propose increasing their circulation. Virginias sold at the Board at 99½, and $35,000 sold privately at par. It is believed these Bonds will stand about par with the July Coupon off. Missouri 6s 94; a private sale of $20,000 was made at that price; North Carolina 99½; Tennessee 94.

In Exchange there is but little doing, and rates are as before quoted. Sterling, 9¾@10¼. Francs, 5.15@5.12½.

Freights are dull. To Liverpool, 15,000 bush. Corn at 3d., and small lots Cotton at ¼d. To Antwerp, 3,000 bags Coffee at 3-16c.

The business at the Sub-Treasury was small today. Paid, $27,307. Received, $67,165. Balance, $2,320,670. Paid from Assay-Office, $56,047. Paid on disbursing checks, $73,087. The amount deposited in the Assay-Office of Gold by the Northern Light exceeds $400,000, which is an unusually large amount compared with the figures of the manifest.

The following sales of Bonds and Stocks were made at auction by A. H. Nicolay:

Fri. 24	90¼	91¼	91¼

There had been further considerable receipts of gold and the bullion in Bank was increasing with another reduction of the rate of interest in prospect. The London News says:

"The English funds continue to rise, owing mainly to the preponderance of investments and the influx of bullion. The advance established to-day was equal to ¾ to ⅞ ⅌ cent, and the market closed firmly at the highest point of the day. A statement that the Vienna Conferences are about to be resumed, coupled with the general belief that the division on Mr. Disraeli's motion will result in a large majority in favor of the Cabinet, assisted the upward tendency; but the immediate features of importance are the want of employment for capital, the large imports of specie, and the sustained favorable aspect of the foreign exchanges. The existing demand for good securities of all kinds evidently exceeds the supply, and prices thus advance without any important assistance from speculation."

The Money market continued in a very easy position, and the amount of floating capital seeking investment very great. In the Stock Exchange the supply is so large that there is little or no immediate employment for it even at the nominal rate of 1 to 1½ ⅌ cent on Government Securities. The payment on the 22d of £2,400,000 (an installment of 15 ⅌ cent on the new loan) did not exercise any perceptible effect upon the market. First-class bills can be discounted in Lombard-st. at 3 to 3½ ⅌ cent and even lower.

The return from the Bank of England for the week ending the 19th of May gives the following results when compared with the previous week:

Public deposits	£3,358,272	Increase.... £625,364
Other deposits	12,299,771	Increase.... 23,561
Rest	3,170,300	Increase.... 4,015
On the other side of the account:
Government securities	£10,323,132	Decrease.... £193,242
Other securities	12,485,156	Decrease.... 58,345
Notes unemployed	10,280,610	Increase.... 763,485

The amount of notes in circulation is £19,621,940, being a decrease of £297,395, and the stock of bullion in both departments is £16,647,716, showing an increase of £902,515 when compared with the preceding return.

The increase in bullion since January is £3,883,199. The reserve of notes has increased £3,954,000, while the aggregate securities held by the Bank have declined £2,275,000.

The Times says:

"The abundance of money continues to increase, and rumors are circulated, which will now prevail after week until they are accomplished, of a further immediate reduction being about to be made in the Bank rate of discount."

Baring's Circular says of American Securities:

"American Stocks have been in more demand this week; but from the firmness of the holders of State Stocks the transactions have been principally in first-rate Railway Bonds. Consols are firm at 91. Money continues very easy at 2 ⅌ cent in the Stock Exchange and discount in Lombard-st. is readily obtainable under the Bank rate, but this state of affairs has not produced any favorable action upon American Securities, the market for which is steady, without variation in quotations.

Some small parcels of Erie Bonds 1855 are taken for investment. Erie Sinking-Fund Bonds do not find ready buyers. There are free sellers at 80.

Illinois Central Construction and Free Land Bonds are rather more freely offered.

Great Western of Canada Shares are firm at 21¼@21½. The various bonds of this Company are in strong demand.

A sharp correspondence has taken place in regard to the affairs of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad Company between Mr. H. D. Bacon and Mr. O'Fallon, Messrs. Sanger, Camp & Co. and Prof. Mitchell. It occupies some six columns of The St. Louis Republican. M
