Elmira, Aug. 12, 1856.—Messrs. STEARNS & MARVIN—GENTLEMEN: We have sent to your address per New-York State Line Railroad, the door of Safe No. 8,441, which you will please put in "proper shape" and re-ship to us. An "innocent burglar" has been trying his experiments on your "LA BELLE LOCK" but without success—didn't make enough to pay for the powder he used! He succeeded, however, in putting the lock in such a shape that it could not be opened with the key, and the owners were obliged to call in the aid of machinists and have the Safe cut open. Have it returned as soon as possible, and oblige Yours, &c., R. WATROUS & Co.

Furnaces, Ranges, Stoves, Registers and Ventilators.—GOODWIN, RICHARDSON & BOYNTON, No. 354 Broadway, New York, have the best assortment of the above named articles now in the market, and are prepared to furnish hundreds of testimonials from parties in the city and different parts of the country who have thoroughly tested the merits of the Boynton Self Cleaning Furnace and the Cosmopolitan Range. They manufacture Boynton's Luxury Range, and all sizes of Pierce's Ranges; also, a large assortment of Parlor, Office and Cooking Stoves, Registers, Ventilators, &c.

Emigrant Intelligence Office and Labor Exchange has been removed from No. 2 Canal-st., to No. 81 Worth-st., (late Anthony-st.), a few doors west of Broadway. No fees charged. JAMES P. FAGAN, Superintendent.
