was in her room, and saw many of the things spread on the floor, but said nothing. But he did not speak about dresses for his daughter.

Henry Quantin, a Custom-House broker, swore that he was employed by Madame to go to the ship for her baggage. She told him in French where there was a chance to find her things. And when he proposed a fine to the Custom-House, she said: "No; she wished his assistance." The fine was unimportant.

Out of his testimony was unimportant.

The next witness, Capt. A. Brown, was the officer who boarded the vessel and passed a portion of the baggage. He did not receive favor to the captain, the examination not being in the nature of duty. The captain said there that were passed contrary to duty. He did not think the amount of clothing, &c. He did not think the amount of clothing, &c. enough for a strict inspection. The captain spoke of some twenty more packages.

Robert A. Boughton was the inspector who went on board the Good Hope. The captain assured him it was all right and kept the keys to the state-rooms. The captain told him that he was anxious to get rid of Madame, adding that she was a poor woman and her things of little or no value. He said the same thing in substance on the following Tuesday, and assured the inspector that it was all right. Mr. Boughton then told him to let the lady have her things if she came that day; but he did not if he knew that her trunk contained dutiable goods. Had the captain hinted that they might be such, he should have examined them; but he understood that they were not from what the captain said. Next day the captain said he had got rid of that woman, and was glad of it. Some time afterward Captain Skyler showed him a letter in which she tried to extort money, and said he wished the baggage had been examined, as he felt something dutiable might have been found there. He added: "I think if you had examined the baggage you would have stopped it." The captain also said that she had attempted to bribe him to get the things passed. Adjourned to Tuesday.

SUPREME COURT—SPECIAL TERM—Aug. 16—Before Judge Davies.

Root against Root.

Pending a decision upon the question of the eventual custody of Dr. Root's child, Mrs. Root, through her counsel, Wm. M. Evarts, applied for permission to take the child, who was, by consent of both parties, in the charge of a lady in Broadway while the matter has been in litigation into the country for change of air. The request was granted, on Mrs. Root giving a bond with securities to the amount of $1,000 that the child shall be forthcoming when ordered by the Court. The 1st of September has been appointed for a final hearing of the case before Judge Davies.

SATURDAY, Aug. 16—P. M.

There was a fair amount of activity at the Stock Board this morning, but the tendency of the market was downward for the active fancies without, however, any important changes. There is rather more doing by the brokers on outside orders, and this movement will probably increase, should the market touch lower points. The absence from town of many operators, who have closed up their speculations, checks transactions now, but low prices will no doubt bring them in again sooner than they anticipated. The present depression of stocks is the result of apprehension for the future, and not of any unfavorable appearances of the financial world at present. The money market, although not so abundantly supplied as it was two or three weeks ago, has no feature of stringency, and the change has been more a matter of price than quantity. There is nothing to prevent operators from carrying Stocks if there existed the disposition to buy them. But this is apparently wanting, or at least it does not exist to an extent sufficient to give the market buoyancy. Should the Money market continue easy at 7 per cent through August and September, we shall probably see the usual fall activity. Erie closed at about 60¼; Reading, 80¾. There was no Second Board, and but little business done after the adjournment of the morning session.

The week closes with a heavy market for exchange and a full supply of bills. All the bankers are free drawers, and the quantity of commercial bills on the market is considerable. There are reasons for believing a large amount of foreign capital, which was sent home during the war and the Crampton difficulties, is being now returned to this country, and also that the banking-houses finding employment for money here at 7 per cent., are drawing against their credits. Sterling was very heavy, and closed at 9¼@9¾ for best bankers' signatures, and 9@9¾ for commercial names. Bankers are very willing sellers at 9¾ per cent. at the close. Francs were more plenty. There have been considerable produce transactions for France. We quote 5.17½@5.15.

The business of the Sub-Treasury was: Paid on Treasury account, $192,190 38; received on Treasury account, $178,287 02; balance on Treasury account, $9,959,432 82; paid on disbursing checks $37,173 71; balance on all accounts, $13,821,755 78, against $12,871,491 last Saturday, showing an increase of about $950,000 during the week. The payments today include $41,000 on California drafts. This makes an aggregate of about $260,000 California drafts by the Ariel already paid.

The exports of specie from this port for the week ending this day, and for the year 1856, thus far, were as follows:

Steamer Zimen, Havre, gold and silver	$41,000 00
Steamer Atlantic, Liverpool, gold bars	106,893 00
Steamer Atlantic, Liverpool, Mex. dollars	70,000 00
Steamer Atlantic, Liverpool, British coin	8,170 00
Schr. H. Hallock, Para, American gold	8,690 00
Total for the week	$234,753 00
Previously reported	21,372,656 29
Total, 1856	$21,607,409 29

The Atlantic took only $107,000 of gold, which is some $200,000 less than was anticipated. At the present rate of Exchange the export of gold is unprofitable excepting to France, where the Bank pays a premium for it.

The Imports other than Dry Goods for the week were $2,735,405, against $1,560,274 for the same week last year. The aggregate is as follows:

	1855.	1856.
Dry Goods	$2,115,041	$4,239,506
General Merchandise	1,560,274	2,735,405
Total	$3,675,315	$6,974,911

This, we think, is the largest week's import we have ever had at this port. Included in the amount was: Wool, $52,900; Wines, $54,300; Watches, $45,800; Toys, $29,300; Silk, $33,000; Sugar, $215,700; Coffee, $93,200; Cigars, $54,100; Zinc, $26,500; Lead, $58,200; Steel, $82,700; Tin, $127,900; Iron, $30,000; Hides, $179,600; Brandy, $61,700; Hair, $21,000; Glass, $33,700; Furs, $66,600; Oils, $61,800; Paints, $54,800; Bristles, $29,300.

The exports of the week were $1,481,837 against $934,367, including—

Cotton	$65,538	Domestics	$19,770
Flour	229,653	Sugar	14,176
Wheat	667,924	Naval Stores	23,340
Corn	16,750	Tobacco	30,551
Rye	13,791	India-rubber Goods	21,214
Pork	14,666	Pot and Pearl Ashes	25,153
Rice	6,502	Whalebone	5,500

The following is a comparative statement of the value of certain exports from the commencement of the year to Aug. 14:

	1855.	1856.	Increase.	Decrease.
Cotton	$7,867,184	$7,909,005	$	$87,359
Flour	2,568,301	10,228,896	7,660,595
Corn Meal	218,831	178,949		39,882
Wheat	164,915	6,116,551	5,951,636
Corn	2,381,947	1,917,422		664,525
Beef	910,314	862,157		78,177
Pork	1,945,994	1,810,734		135,260
Total	$16,295,186	$29,555,094	$13,640,231	$1,002,323
Net increase to Aug. 14, 1856				$12,637,908

The receipts of the Morris Canal have been:

Total to Aug. 2, 1856	$151,771 58
Week ending Aug. 9, 1856	8,663 68
Total to Aug. 4, 1855	$147,919 39
Week ending Aug. 11, 1856	8,996 32
Increase in 1856	$3,468 95

The earnings of the Michigan Central Railroad Company for the 1st week in August, 1856, were:

	Passengers.	Freight.	Total.
1856	$20,940 09	$17,320 57	$38,260 66
1855	24,997 46	11,684 39	36,681 85
Increase	$5,942 63	$5,636 18	$11,578 11

The earnings of the La Crosse and Milwaukee Railroad Company, in the first week in August, amount to $9,618 93. Considering the fact that the farmers are now busily engaged in their fields this is large.

The earnings of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad for July were:

For Passengers	$22,062 74
For Freight	16,176 63
Mail Expenses	1,411 06
Total	$40,250 43
For July, 1855	$31,590 74
Increase over 27 per cent	$8,659 71

The earnings of the Mad River and Lake Erie Railroad for July were:

For Passengers	$19,723 62
For Freight	20,236 07
For mail and express	2,100 00
Total	$42,111 69
For July, 1855	42,294 43
Increase nearly 22 per cent	$[illegible]

The earnings of the Central Ohio Railroad for July were:

For Passengers	$22,414 [illegible]
For Freight	[illegible]
For mail and express	[illegible]
Total	$[illegible]

The earnings of the Cincinnati, Wilmington and Zanesville Rail Road were:

For Passengers	$[illegible]
For Freight	[illegible]
For Mails	[illegible]
Total	$[illegible]

The earnings of the Dayton and Western Rail Road were:

From all sources	$19,146 26
For July, 1855	6,351 96
Increase, 60 per cent	$[illegible]

The aggregate earnings of twenty roads for July are $4,031,049 against $3,120,603 in July last year, an increase of $804,446, about 25 ¾ cent. The comparative earnings on the four great lines to the West were, for the ten months of the fiscal year ending 31st July, as follows:

	From Oct. 1, '55, to July 31, '56.	From Oct. 1, '54, to July 31, '55.
New-York Central	$6,126,641	$5,104,712
New-York and Erie	5,138,167	4,513,167
Pennsylvania Central	4,167,805	2,998,482
Baltimore and Ohio	3,661,405	3,385,527
Total ten months	$19,409,018	$16,001,884
Increase over last year		$3,327,134

Equal to an average increase of 30¾ ¢ cent.

Albert H. Nicolay's regular semi-weekly auction sale of stocks and bonds will take place on Monday next, at half past 12 o'clock, at the Merchants' Exchange.

The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of Ohio advertise for proposals for a loan of $2,400,000, bearing interest at 6 ¢ cent, payable semi-annually in New-York, reimbursable at the pleasure of the State after 1860. The money is needed on the 31st December, 1856. A deposit of 10 ¢ cent is required. Proposals may be made for any part of the above loan, not less than $5,000. They must specify the rate of premium offered, (and none otherwise will be received), must also give the address of party making the proposals, and be inclosed in an envelope, marked: "Proposals for Ohio State Loan," and be addressed to Samuel T. Bull, Transfer Agent of the State of Ohio, at the office of the Ohio Life Insurance and Trust Company in New-York.

The business of the Clearing House was $20,374,000.

The business of Chicago appears to be still rapidly increasing. The increase of the receipts of Lumber and kindred articles of commerce is as follows for the season, compared with same time last year:

Received to Aug. 9, 1855 and 1856.
Lumber, feet	161,753,647	274,431,718
Shingles, number	62,272,000	78,690,000
Laths, number	25,711,575	42,966,670
Timber, feet	4,967,140	15,180,000

And we have the following increase:

In Lumber, feet, board measure	112,678,072
In Shingles, number	16,417,955
In Laths, number	22,657,095
In Timber, feet, board measure	8,612,860

But receipts and shipments of grain pretty nearly keep pace in the race, as will be seen by the figures. Shipments of Wheat and Corn by lake, to the 9th of August:

1855.		1856.
Corn	4,097,127	6,164,259	bushels.
Wheat	823,127	1,364,270	bushels.
	5,920,254	7,408,799	bushels.
Receipts to August 9, 1856		5,920,154	bushels.
Increase to August 9, 1856		1,488,645	bushels.

Taking into consideration that in April, May and June, 1855, the prices of Wheat and Corn were at the highest figures ever reached before or since in the State, and that in consequence every available bushel of grain was hurried out of the country early in the season, and that just a contrary state of things existed at the same period this year, the progressive increase is very flattering, and pretty nearly insures to railroads connecting with Chicago that they will receive in the latter half of this year that increase of earnings that was denied them in the first half.

The anthracite coal trade is tolerably active, and shows in the aggregate, by the three principal lines, 110,514 tuns for the week. The Schuylkill Navigation Company, for the week ending on Thursday, brought down 30,322 tuns, and for the season to the same date, 612,000 tuns, against 621,122 tuns to the same date last year. The Reading Railroad brought down for the week ending on Thursday, 51,527 tuns, and for the year, 1,333,244 tuns, against 1,470,324 tuns to the same date last year. It will be seen that the supply from the Schuylkill region is 146,202 tuns short of the amount sent to market last year to corresponding date. The canal shipments on the Lehigh Navigation for the week ending with Saturday last, were reduced by a partial suspension in the landing of boats from the occurrence of high water. They amounted to only 28,466 tuns; and for the season to 620,358 tuns, against 683,633 tuns to same time last year. On the Lehigh Valley Railroad coal transportation was for the week, 4,351 tuns; for the year, 80,134 tuns. Vessels continue scarce, and the trade, in consequence, is without much animation.

The condition of the New-Orleans Banks August 2, was:

Sterling exchange at New-Orleans is very dull: the few lots selling for direct remittance were, at last dates of mail advice, 109¼@109¾.

Annexed is a report of the condition of the Banks of Missouri and its branches on the 30th of June:

At Boston the Money market is easy, at 7@8 ¢ cent. At Philadelphia there is more demand; but the supply is fair, at 8@10 ¢ cent.

The Baltic brings no important financial intelligence. Consols were firm, at 95¼@95⅞, until Tuesday, 5th inst., when they declined 1 per cent under an increased demand for money and unfavorable reports from the Paris Bourse. Money was in active demand in London at 4½@4¾ ¢ cent on best bills, and 4@5 ¢ cent on the Stock Exchange. The prospects of the harvests were very favorable, and breadstuffs consequently lower. In Cotton there was no important change.

The Great Britain from Melbourne brought £240,000 in gold, which was purchased for the Continent. The specie imports of the week had been £748,000, and the exports £717,000. Sovereigns continued to arrive from Constantinople.

The letters from Holland mention a report that Messrs. Rothschild have made a contract with the Bank of Amsterdam for 10,000,000 florins of silver (£1,050,000).

Speaking of the demand for capital for new enterprises, The Times says:

A reference on the 30th of June showed the total capital nominally required for the new schemes introduced during the half year to be £23,490,000. Of this about £11,000,000 was the amount estimated as having been promised to foreign countries, while of the remainder only a small proportion was pledged to undertakings of a description to withdraw capital from the ordinary channels of employment. The prospect, although not calculated to awaken anxiety, was such as to create caution. Nevertheless, although the public withdrew and probably made the best use of the abundance of the money market during the subsequent period have led to an abatement of the amount of projections, such has not been the case. Their demands have steadily increased, and if any effect has been produced by the new impulse, it has only been to prevent the increase assuming still more alarming dimensions. The subscriptions invited 3 days from July to June averaged £3,900,000 per month, and in July they have reached £5,370,000. Annexed is the list:

Metropolitan Railroad	$1,600,000
New-Brunswick and Canada Land and Railway	220,000
Columbia and South Eastern	1,000,000
St James Hall	80,000
Sittingbourne and Sheerness Railway	120,000
Central Italian Copper Mining Company	65,000
Forest of Dean Railway
London and West of Ireland Fishing and Fish Manure Company	50,000
Patent Woollen Fabric Company	100,000
London Cork Company	50,000
Lahn (Nassau) Iron Company	70,000
Cegiaje Extension (Chili)	180,000
Detroit and Milwaukee Bonds	250,000
United Kingdom Provision Company	500,000
European and Indian Junction Telegraph	200,000
Hungarian Land	80,000
South Western Hotel Company	50,000
Metropolitan Bath Company	10,000
Brecon, South Wales and Southampton Union RR.	500,000
Medina Extension	1,000,000

An additionally unfavorable feature connected with the above is, that the foreign proportion presents relatively a large augmentation. Of the total of £5,370,000, £3,125,000, or considerably more than half, is destined to be drained from us to quarters whence a reflux will be very distant.

The quantity of Flour, Wheat, Corn, and Barley, left at tide-water during the second week in August, in the years 1855 and 1856, is as follows:

	Flour bbls.	Wheat, bu.	Corn, bu.	Barley, bu.
1855	21,189	7,200	413,548	200
1856	26,653	222,727	614,665	3,383
Increase	5,464	Inc. 215,527	Dec. 201,117	Inc. 3,183

The aggregate quantity of the same articles left at tide water from the commencement of navigation to the 4th of Aug., inclusive, during the years 1855 and 1856, is as follows:

	Flour, bbls.	Wheat, bu.	Corn, bu.	Barley, bu.
1855	471,055	865,334	5,205,094	50,777
1856	436,700	3,603,421	3,566,752	152,841
Dec.	4,355	Inc. 2,877,665	Dec. 1,638,342	Inc. 102,064

The aggregate quantity of the same articles left at tide-water from the commencement of navigation to the 14th of August, inclusive, during the years 1854 and 1856, is as follows:

	Flour, bbls.	Wheat, bu.	Corn, bu.	Barley, bu.
1854	501,512	2,205,836	4,066,776	252,138
1856	466,216	3,861,621	3,566,752	152,841
Dec.	124,612	Inc. 1,569,195	Dec. 500,011	Dec. 79,505

By reducing the Wheat to Flour, the quantity of the latter left at tide water this year, compared with the corresponding period of last year, shows an increase of 570,597 bbls. of Flour.

The following table shows the quantity of some of the principal articles of produce left at tide water from the commencement of navigation to the 14th of August, inclusive, during the years 1854, 106 days, 1855, 106 days, and 1856, 101 days:

	1854. May 1.	1855. May 1.	1856. May 1.
Canal exports	471,055	865,334	436,700
Flour, bbls	501,512	865,334	3,603,621
Wheat, bu	2,205,836	5,205,094	3,566,752
Corn, bu	4,066,776	50,777	152,841
Barley, bu	223,296	2,371,435	2,987,315
Other Grain, bu	2,371,435	9,698	103,819
Beef, bbls	9,628	63,814	76,145
Pork, bbls	123,899	208,503	329,435
Butter, lbs	355,006	8,395,593	5,945,739
Lard, lbs	14,355,783	127,269	146,700
Cheese, lbs	152,836	2,533,106	1,377,063
Wool, lbs	1,137,409	7,919,625	6,054,190
Bacon, lbs	16,240,176

But little reliance can be placed upon the figures received at the Auditor's Office this year, for in the returns made by the Collector at New-York for the fourth week in July, an error of 181,800 barrels of Flour has already been detected, and in the returns from the same office this week, there is reported 71,500 barrels of Beef, which is doubtless also a greater blunder than that already detected in the receipts of Flour.

Markets—CAREFULLY REPORTED FOR THE TRIBUNE.

SATURDAY, Aug. 16, 1856.

ASHES—The market is buoyant for Pots; sales of 50 bbls. at $6 62½. Pearls are steady at $7 75.

COTTON—The market has again been very quiet but continues steady at our quotations; sales of 500 bales, mostly for spinners. We quote:

NEW-YORK CLASSIFICATION.

	Uplands.	Florida.	Mobile.	N. O. & Tex.
Ordinary	9½	9½	9½	9½
Middling	11½	11½	11½	11½
Middling Fair	12½	12½	12½	12½
Fair	12½	12½	12½	13½

COFFEE—Generally the market is quiet pending the large auction sale about to transpire. Prices are firm. The stock of Rio is about 70,000 bags. Sales of 2,125 bags Bahia ex Eclipse at 10c.; 50 bags Laguayra at 11½c. and 130 bags Rio at 10½c.

COAL—There is a moderate demand for common; we learn of a sale of 200 tuns Picton, to arrive, at $5 75, 4 mos.

DYEWOODS—We notice sales 120 tuns Jamaica Logwood at $17 50, cash in hand which is an advance.
