BOARDING at a FARM-HOUSE.—Excellent Rooms for the accommodation of Families for the Season can be secured on immediate application at the Farm Mansion, near Glen Cove, L. I. Convenience for large and small families. A line addressed to CHARLES UNDERHILL, Glen Cove, will receive prompt attention.

COUNTRY BOARD.—Madame EMILIE Z. KOSSUTH will take BOARDERS during the Summer at her Farm-House at Scotch Plains, N. J., 25 miles from this city. The pleasant situation and healthful air of the place, and its easy communication with the city by railroad and steamboat at convenient hours throughout the day, adapt it particularly to Families or Gentlemen from town. Further information may be obtained on personal application to Madame KOSSUTH, or on inquiry at the office of STORRS & SEDGWICK, No. 34 Wall-st.

GRISWOLD HOUSE, GROTON HIGHTS, opposite New-London, Conn.—THE GRISWOLD HOUSE is pleasantly situated amid picturesque and deeply interesting scenery near the site of Old Fort Griswold, where Col. Ledyard and his brave command were inhumanly massacred at the instigation of the traitor Benedict Arnold. It commands a splendid view of the River Thames and Long Island Sound, and to visitors, seeking pleasure or health, this establishment offers peculiar inducements. There are Bathing Houses, and Livery Stables with good carriages and horses in immediate connection, and Sail-Boats for fishing or pleasure excursions are at all times in readiness; Ten-Pin Alleys are also attached. Steamboats are constantly plying between Norwich, New London, Mystic, Stonington, Watch Hill, Newport and Groton. A steam ferry connects Groton with New-London; steamboats ply between every 15 minutes; distance less than half a mile. The "GRISWOLD" is now open for the reception of guests, and the subscriber is ready to receive his old and new patrons. Terms reasonable, and after the 10th of September, (usually a delightful season here,) the Summer season rates reduced one-third.—Groton, July 1, 1857. AMASA ROCKWELL.

LATOURETTE HOUSE, Bergen Point, N. J., is now open for the reception of BOARDERS. SAMUEL T. BROWN.

PEQUOT HOUSE, New-London, Conn.—This favorite Summer Hotel is NOW OPEN for the reception of guests. The House is delightfully situated at the mouth of the river Thames, on Long Island Sound. It is elegantly furnished and possesses superior advantages for sea-bathing, sailing or fishing. It has been newly painted and put in complete repair, and improvements added to its former accommodations.
It is accessible from New-York by steamers Commonwealth and Connecticut, or by railroad via New-Haven; also by Long Island Railroad, connecting at Greenport with steamer Catline, and landing at a wharf a few rods from the House. Every facility will be afforded to guests that will promote their pleasure and comfort. J. G. PACKARD, Superintendent.

SUMMER QUARTERS.—The "FAIRFIELD HOUSE" is now completed, and open for the reception of guests. The house is new, well arranged and handsomely furnished (lighted with gas), and has every convenience for families who desire all the comforts and conveniences of a first-class and quiet hotel. It is located in a beautiful village, of easy access to a fine beach for bathing, and the surrounding country abounds in beautiful and rural drives. The subscriber will spare no efforts to make the Fairfield House one of the most attractive and desirable Summer resorts.
N. H. GILLETT, (Formerly of the Syracuse House,) N. Y.
Fairfield, Conn., June 27, 1857.
