To the Electors of the Fifth Aldermanic District—CAUTION.—The Electors of the District are cautioned against a Ticket headed by James Webb for Alderman, purporting to be the People's and Tax-Payers' candidate, there being no organization of the People or Tax-Payers in said District, and the aforesaid James Webb is evidently in the field for the purpose of electing Peter Duffy.

L. M. SKIDMORE, Secretary.

To the Voters of the Fifteenth Ward.—As there is an importance attached to your Vote for School Commissioner, which has rendered it necessary that the opposition to the questionable candidate in the matter of the reading of the Bible in every public school of our city, should be concentrated upon the strongest candidate in nomination, I would have it understood that, justified by many influential citizens of the Ward, I shall continue as the Whig and People's Candidate, despite the bogus People's nomination of the Honorable Samuel Hotaling.
WILLIAM T. JENNINGS.

REGULAR and PEOPLE'S CANDIDATE for ALDERMAN,

Mr. Connolly was the choice of the Democracy last Fall, and we are certain will be on this occasion. He is the man for the People; he invites all men to search his character for the last 20 years, while a resident in this city, and we rejoice as citizens that an honest man now stands before us as our choice. Surely we prefer such a man to any of the forty thieves of '58.
Rally to his support, and you never shall regret it. He has rejected bribery; he cannot be bought to betray his neighbors.

A Circular headed, "To the Tax-payers, Rent-payers, &c., of the XXIst Ward," signed by Thos. B. van Buren, Richard Mott and others, contains a most scandalous attack upon our efficient Alderman, James Owens, whom we have recommended for re-election. The attack has reference to Mr. James Owens's vote upon the purchase of Ward's Island by the Common Council. The whole statement is a tissue of misrepresentations. Mayor Tiemann recommended the purchase at $1,500 per acre, and it was at this price that Alderman Owens voted for its acquisition by the City. No part of the property was to be acquired except that to which the title was perfect, and first examined and approved by the law officer of the city. We find upon inquiry that the title has been approved by him. The purchase was one of eminent wisdom and clear necessity. A portion of the Island was used for public purposes, and owned by the City or State. The proprietors of the residue were disposed to sell, and at no other time could the City make as advantageous a bargain. If the Island were mainly used for private residences, or for the promotion of individual enterprise, every acre of it would be worth at least $4,000. So land for the adjoining area in Hardlem fetches and ranges.
The City pays for no more land than the seller can give title to, and the price paid is that recommended by the Mayor himself. When will the recklessness of partisan statements be made subordinate to truth? Cannot the advocates of Mr. Haws confine their opposition to a tried and faithful public servant within the limits of candor? We congratulate the citizens of the Twenty-first Ward that this sole attack upon Mr. Owens turns out to be a Dutch invention of the enemy, and that it was invented by the partner of Mr. Haws in the City contracts, and fathered upon some, at least, who wholly repudiate it as illegitimate.
The following named gentlemen disclaim ever having signed the circular referred to, or that they authorized the use of their names by others:
JOHN H. WHITE, G. L. WALKER,
WM. P. ESTERBROOK, CHRISTOPHER PULLMAN,
HENRY BALDWIN
JOHN H. SHERWOOD, Chairman 21st Ward.
W. W. NILES, Sec'y. Tax and Rent Payers' Ass'n.

Twenty-second Ward Taxpayers' and People's Regular Nomination.
For Alderman (XIIth District):
The Hon. NICHOLAS SEAGRIST.
For School Inspector.....JOHN R. VANDERVOOR, Chairman.
JOHN ADAMS, Secretary.

People's and Tax-Payers' Candidate.
For Alderman, IVth District:
JAMES WEBB.
"ALDERMAN OF THE FIFTH DISTRICT.—The candidate for Alderman in this District, whom we sincerely hope may be elected, is James Webb, at present a Councilman from the IXth Ward. Mr. Webb is a master builder, a man of substance and of unquestionable integrity. He is in all respects a well-informed, intelligent and practical man—one whose election would be creditable to the city and beneficial to taxpayers. In short, he belongs to that class of men who alone can introduce into our City Government the reforms so absolutely necessary for the prosperity and the character of our city. Let the taxpayers in his District, therefore, do their duty and secure the return of Councilman Webb to the Board of Aldermen."
[Courier and Enquirer.]

Five Points House of Industry.
A CARD.
We are frequently called to account in the following manner: Some one calls at the Institution and says, "We sent you, Sir, a donation of provisions (or money) on such a day, but you did not acknowledge it."
Our explanation in most cases is this: There are two Mission Houses at the Five Points; our building is called House of Industry (Mr. Pease's), the other building is called Five Points Mission (Methodist). If our friends about to send us a contribution should direct it to "Five Points Mission, N. Y.," it would not reach Mr. Pease's institution, but would go to the Methodist institution, and of course we could not acknowledge its reception, because the two houses have no connection. Donations intended for us should be directed, "L. M. PEASE, or B. R. BARLOW, House of Industry, N. Y." Grateful for the liberality of our friends, we feel bound in justice to them and to ourselves to make this statement.
B. R. BARLOW, Superintendent.
L. M. PEASE, General Agent.

THE NEW PRIEST IN CONCEPTION BAY.
Decidedly the most original and powerful work of fiction issued for many years.
The Publishers commend this work to all intelligent readers. It is emphatically a Novel; that is, it is NEW in scenery, characters and incidents; a fresh creation, yet true to nature and human nature. The Author has boldly marked out a path for himself, and has produced a work of unusual power and interest.
The novel reader in quest of a new sensation, the student of character and manners, as well as those who appreciate poetic graces of style and the glowing enthusiasm of a man of genius, will find something in the New Priest that will richly repay their time and attention.

EXTRACTS FROM CRITICAL NOTICES.
"Perhaps since Macaulay's History of England no book has been looked for with more eager expectation than this."
"With a patient industry only less remarkable than his creative power, he has produced a work which, in addition to higher qualities, is as amusing as a Waverley Novel, and as accurate as a German monograph." [Saturday Review (London).
"Nothing can be compared to the literary toil, of which the marks are conspicuous on every page of these volumes. Such handling of antique musty documents such thrashing of husks for a few grains of corn, such eye-destroying, soul-depressing pertinacity of research as their composition has evidently demanded of the author, almost place the miraculous diligence of Gibbon himself in discount. "It has long been eagerly anticipated, and now that it has been published it is seized upon with as much avidity as though it were a new novel by Bulwer or Dickens. * * * There is no abatement of the old Carlyleian strength, or humor, or quaintness, with which the reading world is already so familiar, which so many have tried in vain to imitate, and which still remains unique and impossible to all but their inventor and master." [N. Y. Times.
"The author has explored a field which has never been intelligently and thoroughly traversed by a competent historian, and the result is a historical resurrection of scenes and persons in the eighteenth century which few readers were prepared to anticipate." [N. Y. Evening Post.
