They are entitled to be ranked with the best models of this sort of composition. "The poem is unrestrained, and perfectly adapted to the times, showing no little originality and brilliancy of mind. It will, in truth, establish the writer as a witty and successful poet and satirist. Yet it is so good-natured and graceful that it cannot fail to please; and so it is, that it deserves to find a place on every family table, and will be appreciated by every one of taste, both for its merits as a poem and its cleverness as a satire."

From England's shore, by magic touch of wire,
We tidings gather of our glorious "Prior;"
Of "Prioress," too, that mare of matchless flight!
They threw the gauntlet on the turf for fight;
And 'neath the livery of the Stripes and Stars,
Go for their Country in the Olympic wars.
Hail to the gallant team, and riders too!
And hail the bunting of White, Red and Blue!
The right of pride in glory we inherit,
And catch the patriot throb from "Porter's Spirit."

LAMARTINE'S NEW WORK.—Published this day, by D. APPLETON & Co. THE HISTORY OF TURKEY; By A. DE LAMARTINE. Author of "The Girondists," "Travels in the Holy Land," &c. In 3 vols. 12mo., well printed, cloth, $3.

"The History of Turkey has within itself all the elements of genuine poetry, and Lamartine, as a historian and poet, has presented that history to us in such truthful and glowing language, as few beside himself can command. It must become highly popular, and should find its way into every public and private library in the country." [Stamford Advocate.

"It is a work of great interest, abounding more in facts and less in rhetorical episodes than any work of this favorite author, and it gives promise of a very complete, valuable and apparently reliable history of this interesting nation." [Boston Daily Journal.

"We need not assure our readers that this is a fascinating book. Lamartine always writes brilliantly, and the history of the Turks is one of the most romantic in the annals of the world. You are led along from page to page and chapter to chapter, but can find no stopping-place. Read it, by all means." [Christian Herald.

"There is so much of the romantic connected with the life of Mahomet, and the annals of the Ottoman Empire, that this work has all the charm of fiction connected with the verities of history." [Western Messenger.

TO STEAMBOAT OWNERS and BUILDERS. "GRIFFITH'S PATENT SCREW PROPELLER." The attention of Steamboat Owners and Builders is particularly invited to the GREAT SUPERIORITY OF GRIFFITH'S PROPELLER over all others used in the propulsion of Steam Vessels. Many and various experiments have been made to test this Propeller against the very best in use, AND IN ALL CASES IT HAS COME OFF VICTORIOUS. It can be set to any desired pitch; is more efficient for a given surface of blade; causes little or no vibration to the stern of the vessel; gives high results for the amount of power applied, and offers but little resistance when the vessel is undersail only. TERMS FOR ITS INTRODUCTION AND USE LIBERAL. For further information apply to CHARLES W. COPELAND, Sole Agent for the United States, No. 66 Broadway, New-York.
