Morrisania, June 18, 1858.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY, June 1, 1858.
Hon. John B. Haskin, Member of Congress:
SIR: Your Democratic fellow-citizens residing in the southern part of Westchester County have observed with pride and satisfaction your honorable and consistent course in Congress as the representative of your entire constituency, and believing that your bold, fearless and able advocacy of the great principle of the "Sovereignty of the People," your firm adhesion to the principles of the Cincinnati platform; your stern and inflexible opposition to all legislation not in strict accordance with an economical administration of the affairs of government, and, in brief, your entire course of action at the present session of Congress, demand a proper and public expression of approval, we desire to extend to you a public welcome and popular reception on your return from Washington.
Will you, therefore, be kind enough to name a day when you can be present and meet your friends in Morrisania Hall, in the town of Morrisania, immediately after the Congressional adjournment will afford the opportunity.

WASHINGTON, June 14, 1858.
GENTLEMEN: The kind and complimentary letter, signed by two hundred and fifty of our Democratic fellow-citizens, desiring me to name a day after the Congressional adjournment when I can meet my friends at Morrisania Hall, was received several days since, and an answer has been delayed awaiting the action of Congress fixing the final day of adjournment. This having been done, I cheerfully reply, accepting the invitation, and naming the 22d inst. to meet my friends at the place designated.
After my long absence from home it will afford me great pleasure to again greet my old friends and all those who approve of my independent course in Congress during the exciting session about closing.
While my conduct here is justly amenable to fair criticism, which I invite, I claim the right to say that I have acted as the representative of the whole people of the Ninth Congressional District, conscientiously and honestly, and with the sole purpose of doing what to me seemed best for the prosperity of our common country.
The interested partisan may condemn, but I have faith that, upon my constituents bearing me in vindication of my Congressional career, a large majority of them will approve the action of their independent representative.
With great respect, I remain, your obedient servant,
JOHN B. HASKIN.
To Messrs. WM. CAULDWELL, ROBT. H. COLES, and others.

Notice.—The Special Committee appointed by the Common Council to make arrangements for the removal of the remains of ex-President MONROE, from this city to Richmond, the capital of his native State, have designated FRIDAY, 2d July next, as the day on which the public ceremonies in this city shall take place.
A full programme of arrangements for the procession, and the solemnities on the occasion, will be published in the papers of Thursday, the 1st of July next.
All Societies, Associations and Orders in or out of the city, desiring or intending to participate, will please communicate with the Corresponding Secretary, at the Mayor's Office, City Hall, on or before the 29th inst., in order that places may be assigned them in the procession.

ANOTHER BUSINESS MIRACLE.
The Genius of Trade, at last,
All previous wonders has surpassed,
By giving with the books you love
The jewels that you most approve.
In Broadway, at Two Ninety-three,
The choice of gifts is wholly free;
You buy your books—the crowded shelves
Are nobly stocked—you suit yourselves.
A thousand gifts before you shine—
No two alike—of styles divine;
No salesman's dictum you abide—
Your own free will's your only guide.
Is not this rare? Beneath the skies
Was there e'er known such enterprise?
Books at trade prices! (spread the news,)
And with each book the gift you choose.
Among all the wonders of the world of business, the new plan of distributing GIFTS at the AMERICAN GIFT BOOK HOUSE, No. 293 Broadway, is certainly the most extraordinary. All choice work has been discarded there, and every purchaser of Books chooses his own Gift from the large and varied assortment of articles belonging to the class of Books from which he has made his purchase. This plan is novel and original enough to deserve a patent. It is fair and liberal beyond all precedent. Catalogues, offering liberal inducements to agents, and explanatory of the new system, will be sent free to any individual on application. Address A. RANNEY, Agent, No. 293 Broadway.

BOOK for SUMMER TOURISTS.—Published THIS DAY:
AQUARELLES; Or, SUMMER SKETCHES. By Samuel Sombre. Handsomely printed in large clear type, and illustrated with original and characteristic engravings. Cloth gilt, 63 cts.
This work is full of fun and pungent wit—it hits off with excellent effect, the follies of life at the Springs—Newport, Saratoga, Sharon, etc.
"The author is evidently a skillful limner, for his touches are instinct with life. This is just the book to choose as a companion on a pleasure trip to the quiet country, or to the sea-side, whether by rail-car or steamboat. It possesses several advantages for this, in its gay and sunny pictures, as well as its caustic yet genial satire, and its free, almost colloquial style. It will, doubtless, become a great favorite with all pleasure-seeking readers at home and abroad."
For sale by all booksellers, or copies sent by mail, post-paid, on receipt of the price in postage stamps.
