"First: We, the holders of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Toledo and Illinois Railroad Company, or of the Lake Erie, Wabash and St. Louis Railroad Company, agree to fund one year's interest on said bonds, represented by the coupons due on the first day of August, 1858, and to become due on the first day of February, 1857; and we, the holders of the Second Mortgage Bonds of said Companies, agree to fund one year and six months' interest thereon, represented by the coupons due on the first day of May, 1857, and the first day of November, 1857, and those to become due on the first day of May, 1858; and take therefor at par the notes or Bonds of the Company payable in three, four, five, six and seven years from the first day of November, 1857, with interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, payable semi annually; the coupons so funded to be deposited with and held by a trustee as security for the payment of the said notes or bonds.
