ON BOARD STEAMER JOHN HART, Saturday, June 14, 1856.
At a Meeting of Invited Guests held on board of the Steamer upon her return from a very agreeable trip around Staten Island, Mr Andrew Hoogland was called to the chair. Messrs Thomas, Kidney of Illinois, F. B. Hall and Wm. Rowe were appointed Vice-Presidents, and William H. Draper, Secretary.

After a few pertinent remarks by the Rev. John H. Manning, Messrs. W. T. Jennings, W. McGrath, Robert W. Stamper, M. A. D. Arente, and others, the following resolutions were offered and respectively adopted by acclamation:

By the Rev. John H. Manning: Resolved, That, as the invited guests to the Grand Collation Excursion on the steamer John Hart June 14, we would hereby express our high appreciation of the noble generosity of Thomas Hunt, esq., in affording to his friends not only the pleasure of a delightful sail, enlivened by choicest music from Shelton's unrivaled band, but also a bountiful supply for the inner man.

Resolved, That in Messrs. Greene & Maslen, the proprietors of this boat, we recognize gentlemen who are assiduous in their exertions to please, and who, from their long experience, and for their care and attention in providing for the safety and comfort of their patrons, are well worthy of the unbounded confidence of the community.

By Mr. Jefferson Berrian: Resolved, That the pleasure of this excursion has been greatly enhanced by the delightful music elicited from Miss Louisa Pyne. The urbane and generous manner with which she lent her great accomplishment to diversify the conviviality of the occasion has levied a contribution upon the hearts of all her admirers. By order,
W. H. DRAPER, Sec'y. ANDREW HOOGLAND, Ch'n.

Amusements.

TO JOHN C. FREMONT.
Champion of Freedom! hail to thee!
A million eyes with pride will flame,
To see the Goddess Liberty
Adorn her standard with thy name;
That glorious flag of stripes and stars,
Borne westward by thy daring hand,
Through tempests and o'er mountain bars,
And planted on Pacific's strand.

Columbus of the golden West!
As he returned from Salvador,
So thou, by jealously oppressed,
Thy path of honor traveled o'er.
But Time is just; and Glory now
With busy fingers joyful weaves
A diadem to grace thy brow
Of myrtle boughs and laurel leaves.

Young Alexander of the age!
Lay thou aside the sword and shield,
Leave tempest's wrath and Indian rage
To serve upon a nobler field:
That field thy country's sacred soil—
The Canaan of the human race—
Made by the Revolution's toil
True Freedom's only dwelling-place.

READY THIS DAY—JULY NUMBER OF THE
UNITED STATES MAGAZINE.
FIRST OF THE NEW SERIES.
It contains one hundred pages, beautifully printed on fine callendered paper, and is embellished with upward of sixty-five elegant original Engravings. We submit it to the public as the most attractive, most profusely illustrated, and most valuable magazine of the month. Among the many interesting papers contained in its pages are the following:
THE CAPITOL AT WASHINGTON. Illustrated with twenty-six handsome Engravings, many of which are from the original drawings of the architect.
MAGGIE BELL. A sweet, simple, heart-stirring, original Poem, which no one, old or young, can read without having the finer elements of his nature stirred, as the beating heart and moistened eye will testify. It is a spontaneous outgushing of young genius—simple, natural, original—a harmonious chime of sweet-toned bells from beginning to end. It is illustrated with a number of original designs of exceeding beauty.
ORNITHOLOGY OF THE UNITED STATES. By John Cassin, of the Academy of Natural Sciences, Philadelphia, embellished with a number of attractive illustrations.
MARY ELLERY; THE INDIAN CAPTIVE. A thrilling story, complete in this number, and profusely illustrated.

COZZENS'S SPARROWGRASS PAPERS.
The Newark Daily Advertiser says:
"Cozzens went quietly to bed to wake up and find himself famous. In a jump he has placed himself among the first (few enough there are) humorists of this country. He is not a joker. His fun comes not with a gush, but slowly oozes out by a sort of mental perspiration. He is a humorist, and the 'joke of the thing' is a act in his language but the thought."
It should be found on every table, and can be had for $1 at the Booksellers.
