THE ESCAPED NUN.—JESUITISM DEFEATED.

Nineteenth Thousand in press, and the demand on the increase! The harder the bribed tools of the Jesuits try to injure the only true book, the better it sells.

The Express of Delhi says:

"The disclosures of 'THE ESCAPED NUN' are unquestionably a correct and faithful exposition of Convent life, revealing a state of things as carried on within the walls of the Monastery that should shock and alarm every friend of virtue and liberty. It is graphically written and cannot but interest the reader. We hope it will be general read."
