Dr. E. Angus Smith's Disinfecting Powder—The cheapest and most efficient Disinfectant yet produced, for domestic as well as public use, and is perfectly innoxious and combines no corrosive ingredient. It thoroughly removes the smell from drains, cesspools, middens, NIGHT SOIL, &c. In stables, sick rooms, &c., it preserves the air pure and makes ventilation safe, so that it can be highly conducive to the health of the sick. Its free use in SICK ROOMS, COFFINS, or on the bodies of the dead, prevents all offensive smell, and REMOVES ALL DANGER FROM INFECTION. It contains no metals or other injurious ingredient. Manures treated with this DISINFECTANT will be found much improved, as the ammonia and phosphoric acid are preserved, and a compound formed, well known to be of great value for agricultural purposes. OSCAR V. DAYTON & Co., Sole Proprietors for the United States. Depot No. 167 Broadway. For sale by the package of 2 pounds at 25 cents each; also, in bags of 250 pounds and by the ton. New Publications.

DUNLOP'S DIGEST OF THE GENERAL LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

With minute references to the Acts repealed, supplied or modified, pointing out only what has been enacted on similar subjects by prior laws, but designating their modification or abrogation by subsequent provisions. Also, containing copious Notes of the decisions and Dicta of the Supreme Court of the Union upon their construction, from A. D. 1789 to 1856. By James Dunlop, of the Bar of Pennsylvania. One superb royal 8vo. volume, 1,700 pages. Price reduced to $6.

The attention of the Legal Profession is invited to the following testimonials from distinguished members of the Bench:

"We have had occasion to examine the Digest of the Laws of the United States, by the late James Dunlop, esq., and we recommend it as the cheapest, most compact, and the most convenient edition of the Laws. This edition should be in the hands of all public officers of the United States, and others whose duties require a knowledge of the acts of Congress. It has an excellent Index, so that any act may be found at once in this volume."

P. V. DANIEL, R. B. TANEY,
SAMUEL NELSON, JOHN McLEAN,
A. C. GRIER, JAMES M. WAYNE,
J. A. CAMPBELL, M. CATRON.

Washington, Jan. 14, 1856.

"To the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives:

"SIR: I have carefully examined Mr. Dunlop's Digest of the Laws of the United States, and have had frequent occasion to use it in practice. It is, in my opinion, a very convenient and valuable work, and one of great merit and public use.

"Very respectfully, EDWIN M. STANTON.

"Washington, Feb. 19, 1859."

"I have examined and have for some months been using Mr. Dunlop's Digest of the Laws of the United States. I regard it as an admirable, and in some respects an invaluable work. Mr. Dunlop's footnotes are the best I have ever seen in any collection of Statutes. In my opinion every lawyer who desires to know what the acts of Congress are and what they mean, should buy this book. J. S. BLACK."

J. B. LIPPINCOTT & Co., Publishers, Philadelphia.

TESTIMONY from the Hon. THOS. H. BENTON in regard to PARTON'S LIFE AND TIMES OF AARON BURR.

Perhaps there could be no more important testimony to the truthfulness and interest of PARTON'S LIFE OF BURR than that of the Hon. THOMAS H. BENTON. Himself an actor in some of the events related, and the author of some of the most severely condemnatory language ever penned with regard to Burr, he was certainly a competent, and not likely to be a lenient judge of Mr. Parton's book.

Extract from a Letter from the Hon. Thomas H. Benton, dated Feb. 26, 1858.

"I have taken the time to look over the Life of Burr, and find in it much which is new and interesting to me, but without altering the opinion of the man formed about fifty years ago. I deem it a valuable contribution to the history of the times in which he acted so part, and very accurate in the narration of the Western events in which he was engaged, of which I was a close though a young observer. I venture to predict for it a general and favorable reading."

THE ELEVENTH EDITION of PARTON'S LIFE OF BURR is now ready—the remarkably rapid sale of the book still continuing. Considering the various circumstances, PARTON'S LIFE AND TIMES OF AARON BURR may be considered the most successful American Biography ever published, as it certainly is one of the most fascinating. 706 pp. Crown 8vo. Price in cloth, $1 75; half-calf, $2 75; full calf, $3 50.

MASON BROTHERS, Publishers, Nos. 108 and 110 Duane-st., New-York.

NEW LAW BOOK.—THE LAW OF VENDORS AND PURCHASERS OF REAL PROPERTY. By FRANCIS HILLIARD, esq., Author of "The Law of Mortgage," &c. Two vols. in one, 8vo., $6.

"The present work is designed to occupy the same ground in American Law which has been so successfully occupied in the English Law by Sugden on Vendors and Purchasers. I mean the same ground for practical use, for this is the prevailing purpose of the book.

"I begin with the distinction between executed and executory contracts, and proceed to explain what is necessary to constitute a contract, its consideration, parties, construction and form, including sales by auction, the statute of frauds, license and part performance. Then follow the time of performance, the title to the property sold, and, in natural succession, partial failure of title, and the general grounds for avoiding or rescinding a sale, in whole or in part, whether for total or partial want of title, for non-payment of the price, or other causes; including mistake, fraud, the sale of expectancies, breach of trust and notice. Having completed my view of the rights and liabilities growing out of the contract, I proceed to the subject of the remedies for enforcing it; first in equity, including the extensive subject of specific performance, and then, more fully than before, the title which the vendee must show and the grounds of objection which may be made against it; the dependence or independence of the mutual covenants of the parties; actions to recover back the price paid, and defences against notes and other securities given therefor; the claim for use and occupation, damages, pleading, parties, and miscellaneous points of practice." [Extract from the Preface.

Judge Hilliard may be taken to be the American writer on real estate law; his treatises suffising, if not to cover, at least to give him a clear possessory right in this great field of legal learning as it exists among our elves. For the preparation of such works as these, he possesses that strength and clearness of judgment, and the spirit of indefatigable investigation, which are necessary to make them at once complete as to their contents, and convenient but natural, as to their mode of treatment.

"It is enough to say of the Treatise on Vendors and Purchasers, as we can say from our examination of it in advance of its publication, that it is not behind either of its predecessors in its judicious and instructive classification of topics or in a thorough collection and effective quotation of cases. And we hazard little in predicting that it will assume the position of of a standard work in all our law libraries before many months from the day of its publication." [Boston Advertiser.

TO AUTHORS and AUTHORESSES—Wanted, a graphic, shrewd, nervous WRITER to work up rapidly, in partnership, portions of a elastically constructed legal novel, of high literary and moral aim, and stirring present interest. Plot and materials made ready to hand. Address, 5 days, "V," Box No. 2,814 P. O.

TO CAPITALISTS.—Wanted, a BUSINESS MAN, who can command from $10,000 to $20,000 Cash, to engage with the advertiser in a joint account business operation that will yield a good profit. Owing to the depressed state of many branches of trade, the present season opens unusual facilities for successfully carrying on the business. With a sufficient capital it would be, beyond a risk, a safe and paying investment, and one which can be readily and finally closed up inside of one year, with cash in hand. Those who can furnish the above amount cash, and are desirous of making a safe and paying investment for one year, will please address, (confidential,) MERCHANT, Box S, Dispatch office, Pittsburgh, Pa., accompanied with reference. Satisfactory references given and required.

$400 TO $500—A PARTNER WANTED—An active, enterprising man having the above amount, and no objections to travel, will hear of an excellent opportunity to invest by calling on J. LAWSON, No. 293 Broadway, in the store, between 2 and 4 o'clock.
