

A BRILLIANT SUNDAY SERMON BY DR. THEODORE L. CUYLER.

Subject: "The Soul's Anchors."

Brooklyn, N. Y.—The Rev. Dr. Theodore L. Cuyler occupied his old pulpit in Lafayette Avenue Presbyterian Church, Lafayette Avenue and South Oxford street, Sunday morning. A very large congregation was present.

The account of Paul's voyage to Rome is one of those graphic passages of the New Testament which never loses its interest. It not merely throws a strong light upon ancient navigation, but is strong confirmation of the truthfulness of the Acts of the Apostles.

The first and foremost anchor is faith. That is often defined as trust in an unseen God, and we take faith more implicitly than we take the notes issued by the Government.

ground. In Switzerland I saw the Mortenharsh glacier, where Tyndall had such a perilous experience. He and a companion were lashed to a guide.

The third anchor is patience. That was a tedious night of peril and gloom which laid upon Paul and his shipmates, but they held out and waited for the day.

This patient waiting is opposed to every anxiety and the worry that fritters away strength and produces no result. I will give you three simple rules to put into practice.

"Why do you tell that boy twenty times?" said the father of John Wesley to his brother. "Because," replied the wise man, "nineteen in ten of them are for naught and I shall not gain my point without the twentieth."

Human life is a tug-of-war. All of you now before me are bound on it for the judgment seat and for eternity. It is not a voyage over smooth seas and under soft, south winds.

The fourth anchor is that beautiful word, hope. That is not the possession of good things; it is rather the confident expectation of good things that are not yet in store for us.

Strict but fruitless search was made in the vaults under the Italian Chamber of Deputies recently, the Speaker having received an anonymous letter stating that the House would be blown up during a certain sitting.

It is the simple life that gives length of days, serenity of mind and body and tranquility of soul. Simple hopes and ambitions, bounded by the desire to do good to one's neighbors, simple pleasures, habits, food and drink.

Men die long before their time because they try to crowd too much into their experiences—they climb too high and fall too hard. A wise woman writes of the good that a simple diet has done her:

Christ came into the world, not to tell us what is right, but to give to our right doing the right flavor.—Rev. Frank Crane.

A QUICK RECOVERY.

A Prominent Officer of the Rebecca Writes to Thank Doan's Kidney Pills For It.

Mrs. C. E. Bumgardner, a local officer of the Rebecca, of Topeka, Kans., Room 10, 812 Kansas avenue, writes: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills during the past year for kidney trouble and kindred ailments.

HAIR MEN'S HAIR CUTS.

Less Hair a Man Has, the Oftener Does He Have It Trimmed.

The secretive, taciturn barber was finally induced to talk. He remarked: "I've noticed one peculiarity about my customers that I could never quite explain.

"There's a real estate agent who comes in here nearly every week for a hair cut, and if I shave him clean from the back of his collar to his forehead you'd never know that I'd touched him.

He's got a short, light-colored fringe that plays around the rim of his hat, like the soft, fluffy fringe you see on those shawls the women wear over their shoulders, but you'd think to hear him, that he could braid it and do it up in coils.

"I hum him, of course. I take a handful of somebody else's hair and sprinkle it on the cloth I put on him, and then I snip the air gently for 10 or 15 minutes and make a great ado when I whisk him off.

Nine out of every ten of the bald-heads are that way, but men who've got plenty of hair will keep away from here until they look like the edges of an old-fashioned hayloft. It's curious, and, as I said, I never could account for it."—Providence Journal.

Literal but Deceptive Truth.

They had finished the parish text and the curate stood up to say a few words to the recipients before they dispersed. He spoke in eloquent terms of the impunctuality of curates in general and then went on to say in apparently touching tones: "Why, even as I stand before you now I have only half a shirt to my back."

Captured Baby Lynx.

W. W. Bridges of Athens, while hunting recently, came upon a peculiar track of some animal, which he followed. He captured the animal, which is pronounced by people who profess to know to be a baby lynx.

Pigeon Chums with Cat.

The story comes from Newcastle, England, that a pigeon became a great friend of a cat, and since the cat has had a kitten has transferred its affections to the kitten and spends most of its time sitting on it and playing with it.

Strict but fruitless search was made in the vaults under the Italian Chamber of Deputies recently, the Speaker having received an anonymous letter stating that the House would be blown up during a certain sitting.

THE SIMPLE LIFE

Ways That Are Pleasant and Paths That Are Peace.

It is the simple life that gives length of days, serenity of mind and body and tranquility of soul. Simple hopes and ambitions, bounded by the desire to do good to one's neighbors, simple pleasures, habits, food and drink.

Men die long before their time because they try to crowd too much into their experiences—they climb too high and fall too hard. A wise woman writes of the good that a simple diet has done her:

"I have been using Grape-Nuts for about six months. I began rather sparingly, until I acquired such a liking for it that for the last three months I have depended upon it almost entirely for my diet, eating nothing else whatever but Grape-Nuts for breakfast and supper, and I believe I could eat it for dinner with fruit and be satisfied without other food, and feel much better and have more strength to do my housework.

Christ came into the world, not to tell us what is right, but to give to our right doing the right flavor.—Rev. Frank Crane.

News of the Day.

William M. Johnson, formerly a State Senator from Camden, N. J., and at the present time sheriff of the county, has sent in his resignation to Governor Murphy. Mr. Johnson is a Quaker and the law which requires the hanging of a person convicted of murder in the first degree conflicts with the tenets of his religion.

Sharps and Flats.

Some people never feel pious until they get pinched.

The active saint is never satisfied with the nimble nickel.

Men will never think alike as long as they think at all.

Better the pushing pessimist than the dreaming optimist.

The man without reverence should not be trusted with power.

BIRD INVESTS WITH POWER.

Superstition Connected with Jeweled Toy of England's King.

When as a girl Amelie de France, now Queen of Portugal, first visited Windsor Castle, the mystic jeweled bird which was taken from the throne of Tipoo Saib and presented by the East India Company to George III, was the object of her profound admiration.

There are many legends woven about that bird. A London journal says the Hindoos call it "Uma," and they say that whoever owns Uma must reign over India.

"Burned" by Cold. Intense cold, as is well known, burns—if we may use the term—like heat. If a "drop" of air at a temperature of 180 degrees below zero were placed upon the hand it would have the same effect as would the same quantity of molten steel or lead.

The World's Postal Employees. Germany has 242,000 postal employees, the United States 239,000 and Great Britain 184,000. None of the other States in the postal union possesses 100,000 postal employees.
