As a Family Medicine, unequaled.—Medical aid can be dispensed with in nine cases out of ten, if DYER'S REALING EMBROCATION be found at hand, and immediately applied to the worst cases of cuts, wounds, sprains, bruises, scalds, internal and external pains, &c. Our friends in Connecticut give it the significant appellation of "LIFE PRESERVER." It is used in the land of steady habits by everybody, and all agree in this one thing, viz: that no preparation extant is equal to it in its healing and pain destroying properties. Sold in New-York by C. H. RING, General Agent, No. 192 Broadway; BARNES & PARK, CLICKENER & Co., and others.
A. H. FIELD, Proprietor, Providence, R. I.

Catarrh!—Can it be cured? Yes. The only man who has ever devised a positive and radical cure for this loathsome disease is Dr. R. GOODALE, late of Boston. He makes this fearless and unconditional assertion, that his ERRHINE in liquid form, and simply to be inhaled through the nostrils, will effect a permanent cure. He is now in the city, and will remain long enough to demonstrate the truth of his averment, if opportunities are afforded him. He invites the most formidable, difficult and long standing cases to the test. He may be consulted (free) at Earle's Hotel, Park row, room No. 24, where the remedy may be had; and also of CHAS. H. RING, No. 192 Broadway; E. M. GUION, No. 127 Bowery, cor. Grand-st., and J. W. HAYES, No. 159 Atlantic-st., Brooklyn.

The above Engravings are adapted for Large Bills, and are very effective Campaign Designs. As they are all COPYRIGHTED, we only sell the Stereotype Casts, with the right to use in certain localities.

"No more I'm James Buchanan—
I sold myself down South;
Henceforth I'll do what my masters please,
And speak what they put in my mouth!"

A BOOK for SUMMER.—THE HALLIG; OR, THE SHEEP-FOLD IN THE WATERS. A Tale of Humble Life on the Coast of Schleswig. Translated from the German of Biernatski. By Mrs. Geo. P. Marsh. With Biographical Sketch of the Author. 12mo., muslin, $1.
From the Hon. Robert C. Winthrop.
"I have read it with deep interest. Mrs. Marsh has given us an admirable version of a most striking and powerful work."
From Prof. F. D. Huntington, D.D., in The Religious Magazine.
"Already the book has gained a great success with the best class of readers. Wherever it goes it fascinates the cultivated and the illiterate, the young and the old, the devout and the careless. Our own copy is in brisk circulation. The vivid and eloquent description of the strange scenery, the thrilling accounts of the mysterious action of the waters and vapors of the Schleswig Coast, &c., all form a story of uncommon attractions and unmingled excellence. The satisfaction one feels in its popularity is without abatement."

"It will be found highly interesting as well as reliable, and forms the best refutation of the slanders circulated against him by his enemies. It should have a wide circulation during the campaign. FILLMORE,
DONELSON,
together with Biographical Sketches of each, are to be published in
THE NEW-YORK DAILY SUN,
Commencing Wednesday, July 23, 1856.
PRICE ONE CENT PER COPY.
The ballot taken throughout the Sun Establishment on Monday, to decide the order in which these Portraits should be published, resulted as follows:

For Millard Fillmore	56
For John C. Fremont	52
For James Buchanan	49
Blank	2
Total number of ballots	159

The portraits of FILLMORE and DONELSON, therefore, will appear on Wednesday morning; those of FREMONT and DAYTON on Thursday, and those of BUCHANAN and BRECKENRIDGE on Friday.
An exact account will be kept of the number of extra copies called for on each of these three days, and announced in The Sun of Saturday morning. This will be looked upon very generally as an evidence of the enthusiasm and real interest taken by those connected with the different parties in "spreading the documents."
The likenesses are—all of them—pronounced the best that have yet been engraved on wood.
THE ENGRAVINGS COST OVER $100.

Will also be published in THE SUN on the same days that the Portraits appear.
