The Proposed Discussion between Mr. GEORGE STORRS and MYSELF was suddenly arrested by Mr. Storrs and shut out of his paper. Reason, he would not answer his opponent's arguments. The pamphlet advertised by him as "the Discussion," &c., is therefore a mere catch-penny affair, based on speculation. It consists of a few brief and unfinished arguments written by myself together with Mr. Storrs' long-winded responses and any amount of personal invective from Mr. Storrs and seven other high-minded sanhilistionists, written after his paper was closed against me. All therefore who wish to read such a "discussion" will patronize Mr. Storrs.

Should any worthy opponent ever acquire courage to go on with the discussion from which he has so suddenly retired, the arguments I desire to present against his Deistical philosophy will in due time be given to the world. Till then, any work purporting to be "the discussion" between Mr. Storrs and myself is an imposition upon the public. H. MATTISON.

A statement appeared in The Sunday Courier of July 1 in relation to the double suicide in Brooklyn, in which it stated that Mrs. MERRITT knew the parties. This is incorrect, as Mrs. M. never knew or heard of them until she read the account of the suicide in the public prints.
