Third Edition.
THE LIFE and TIMES of AARON BURR, Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army of the Revolution, Vice-President of the United States, etc. By JAMES PARTON. With Portraits on Steel and Wood Cuts. Price, $1 75 in plain cloth, half calf, $2 75; full calf, $3 50.
This book is exciting more attention, is more talked of in literary circles, than any recent issue of the press. The life of Aaron Burr was full of exciting incident, illustrating the extremes of wealth and station, poverty and disgrace. The story of this life is told by Mr. Parton in a masterly manner, so that, in the language of The Boston Traveler, "author and subject combine to make the reader captive." Perhaps a more fascinating biography has not yet been written than this of the first filibuster as well as most remarkable man America has produced. The third edition is ready to-day, to which is added a carefully prepared verbal index. The fourth edition is in press.
OTHER WORKS OF MR. PARTON.
THE HUMOROUS POETRY OF THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE. From Chaucer to Saxe. Narratives, Satires, Enigmas, Burlesques, Parodies, Travesties, Epigrams, Epitaphs, Translations, including all the most celebrated comic poems from the anti-Jacobin, Rejected Addresses, Ingoldsby Legends, Cruikshank's Omnibus, Bentley, Blackwood and Punch. With a collection of more than two hundred Epigrams, and the choicest humorous poetry of Peter Pindar, Cowper, Thackeray, Praed, Swift, Scott, Holmes, "Anon," Gay, Burns, Southey, Saxe, Hood, Prior, Coleridge, Byron, Moore, Lowell, &c. With notes explanatory and biographical. By JAS. PARTON. 12mo., 689 pp. Cloth, $1 50; full gilt and gilt edges, $2 25.
"The book is one of rare merit; one of pleasure, and not grief; one of cultivation, and not weakness; one of profit, and not folly; one which we will love to peruse at home, abroad, or anywhere—in the town or country, in the house or in the field, in the Winter or in the Summer." [Home Journal.

THE RUSTIC AND THE MAN OF FASHION.

When verdant Jason came to town,
The wondrous sights to see,
All called him a great country clown,
So very green was he.
But not a fool, as time will tell,
Although at first forlorn:
He courted a most lovely belle,
Who treated him with scorn,
Until, at last, in great despair,
Writhing in sorrow's smart,
He cried: "How shall I win the fair
And chosen of my heart?"
A paper fell within his gaze;
He read awhile profound,
And then he thought, with sweet amaze,
"The secret I have found!"
He hastened where the paper told,
Two NINETY-THREE, Broadway,
And there, 'mid books and sparkling gold,
Passed a short hour away—
Selecting there what pleased him best,
With presents richly laden,
Such as might warm the coldest breast,
He hastened to the maiden.
She smiled and blushed upon him then—
He urged his tender passion;
He won his bride; and blest of men,
He reigns a man of Fashion!

Chances for Business Men.

A CONCERN in this city being largely engaged in the manufacture and sale of a patented article, too much so to give their attention to the FOREIGN RIGHTS, would dispose of them at a bargain for cash. There being nothing abroad of the kind to compete with, this offers a very favorable opportunity to a man with a few thousand dollars capital. Address VALUABLE PATENT, Tribune Office.

DRY GOODS WANTED—I will pay half cash in six months, with approved security, half prime Illinois and Pennsylvania lands at low prices, for five thousand dollars worth of goods suitable to the Western market. Address E. H. G., Box No. 2,813 Post Office.

FOR SALE—In exchange for valuable property, FOREIGN PATENTS of great value to any one going abroad, or an Agency would be given. Call on A. FULLER, No. 516 Broadway, third floor, front.

HOUSE WANTED, in SOUTH BROOKLYN, in Exchange for Cash and Lots.—A three-story brick, 25 feet front, worth from $6,000 to $8,000, situated in a good neighborhood, between Court and Henry-sts. and Harrison-st. and First-place. Address J. WALTER LOCKE, box No. 2,737 New-York Post-Office, describing premises.

MORTGAGES for SALE.—A first-class CITY MORTGAGE $2,000, or $2,500, security ample and good bondsmen; two to three years to run. For particulars inquire of the owner, for two days, at No. 239 Broadway, room No. 26, from 10 to 3.

PARTNER WANTED—In a light, genteel MANUFACTURING BUSINESS, established, in the city, and requiring the active services of an educated man of good address and some capital to take part in it. Address O. P. Q., Tribune Office.

POST-OFFICE BOX for SALE.—Apply to D. A. WOODWORTH, No. 118 Nassau-st.

TO CAPITALISTS.—The owners of the best-improved WATER-POWER in the State of Illinois, on which there are now extensive and profitably-employed Saw and Grist-Mills and other Manufactories, desire to sell one-third or one-half the same to a person or persons who can furnish the means of relieving said property from incumbrance and largely increasing its efficiency and productiveness. To effect this, an additional capital of $30,000 to $50,000 is required, for which an equal interest in property paying at least 10 per cent per annum and rapidly increasing in value is proffered. They refer to HORACE GREELEY, of The Tribune, who knows the property and its owners, and will on their behalf answer inquiries.
