Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla
is at this season most invaluable as a RENOVATOR and PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD.
It not only creates new, rich and pure blood, but it will effectually carry off all putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, and KEEP THE BLOOD PURE.
One great recommendation for using this Sarsaparilla is that every bottle of it is manufactured under the direct superintendence of DR. JAMES R. CHILTON, the most celebrated Chemist and Physician in this country, and his certificate attached to each bottle guarantees that it is "PURELY VEGETABLE, and WITHOUT MERCURY."
There has never yet been a medicine presented to the public which has so effectually sustained its character for "PURIFYING THE BLOOD as Dr. TOWNSEND'S SARSAPARILLA," and the fact that it has entirely superseded all other preparations claiming the same properties, alone speaks volumes in its favor.
THE BLOOD IS THE LIFE.
Only purify the Blood, and Disease must vanish.

GREAT ATTRACTION at the CRYSTAL PALACE.—The Monarch of the California Forest, supposed to be the largest Tree in the world, has arrived at this port from San Francisco, and will be exhibited in the Crystal Palace, the only building in New-York large enough to contain it, on and after the FOURTH OF JULY.
This giant tree has been named by botanists
WASHINGTONEA GIGANTEA.
It measured when standing 363 feet from base to summit. Its diameter is 31 feet at the base and 15½ feet at the distance of 116 feet from the roots. No big tree ever exhibited, and none of its race remaining in California can compare with this SYLVAN MASTODON; or as it was called by the California Indians in their language the "MOTHER OF THE FOREST."
The Crystal Palace has been rented at a vast expense for the exhibition, which transcends in interest all the marvels for which California is celebrated. Doors open from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M. Admission 25 cents.
N. B. Haywood's splendid Quadrille Band will be in attendance.

New Publications.

A BOOK THAT TALKS!—Reader, are you of a social turn—given to hilarity and exuberance of feeling? Don't delay to get at once a copy of BEECHER'S STAR PAPERS;
and upon making its acquaintance you will thank this advertisement for the introduction.
J. C. DERBY, Publisher, No. 119 Nassau-st., N. Y.

MY CONFESSION: THE STORY OF A WOMAN'S LIFE. "Many 'sensation books' scarcely bear a perusal now-a-days. Such is not the case with 'My Confession,' although we pronounce it to possess all the elements of a 'sensation book,' written though it is by a girl scarcely out of her teens. We predict for it a wide popularity. The smoothness of its style, its pleasant rural and home pictures, cannot but make it a favorite, coming as they do in startling contrast with scenes of uncommon power." [Boston Waverley Magazine.
One 12mo. vol. Price 75 cents. J. C. DERBY, Publisher.

VIVID PEN PICTURES.—Every page glows with the scintillations of genius, and such is the writer's graphic power of description that the reader is taken away—all but bodily—and made to see, as if present and visible, that which is so intimately described in
HENRY WARD BEECHER'S STAR PAPERS.

HENRY WARD BEECHER in NEW-ORLEANS.
The New-Orleans Crescent, after giving Mr. Beecher some hard strokes for his "Maine Law" and "Abolition" sentiments, winds up its critique on
as follows:
"He writes vigorously and with evident sincerity. He believes he is a great man, and sent into the world for a mission: he steams along with a purpose of accomplishment. He is more honest than Greeley, and more able than Sumner. He is, in fact, the very person we should like for a companion on a trout-fishing excursion.
"These 'STAR PAPERS' smell of hay and clover, country rides and dwellings near home. They are all pleasantly, agreeably and ably written, and such as we hope to have more of. Few men can tell a prettier story o the twittering of birds, the glory of lilies, the scent of fresh-cut grass, or the splurge of waters. Let us read these, and be thankful."
The above book may be had of any Bookseller, or will be sent by mail, prepaid, on receipt of price, $1 25.

THE SOUTHERN CRITICS AND HENRY WARD BEECHER.
The Frankfort (Ky.) Commonwealth, in reviewing Mr. Beecher's new book, STAR PAPERS, among other just and generous things, says:
"The country scarcely contains a more active and energetic intellect, or a keener controversialist; and we cannot now recall the name of a single writer whose style shows a happier combination than his of earnestness, force, piquancy, freshness and poetic beauty. But here is Henry Ward Beecher, not as a polemic, a controversial orator, or belligerent editor; but in the pleasant and quiet character of an admirer of Art and an ardent lover of Nature—a man of emotion and sentiment. We like him hugely in his new character. There is no possible dissimulation about his relish for woods, and glens, and mossy rocks, and roaring mountain streams, with their whirling eddies and their speckled trout. He evidently loves Nature as a boy loves his first sweet-heart. He enjoys her society with an ecstatic relish; and he describes her with a freshness and truth that almost transport his readers to the scenes his pen portrays and gives them a share in the rural sports he recounts. It is indeed a charming book."
Probably no book ever published has called out more spontaneous commendations from all quarters than STAR PAPERS. Its pages give delight to all classes of readers. For sale by all Booksellers. Price $1 25.

HENRY WARD BEECHER AND THE NEW-YORK COURIER AND ENQUIRER.
The following able and truthful review of STAR PAPERS, a book that is now commanding the marked attention of the literary world, appeared in the above daily journal of the 27th instant:
"The author writes with a richly stored if not highly cultivated mind, and always from the fullness of his heart.
"The papers devoted to a record of Experiences of Nature may, perhaps, win more admirers than those which precede them; but they are the fruit of the same intense love for whatever is purest, and loveliest, and grandest within the reach of thought or feeling. In very truth, we believe that cultivated men who are brothers of the angles will find their own emotions more vividly portrayed in Mr. Beecher's pages than in those of any other author of the gentle craft. And in the paper on Bookstores, how truthfully has he recorded the delights, the sufferings, the yearning tenderness of a class of which we must believe he is a representative. Ali Dibdin is concentrated in that brief paper—and more; for Dibdin had not such an utterance. The success of such a book is a consolation in these days. The publisher deserves credit for the beautiful manner in which it is produced."
The above book is an elegantly executed 12mo. vol. and next to "strawberries and icecream" it is the daintiest luxury of the season. Price $1 25. J. C. DERBY, Publisher, No. 119 Nassau-st. New-York.

JOHN BULL and BEECHER.—The following is an extract from THE ALBION, which is not apt to praise an indifferent book.
STAR PAPERS:
"Let no man run an eye over the first few pages of such a book as this and pronounce judgment upon it. Had we done so we had lost a source of much enjoyment, for it is rare indeed to meet with a lover of Nature more genuine and genial than Mr. Beecher, or one who makes himself a more companionable and pleasant associate if you choose to go abroad with him into rural life. When he writes of mundane matters there is a reality about him which draws us in his train. Our extract is however so long that for convenience sake we place it in another part of to-day's paper. Pray don't skip it. It's capital; down at least to the point 'where your horse stands hitched to the palings of a deserted little house.'"

A BOOK THAT WILL LIVE FOR GENERATIONS.
STAR PAPERS.
By Henry Ward Beecher.
Scarcely three weeks have elapsed since the publication of this volume, and yet its circulation has been so wide and so rapid that it is now read simultaneously with unfeigned delight in all parts of the country.

THE NEW NOVEL on FASHIONABLE RELIGION.
WHICH: THE RIGHT OR THE LEFT?
One volume, 336 pages. Price $1 25.
WHAT THE PRESS SAY OF IT.
"The writer plunges into the actual heart of all the whirling elements of fashionable religion and every day business life. His book is written with great strength and thrashing vigor of thought." [N. Y. Express.
"Written with earnestness and power." [N. Y. Journal of Commerce.
"One of the most remarkable novels of the present century." [Boston True Flag.
"Full of vigorous writing, backed by original and daring thought." [Frank Leslie's Gazette.
"A live book and of amazing power." [N. Y. Dispatch.
"Well executed and absorbingly interesting." [Boston Post.
"If this book does not create a tornado nothing will." [Albany Transcript.
"Very touching, very thoughtful, and very full of natural eloquence." [N. Y. Times.
"It has the great merit of originality. It is a live book and has undeniably genuine moral power." [Home Journal.
"The style is vigorous, the incidents striking and the characters drawn with uncommon vigor." [Pennsylvania Inquirer.
"An intellectual treasure of the highest order." [Philadelphia Saturday Courier.
"It will attain a world-wide celebrity, and leave an enduring mark upon the literary column of our century." [N. Y. Water Cure Journal.
"It dissects the life of trade, and shows its heart and impulses." [Philadelphia Sun.
"It occupies new ground and is written with amazing earnestness and vigor." [Albany Knickerbocker.
WHAT THE CLERGY SAY OF IT.
"Many will feel strong by its vivid depictings of hypocrisy and sham." [Rev. J. W. Girdwood, New-Bedford, Mass.
"A rare gem, upon every page of which the name of the modest author ought to be imprinted in letters of gold." [Rev. S. S. Church, St. Louis, Mo.
"An echo of Divine truth." [Rev. Alex. Digby Campbell, Montreal, Canada East.
"It deals with focus over which Christ's ministers weep." [Rev. John P. Hewitt, New-York.
"It was happily said of Shakspeare that he "held a mirror up to Nature." The author of "Which" holds a mirror up to Grace." [Rev. John A. McKean, Philadelphia, Pa.
"It utters eminently needed and seasonable truths, which had they been spoken from a pulpit would have emptied a church and stirred a nest of wasps about a minister's ears. It is the sharp spear of Ithuriel." [Rev. John Weyland, D. D., Roxbury, Mass.
"A work of rare and genuine ability." [Right Rev. J. H. Hopkins, D. D., LLD., Bishop of Vermont.
"I cannot doubt that it will be both effective and useful." [Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, D.D., New-York.
"I know not where to find the equal of this book." [Rev. John Dowling, Philadelphia.
