GO IT, MRS. PARTINGTON.

WE ASSERT POSITIVELY,

First, that

SMUCKER'S LIFE AND EXPLORATIONS OF FREMONT,

By actual measure, contains more than DOUBLE THE MATTER of any similar work before the public, and is therefore THE MOST COMPLETE

Verily, Mrs. Partington will have to figure again, or else give like the elder.

Second that

The Biography is carefully digested, and beautifully written by an elegant and practical writer, and is not made up of extracts from Books and Newspapers, and is, therefore, THE MOST ORIGINAL.

Third, that

SMUCKER'S FREMONT

is a work of indisputable and important FACTS, and certainly FACTS are both

AUTHENTIC AND RELIABLE.

Fourth, that

The Portrait was submitted to the criticism of the Colonel's family, and "approved" by them; and

WHO DARE DENY IT?

This "HAS BEEN accepted;" one Engraving CANNOT BE UNTIL FINISHED.

Now, in view of the foregoing stubborn facts, the public will duly appreciate

THE TRUTHFULNESS AND CANDOR

of parties claiming to have "the ONLY authorized," "the ONLY complete," "the ONLY original," "the ONLY accepted" Portrait &c, who publish only NEW Books—(a large part of their Fremont, to be at all satisfactory, must consist of EXTRACTS from the Colonel's valuable Reports which we give ENTIRE; for which they call ours an OLD BOOK!)—who never change the TITLES of Books!—see a late Trade-Sale Catalogue, where this immaculate house offered only some half dozen books, EACH of which had two titles, and the conficing were grievously imposed upon). But enough for to-day

LET THE PUBLIC JUDGE,

after reading the above, whether they will regard Mrs. Partington's modest request as disinterested, that they should repress their eager desires, and "wait" until she shall have labored—the term is yet uncertain—and brought forth her ONLY "original," her ONLY "authorized," her ONLY "complete," her ONLY "accepted" something, rather than follow their impulses and convictions, by reading

THE CRIME and the REMEDY.—There is a little fifty cent Book published by KIGGINS & KELLOGG, New-York, entitled the "LAW OF KINDNESS," which is a far better law than now reigns in Kansas, and if every citizen of the United States would read that book and reflect on its spirit to practice, the political convulsions that now shake this fair land to its center would cease, and peace and happiness, and Liberty would reign triumphant. The remedy is simple, but effectual. Who will try it? Sixteen letter Stamps will procure a copy from the Publishers by mail.

JUST the BOOKS for RIVER and RAIL.

JUST PUBLISHED:

THE NAVAL HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES.

BY J. FENIMORE COOPER.

Illustrated with a fine Portrait of the Author, on steel, and Fifteen Illustrations of the principal Battle Scenes.

In one 12mo. vol., uniform with Cooper's Novels. Price, $1 50.

From George Bancroft.

"The work of an unsurpassed writer; it is so full of interest, and so abounds in the most vivid illustrations of American patriotism, enterprise and courage, that it cannot be too widely circulated. You have done good service to the Navy and your Country in giving this edition a cheap and convenient form, best suited to introduce it to a new and extended class of American readers."

MR. SPONGE'S SPORTING TOUR.

With Six Colored Steel Illustrations, by John Leech.

In one elegant crown octavo volume, neatly bound in Muslin, Gilt. Price $1 50.

"This is the most witty and laugh provoking book we have met with in years. The laughs contained in it are cosmopolitan, and of universal application. Boz never produced a bundle of such immortal equal to the 'Sponge Tour.' It is a decided and successful enemy to the blues, and no anchorite could possibly persist it without losing some of his buttons."

[Jersey City Telegraph.

WORTH AND WEALTH:

By FREEMAN HUNT.

In one elegant volume. Price $1 25.

"Since Franklin wrote his golden maxims of thrift, no more valuable precepts have appeared on the Laws of Wealth, and the Science of Political Economy, than this practical Manual of Mercantile Practice." [Evening Herald.

THE ATTACHE;

Or, SAM SLICK IN ENGLAND.

By JUDGE HALIBURTON.

Neatly bound in muslin, 75 cents; in paper, 50 cents.

"As everybody has read Sam Slick, we can only say that this is decidedly up to the standard. It is brim full of fun, laughter, satire and incident, and if all those will not interest, put forth in the Haliburton style, we don't know what will. It is just the book for a warm afternoon." [Detroit Advertiser.

WALKER'S EXPEDITION TO NICARAGUA.

Price, 50 cents in paper; in cloth, 75 cents.

"This is a history of the Central American war and the Sonora and Kinney expeditions, including all the diplomatic correspondence, together with a new and accurate map of Central America and a memoir and portrait of Gen. Walker. The author is William V. Wells, Consul-General of the Republic of Honduras. It is a very entertaining history of interesting and important contemporaneous events." [Mobile Daily Register.

SHIRLEY BROOKS'S BRILLIANT NOVEL:

ASPEN COURT.

In 1 vol. of 504 pages, neat'y bound in cloth. Price $1 25.

"Aspen Court is a great book. A giant among giants, it towers high above its associates. It is written with great power and vigor, combining the anatomical accuracy of Thackeray with the grace and pathos of Dickens. It is a vivid sketch of life in the Nineteenth Century, and a most powerful work of fiction." [Newark Daily Advertiser.

Published by STRINGER & TOWNSEND, No. 222 Broadway, New-York.

UNITED STATES MAGAZINE.—The publishers return their thanks to both the public and the press for the very flattering reception given to the July number (the first of the New Series) of THE UNITED STATES MAGAZINE. From the very large number of complimentary notices which it has received we make a few extracts from prominent papers:

"It is destined, we think, to rank with the best Magazines now published." [New-York Evan. Post, June 18

"In the variety of its matter, and the beauty of its embellishments it gives promise of a popular periodical." [New-York Tribune.

"We rank it among the choicest periodicals of the day." [N. Y. Evening Mirror.

"Well, there is but one word for it—it is a beauty." [N. Y. Organ.

"It compares closely, if in some respects it does not exceed the best of our present monthlies." [Scientific American.

"It will be powerful rival to the three dollar monthlies" [Lincoln Democrat.

"Taking altogether an independent course, and being entirely different in its plan from Harper's and Putnam's, the two great magazines of the times, the United States Magazine promises to equal them in excellence." [N. Y. Dispatch.

"It is emphatically the Magazine for the million." [N. Y. Mercury.

"It is certainly the cheapest magazine we have ever seen." [Ocean Emblem, N. J.

"It is the cheapest magazine now published." [America (N. Y.) Times.

"It is in every respect equal to the best three-dollar magazines published in this country." [Lehigh Valley Times, Pa.

"It is most elegantly illustrated, and in this respect has outstripped all other publications in this country." [Cleveland Plain Dealer.

"We pronounce it the best monthly we receive." [Valley Register, Md.

"As an evidence of its merits, a friend to whom we showed our copy, immediately subscribed for six copies." [Kanawha Republican, Va.

"It is, as the ladies say, 'a perfect love of a magazine.'" [Gem Gazette, Me.

"We consider it the cheapest magazine in the Union." [The Sunbeam, N. J.

The AUGUST NUMBER will be ready THIS MORNING at 10 o'clock, and in variety and interest we think, it will surpass the July number, and will challenge comparison with any magazine issued for the month
