SCANDAL!
By Mrs. J. T. BICKFORD.
Without exception the most intensely interesting Book of the Season
1 vol. 12mo. pp 394. Price $1 25.
This work is not a mere repetition under a new form of old plots, characters and incidents, but one that possesses the distinguishing characteristic of ORIGINALITY in all these particulars. Its subject is as universal as the air we breathe, and the evils it vividly portrays will serve as guiding lights for tens of thousands who might otherwise be led into sorrowful relations with those about them. It exhibits in the broad, noonday light of God's truth the Rights of Humanity—the Innate Sentiment of Virtue of every Soul—proves conclusively that Trials, however severe, refine the Spirit, and that "Ever the Right comes uppermost,
And ever is justice done."
THE INDEPENDENT, NOBLE TONE
that pervades every chapter,
THE FREE, UNTRAMMELED EXPRESSION OF THOUGHT
that will distinguish it from the libraries of books now emanating from the American Press;
THE ENTRANCING PICTURES OF THE BEAUTIFUL and the
VIVID CONTRAST OF RIGHT AND WRONG will at once commend the book to the
HEARTS AND HOMES OF THE PEOPLE.
It needs but to be read to be admired, and wherever one reads it a score will be sure to follow.
It is presented to the public resting solely on its own intrinsic merits, independent of the praise or censure of critics—in full confidence that all who admire the spiritually true, and an effort to raise the fallen, will give to it a soul-welcome into the great field of Humanity.
Copies of the above sent by mail (postage paid) on receipt of the retail price. SHEPARD, CLARK & BROWN,

A DECIDED HIT.—
THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S ILLUMINATED MAGAZINE.
"This firm are noted for preserving to the juvenile public a series of the most elegant Illuminated Books which have been issued in this country. The first number of their new MAGAZINE FOR YOUNG PEOPLE is now before us, and it appears to be a continuation of the same general design embraced in their former works. The Editor is evidently a practiced writer for children, and presents a rare combination of taste and grace in his style. This Magazine is certainly, in TYPE, ILLUSTRATIONS, GRAPHY and Illustrations, one of the most elegant periodicals ever issued from the press." [Day Book. "The 'Young People's Magazine' is not only better-looking, but a good deal larger than any of its predecessors. The literary part of the work is well written, but the distinguishing merit of this publication is the superiority of the Illustrations." [Courier. "It is seldom that you find such a collection of choice things gotten together so appropriately." [Times.
"The initial number gives a rich promise of its future, and the ability of the parties concerned to make it truly worthy the patronage of the Young Folks. We predict for it a decided success." [Atlas.

DOCTOR ANTONIO.
By RUFFINI.
A fine 12mo edition, elegantly bound in cloth and illustrated; 452 pages. Price $1.
A BEAUTIFUL STORY OF ITALY.
The demand for this famous work having exhausted several smaller and cheaper editions the publishers are now happy to present to the connoisseur and lover of fine books such a copy of the work as will be not only an ornament to any library, but a valuable addition to its literary character. A Charming Tale of LOVE AND SUFFERING,
interwoven with a most faithful and sympathetic narrative of the sufferings and oppressions of Italy. This wonderful fiction has passed through several English editions, and the leading British Reviews have acknowledged, with copious extracts, its superiority.
"The materials are so skilfully arranged, and are woven together in such a masterly style that the attention is riveted at once. In a word, 'Doctor Antonio' is a tale in a thousand." [London Critic.
"This book is superior, as a work of interest, to its predecessor. Lucy is one of the most charming impersonations of an English girl we have met with in the course of many novels." [London Athenæum.

MIND AND MATTER.—
BY SIR BENJAMIN BRODIE, F. R. S.
The very great popularity which has attended the American republication of this most valuable scientific treatise, has rendered necessary a second edition, which is this day ready.
READ THE OPINIONS OF REVIEWERS UPON THIS BOOK:
"Buy 'Mind and Matter.' Its facts, gathered by an experienced hand, exhibit the results of extensive reading and profound reflection; and facts are landmarks, wherever found. Messrs Putnam were fortunate in bringing out this compact, richly stored book." [Boston Medical World.
"Its author is among the foremost of the helpers of men." [Edinburgh Review.
"No one can read this work without pleasure and profit." [Fraser's Magazine.
"In this work the latest and most correct deductions concerning the operations of the imagination, when we are awake and when we sleep; the theory of dreams; the advantages which may be expected to result from an education which will present to the mind those subjects best adapted to its peculiar structure, and will afford it the means of investigating them; the curious character of the memory; the manner in which crime is often excused under the plea of 'Moral Insanity,' wrongly so called; the connection between the cerebral organs and the animal appetites and in tincts; the functions of the brain and the spinal chord; the nature and office of instinct; the study of human nature—these, and other subjects equally grand and interesting, are discussed with a capacity of thought and a clearness of expression which cannot fail to attract the attention even of a layman. The lessons to be learned from a work like this are those which we can apply in the conduct of every-day life."
"The general interest of the subjects discussed eminently fit it for popular circulation. We commend it with a good deal of confidence to those who relish books that not only entertain and instruct, but set the mind to thinking." [New-England Farmer.

"AMONG the excellent things done, the two works of Mr. Olmsted ought to be mentioned. Mr. Olmsted evinces great sagacity, quickness of observation, perfect simplicity and honesty, rare good-nature and kindness and a special tact at reproducing the scenes, conversations and experiences which move him. There is an immense amount of information in these volumes. They cannot be read without a salutary impression." [H. W. Beecher in The Independent.
