SUDDEN DEATH.—A man named Robert Henderson, residing at No. 142 Little Montgomery street, Jersey City, was found dead in his bed on Saturday morning, having retired the night before in apparent good health. At the investigation held upon the body, it was decided that the intemperate use of liquor was the cause of death. Deceased was 45 years of age, and has left three children, who were sent to the Alms-House.

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT.—An old man, named Patrick Kelly, was most brutally beaten in Jersey City, near the ferry, on Saturday night, by two men named Edward McTormick and John Ward. Kelly was taken to the Alms-House, where he was properly cared for. His injuries are severe, but probably not fatal. His assailants were arrested by Officers Baldwin and Murphy, and locked up in the City Prison.

Upon the body of the unknown man who was killed last week by a train on the New-Haven Railroad was found a copy of the constitution and by-laws of "Red Jacket Engine Company of Elizabeth City, N. J." This fact may assist in identifying him.

A MAN BURNED TO DEATH.—A dwelling house at the Green Tree, in Burlington County, was destroyed by fire a few days since, which resulted in the horrible death of one of the inmates, named Patrick Leonard. He had returned home drunk the night previous and laid down before the fire, from whose clothes caught and he was burned to death.

A new religious paper, entitled The New-Jersey Baptist, has been started in Newark, with the Rev. W. B. Mettlenett as its editor. It is devoted to the interests of the Baptist denomination.

FIRE AT RARITAN.—On Thursday evening, at Raritan, the storehouse of the Raritan Agricultural Works, belonging to Messrs. Dunham & Staats, was destroyed by fire. The building contained eighty Cam-power reaping and mowing machines, which were also destroyed. Loss about $10,000. Cause of fire unknown.

ANOTHER REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER GONE.

TITUS—At Moriah, N. Y., on Thursday, March 4, Mr. John Titus, in the 97th year of his age.

Mr. Titus was born in the Town of Rehobath, Mass., in the year 1761, where he lived until he was about sixteen years of age, when he entered the American army. During the War of the Revolution he was out in a great many campaigns, and fought under various distinguished Generals, sharing largely in the toils and sufferings of those who bled in freedom's cause. At the close of the war he engaged as a sailor, and for some time was employed in the whale fishery. His wife still survives him, retaining her health and faculties to an unusual degree, being about 94 years of age. After his marriage, Mr. Titus served six years, making in all nine years of seafaring life. Returning from the sea, he engaged in the business of shoemaking, which was his occupation for many years.

In the war of 1812, Mr. Titus again took to the field, being then 50 years old. He was wounded in an engagement near Ogdensburgh, on account of which he has since drawn a pension. Soon after receiving this wound his second son was killed in the battle of Bridgewater. At the last Presidential election Mr. Titus came to the polls, and after depositing his vote for John C. Fremont, remarked that he voted for George Washington the first President of the United States, that he had voted at every Presidential election since, and that now he had cast his last vote for President and for freedom, and was ready for roll-call. Of his posterity, three are now living, one son and four daughters, 60 great grandchildren, and six or eight of the fifth generation, or great grandchildren's children.

The funeral was held on the 5th inst., in the Baptist Church in Moriah, in this State, where he has resided over thirty years.

SATURDAY, April 17—P. M.

The features of the Stock market remain much the same as noticed during the week. The transactions to-day were not extensive in any particular stock, excepting Erie, of which there were registered sales of 5,700 shares at very steady prices. Neither of the street factions appeared to be desirous of making a vigorous move—the bulls contenting themselves chiefly with creating a scarcity of one or two of the prominent fancies. The contest appears to be mainly narrowed down for the moment to Erie and one or two other stocks; and by the movement in Erie the tone of the market is principally given. This stock is very scarce, although freely offered by bears on their options, and ⅛ ⅌ cent a day has been paid for the use of it. Parties who are obliged to buy to make deliveries offer it freely at ⅛@¼ ⅌ cent difference on 10 days, seller's option. A portion of this scarcity is artificial, and caused by street operators blocking up the stock; but it is undoubtedly true that the quantity in the street has been reduced several thousand shares within a few months by outside absorption. Central and one or two other stocks are also scarce, but in much less degree than Erie. The outside element in the movement is not influential, but what there is of it is mainly on the bull side. Generally the market, for the moment, appears to be what is called a brokers' market, there being apparently no disposition to operate either way excepting for short turns. There is no potential clique moving for the rise or fall, although with the present plethora of money and the prospect of its continuance and even increase during the Summer, it would be perfectly easy for a clique operating for the rise to carry any amount of stocks and at the present comparatively low prices it might not be difficult with a strong and sustained market, to attract support from the outside public such as the street had during the late rise. There is everything in the street to originate and carry on another inflation like that, excepting the strong speculative element which then carried everything before it in its irresistible impulse. That element is now dormant, nor does it appear likely to be soon awakened. At the morning Board there was a tendency to improvement from the opening prices, but the changes were important, sellers' options were rather freely offered and as freely taken. At the Second Board, the market, with moderate activity, was irregular. At the close, in the street, there was a disposition to buy stock, especially Erie, which improved to 24⅛@24¼; Central, 87½; Cumberland, 17; Hudson River, 29@29¼; Rock Island, 73@73½; Galena, 88½; Illinois Central, 91½; Toledo, 43; Southern, 23¼@23½, &c.

In Exchange there is nothing doing, and rates are nominal at 108@109 ⅌ cent for sterling and 5.20@5.15 for France. The supply of bills is good.

Freights are very dull. To Liverpool—400 bb's. Flour at 1s. 4½d., 11,000 bush. Corn in bulk at 4d., 3,000 bush. Wheat in bags, 2,000 bales Cotton at ½d., 700 boxes Cheese at 20s. Total	$206,619 18	$105,996 03
Decrease in 1858		$40,573 15

The receipts of the same road for the first week of April were $51,234 49, against $62,932 17. A letter from the Superintendent of the Wabash Valley Road states that freight is being delivered at Toledo faster than the propellers and vessels can take it away. The Fulton Bank has declared a semi-annual dividend of 5 ⅌ cent, payable on the 1st of May. An Insurance Company, to be called the Daniel Drew Fire Insurance Company, is being organized. The amount of specie by the Africa was £64,313, of which Brown Brothers received £51,422, F. Butterfield £5,600, Dunham & Dimon £2,000, Trevor & Colgate £1,190, and £4,000 to order. The Wisconsin Lake Shore Railroad Company have a floating debt of $184,000. The Company now propose to fund this sum and to retire about $240,000 of the stock by a second mortgage for $400,000, in 8 ⅌ cent bonds, to be paid for in the proportion of 40 ⅌ cent cash and 60 ⅌ cent of surrendered stock. A telegraphic dispatch received at the office of the Cleveland and Toledo Railroad in this city states that the damage to the northern division track, incidental to the late storm, is slight, and will not exceed $2,000. The trains on the Southern division are running with the usual regularity. The business of the Clearing-House was $16,813,667. The Metropolitan Certificates are $338,000, showing a redemption of $4,390,000 since the 1st of January.

There is nothing important to notice in Money. The supply and the difficulty of lending continue to increase, and the rates of interest still tend downward. There is great scarcity of good paper, both in the bank offerings and the discount houses, and it is believed that the liquidations considerably exceed the new engagements. The rates are 4½@6 ⅌ cent for leading signatures, with some transactions as low as 3@3½ ⅌ cent in exceptional cases. One or two prominent houses are discounting their own obligations at 3½ ⅌ cent. On call the rates are 4@6 ⅌ cent, and in some instances as low as 3 ⅌ cent. Loans payable sixty to seventy days hence have been made by banks as low as 4½@5 ⅌ cent. The Bank statement of Monday, it is thought, may show even some decrease in the line of loans, from the inability of these institutions to use their receipts. The specie will show considerable increase, the California gold having gone in early in the week, and a small amount from Liverpool later in the week. The decrease in the Sub-Treasury is over a million, but that amount went to New-Orleans and St. Louis, and not into the bank vaults.

We are requested to print the following from The Commercial Advertiser:

"With reference to the announcement that appeared among the financial news by the Africa in our impression of yesterday regarding Wm. Brand & Co., we can state on reliable authority the following facts: The firm mentioned above succeeded to the firm of Cameron & Brand, whose senior partner had, while laboring under mental aberration, and in the absence of his partner in Europe, entered into wild and ruinous speculations, the disastrous results of which were not apparent until some time after the new firm had assumed the liabilities of the old. It would appear that Wm. Brand & Co. had endeavored most honorably to liquidate those liabilities, and had actually paid off more than $100,000 of them before the late commercial crisis. That disastrous event compelling an explanation, the few remaining creditors of Cameron & Brand at once granted a full discharge to Wm. Brand & Co. for the remainder of the old debts. Instead of suffering in the estimation of any of their correspondents, the new firm still retain the respect and full confidence of all of them, and have not been injured in credit or extent of business. From a perusal of the Dundee newspapers it would appear that local jealousies and party feeling have had much to do with an announcement which want of knowledge of the real facts had caused to assume graver importance than the circumstances warranted."

Gov. Randall of Wisconsin has appointed Timothy O. Howe of Green Bay, Wm. A. Prentiss of Milwaukee and J. Allen Barber of Grant Co. as three inspectors of the approaching election of Directors of the La Crosse Railroad, according to the recent act of the Legislature on the subject.

The Banks of the City of Buffalo have published their statements for the first quarter of the present year. The aggregates of the last two reports compare as follows:

	Loans & Dis.	Specie.	Circulation.	Deposits.
Dec., 1857	$3,013,830	$176,329	$365,721	$935,433

Decrease	$171,640	$95,713	$46,477	....
Increase	....	....	....	$167,026

The total capital of the Buffalo Banks is now $2,635,000.

The Money market continues very easy, and prime paper is scarce and wanted at 6 ⅌ cent ⅌ annum, the Banks taking all the good names offered.

The Auditor of public accounts of the State of Virginia reports, under date of March 29, that the amount to be added to the public debt under acts of the last and present session of the Legislature will be $1,025,800, but that it will be necessary to increase the State taxes to meet liabilities growing out of the recent appropriation. In his report the Auditor says:

In my report of November last I estimated that there would be a deficiency in the Treasury on the 1st of October, 1858, to be supplied by temporary means to the amount of	$422,131 93
And that there would be outstanding unpaid Treasury notes amounting to	400,000 00
Total floating debt	$823,131 93
To which must be added appropriations to pay claims, &c.	51,966 55
And if the General Assembly shall adjourn at the end of thirty days, the expenses of the two sessions being $163,054 10, which exceeds my estimate by the sum of	17,911 43
Probable amount of interest payable 1st July, 1858, on new stock	50,000 00
Prior to the 1st of January, 1859, about one-half of the appropriations will have been converted into stock, so that the interest and one ⅌ cent for the sinking fund will probably amount to	74,022 00
On the 1st of July, 1859, there will probably be six months' interest on the new debt of $2,925,800	77,774 54
Total	$1,064,806 22
Apply excess of taxes over ordinary expenses	613,049 64
Deficit 1st October, 1858	$451,637 03

Whether it will be necessary to increase the taxes to meet the old and new charges upon the treasury, depends upon the time within which it is desirable to pay off the liabilities. The debts which may be presented are principally Treasury notes held by the banks, and balances due to the Literary Fund. The stock of the former, to a large amount, is owned by the State, and she may, with great propriety, approach the banks for the temporary means, and the balances due to the latter are entirely within the control of the General Assembly.

Beside these facts, and with the full charge upon the treasury on account of the new debt, the present rate of taxation is sufficient to meet all the ordinary expenses of the Government, and produce a surplus annually of more than four hundred thousand dollars.

In my report of the 25th of November last I estimated the receipt from taxes to be | $3,172,159 22
And that the ordinary annual expenses would be | $2,559,109 38
Add to these charges the interest on new debt | 204,606 00
| 3,064,215 38
Excess of receipts over ordinary expenses | $108,243 64
