Medical.

DEAFNESS—ASTONISHING CURE.—The following certificate has been handed to me by one of our most respectable and well known citizens, which, together with numerous others in our possession, and with our agents, cannot fail to convince all of the great value of this medicine. Thousands have been cured:

Messrs. Louden & Co.—Having been afflicted for several years, in fact I may say almost ever since my birth, at different periods with Deafness, sometimes so that I could not hear at all, and having had the the advice of several of our best physicians but without any avail, I was induced to try SCARPA'S ACOUSTIC OIL, and am happy to state that before using one-half a bottle I was completely cured, never having had a return of my old complaint since. Yours, CHARLES A. GUDNECHT,
No. 294 New Market-st., Philadelphia, Feb. 27, 1855.

Be particular and buy of A. B. & D. SANDS, No. 100 Nassau-st., as there is a counterfeit in the market.

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA.—This pleasant and efficacious purifier of the blood acts simultaneously upon the stomach, the circulation and the bowels, and speedily rectifies any irregularity, and reestablishes healthy action. Prepared and sold by A. B. & D. SANDS, Druggists, No. 100 Fulton-st., New-York.
