The Pleasure-Going Community among the Colored portion of our community gave great credit to themselves in a grand display of a military character and costume on Wednesday evening last, the 15th inst., at Dr. R. JOHNSON'S GRAND BALL. The company consisted of some of our most respectable colored citizens of this city. We noticed several colored ladies and gentlemen from Newark, N. J., Brooklyn and Williamsburgh, who were the invited guests of the evening; and we must say, whatever may be the reputation, or principle, or occupation of that portion of the company we had not a chance to be introduced to, that they, in appearance and action, gave great credit to all persons in general. The company consisted of some 400 persons, and about one-half represented different characters; and the Supper, Bar and Dressing-Rooms were a sample of reflection for uncivilized persons. Johnson is deserving of praise, and actually deserves, in our opinion, the patronage of his race, among whom he appears to be a favorite, and is acknowledged to be The Excelsior in his line of business, of giving public entertainments. We understand that his Last Entertainment for the Season comes off some time in May.

LEGEND.—The mountain forests of Pastoria are inhabited, it is said, by Pixies, Sprites and Elves who, like the Phantom Dancers of Germany, delight to entrap travelers into their realms, and torment them with their mischievous antics. Having the power of transferring the spirit, they often, in their malicious gambols, give life to the newly dead. Statues, rocks and trees are seen fantastically moving in the forest; but it is only during the DAY they retain their fictitious existence; at the approach of night they resume their immobility.
