ABRAM FLORENTINE, THOMAS MCGRANE, } Secretaries.

A Card.
To the Editor of The N. Y. Tribune.
DEAR SIR: A Circular, addressed to the electors of the XIth Senatorial District, was yesterday (election day) very freely circulated through the Twentieth Ward, mainly urging the support of the Republicans for E. H. Reed for Alderman, in place of Geo. Hall (who is was confidently asserted could not be elected), and purporting to be signed by a number of the citizens of the Ward, myself among the number. Although a Republican, and personally friendly to Mr. Reed, my candidate was Geo. Hall, for whom I voted. And the use of my humble name to the above circular was entirely unwarranted. I make no pretense whatever to any political influence in my Ward, and should shrink from this publicity, but cannot be placed in so inconsistent a position in the eyes of my friends.
Respectfully, J. R. EDWARDS, No. 218 West 31st-st.

Five Points House of Industry.
A CARD.
We are frequently called to account in the following manner: Some one calls at the institution and says, "We sent you, Sir, a donation of provisions (or money) on such a day, but you did not acknowledge it."
Our explanation in most cases is this: There are two Mission Houses at the Five Points; our building is called House of Industry (Mr. PEASE's), the other building is called Five Points Mission (Methodist). If our friends about to send us a contribution should direct it to "Five Points Mission, N. Y.," it would NOT reach Mr. PEASE's institution, but would go to the Methodist Institution, and of course we could not acknowledge its reception, because the two houses have no connection. Donations intended for us should be directed, "G. M. PEASE, or B. R. BARLOW, House of Industry, N. Y." Grateful for the liberality of our friends, we feel bound in justice to them and to ourselves to make this statement.
B. R. BARLOW, Superintendent.
L. M. PEASE, General Agent.

A NEW and ORIGINAL WORK on MEXICO, SOUTH AMERICA, CHINA, WEST INDIES, AUSTRALIA, &c.
CHARLES SCRIBNER, Brooks Building, No. 124 Grand-st., two doors east of Broadway, has just published
DUST AND FOAM;
OR, TWO CONTINENTS AND THREE OCEANS.
Being wanderings in Mexico, South America, The Sandwich Isles, the Philippines, China, East and West Indies, Australia, Polynesia, &c. By J. ROBINSON WARREN. 1 Vol., 12mo. 2 Illustrations. $1 25.
At this time, when the papers and even the President's Message is filled with remarks about the condition of Mexico and our relations to it, Mr. Warren's work gives just the information which is needed. The author's long residence in Western Mexico, the favorable opportunities he had of becoming acquainted with its real condition, and his intelligent remarks upon the agricultural and mineral resources of Sonora and Arizona, and their importance to the United States, make his work particularly interesting.
"Here comes a live Yankee. He has been cruising by land and water, on mules, on foot, in steamships, in canvas carrying tubs; skipper one day before the mast the next; supercargo, sailing master, night watchman, captain; among Kanakas; among coolies; bookkeeping in Mexico; speculating in California; hard up in Australia, and comes home at last to tell his story, and the story is well told." [N. Y. Times.
"Mr. Warren writes as a man talks, and a most interesting and charming narrative he has produced. His descriptions, though brief, are so highly graphic that the reader sees everything as if he were along with the writer, and dislikes to close the book, for he is so much charmed with the author that he wants to see him."
"This is a sprightly, laughter-moving record of ten years' wandering about the globe of an uneasy, adventurous commercial genius, who tells his story in an offhand, jovial way. Mishap, various adventures and mixed ventures, trials, privations and sufferings, form the staple of the book." [N. Y. Chronicle.
"He describes speculations, voyages, balls, fights, shipwrecks, mutinies, fun and frolic, and all with natural vivacity and great freedom." [Albany Argus.
"We have not read so entertaining a book of the kind in a long time." [Portland Transcript.
"The author is evidently a man of education, and possesses power of description of no mean order." [Evening Post.
"Judging from the truthful description he has given of Mexico and the Pacific coast, his book is a valuable record of facts. The accounts of Sonora and its resources, with the descriptions of its chief cities, Guaymas, &c., are the most correct we have seen in print." [Providence Journal.
"Whatever of 'Dust and Foam' our author has encountered, evidently but little, if any, got into his eyes, as his perception is as clear as that of the eagle, and his enthusiasm has happily been transferred to his book." [American Merchant.
"He travels from the love of it, and gives us his impressions free from tedious or fictious or useless grumblings." [Boston Journal.
"A lively, humorous, amusing, dashing, easy sketch of a tour embracing the coast of the Pacific from Patagonia to Panama, &c." [Boston Evening Express.

8. DIANA DE POITIERS.	17. CHARLOTTE BRONTE.
9. ANNE BOLEYN.	18. VICTORIA.
	19. EUGENIE.

This elegant Book is printed from a new font of pica type cast purposely for it, upon extra-sized and calendered paper, made to order, and bound in real Turkey, in new and rich styles, by Somerville. The portraits are from drawings by Champneys and Wardesford, most of them authentic copies, and engraved on steel in the highest style of art by Hall, Halpin, Hollyear, Jackman and Rogers.
From Review in N. Y. Tribune.
"Although prepared with special reference to the holidays as a keepsake of unusual magnificence, the literary execution of this volume is entitled to quite as decided commendation as the selection and finish of its illustrations. In opposite of a gallery of engaging portraitures, both by pen and pencil, of some of the most celebrated women of the world, including queens, warriors, witches, heroines and beauties. Zenobia, Dante's Beatrice, Joan of Arc (or, according to the modern orthography, Joan Darc), Mary Stuart, Pocahontas, Maria Antoinette, the first Mrs. Judson, Charlotte Bronte, Victoria and Eugenie, are sometimes on its animated pages. Mr. Goodrich has ample claims to the possession of a lively, graceful and often picturesque style, and is perfectly at home in the composition of agreeable, sustained narrative. He has performed his task in this volume not only with his accustomed felicity of expression, but with evident painstaking for historical accuracy. His readers will not fail of gratification both to eye and taste."

THE MOST SUPERB AMERICAN BOOK EVER ISSUED.
CHARLES SCRIBNER,
NEW-YORK,
Has now Ready,
WILD FLOWERS,
DRAWN AND COLORED FROM NATURE.
BY MRS BADGER.
With an introduction by Mrs. L. H. Sigourney.
1 vol., large folio, with 22 Page Colored Illustrations. In Turkey morocco $15; antique morocco, $12 50.
This sumptuous volume—the most superb of the kind ever issued—presents other claims to attention, in addition to its magnificent exterior, the resplendent coloring of its numerous plates, the richness of its mechanical execution, and the gems of poetry that accompany its illustrations. It contains the finest specimens of the Field and Forest Flowers of America. Those beautiful strangers that, in the recesses of our woods, upon our mountain sides, or by our streams, so often call forth the traveler's exclamation of delight, are here preserved in all their exquisite perfection—not a tint faded, not an atom of brilliant down brushed from their petals; fresh and bright as when first gathered from their native wild soil. The volume has, indeed, "the voice of bird and the breath of Spring." The intoxicating sweetness of the poetry has not only drawn all these gems from nature, but has colored over ten thousand impressions with her own hand, to secure absolute fidelity to the models. Attention is especially invited to the delicate filigree and color-dust on some of the flowers, and to the fine shading so exquisitely true to nature, which so creditable to the perfection of art. The book has certainly never had its equal, in design or execution, among those devoted to illustrations of natural products.
As only a very small edition of this superb work could be prepared in consequence of the immense labor and time requisite for coloring it, early orders will be necessary to secure copies.

BRADY'S ETHIOPIAN DRAMA.—
FREDERIC A. BRADY,
the publisher of all the most popular and pleasing
ETHIOPIAN PLAYS
now before the public, has much pleasure in announcing that
ROBERT MAKE-AIRS;
Or,
THE TWO FUGITIVES,
The first of the uniform series, is now ready.
This capital drama has had a run unprecedented in the annals of the drama—black or white—having been played to overflowing houses for upward of one hundred nights in New-York. It abounds in the most laughter-provoking hits—is redolent of the most ludicrous humor—full of quaint similes—overflowing with droll native wit; while it is, meanwhile, free from the slightest tinge of vulgarity.
ROBERT MAKE-AIRS
will be followed by the equally famous Ethiopian Play of BOX AND COX.

These papers are delivered on the above terms, without charge, for freight or postage, at the office of publication, No. 121 Chestnut-st., or at any of the Depositories of the Society's publications. In all of the other cities and large towns of the United States, subscribers may likewise make arrangements with the Periodical booksellers of the place in which they live, for obtaining these papers at the publication prices, without charge for freight or postage. Who this cannot be done, the papers are sent by mail.
The postage on any of these papers, when paid in advance, at the office where the paper is received, is half a cent on each paper, viz: for a single paper, 6 cents a year, for the Monthly; 12 cents for the Semi-Monthly, 18 cents for a paper Three Times a Month, and 26 cents for the Weekly.
In the case of small papers, such as the Gazette, and the Banner about one-half the amount of postage is saved to the subscriber, by its being prepaid at the office of publication, provided they are sent in packages of not less than fifteen. In all such cases, therefore, the postage is prepaid at this office, and the amount necessary is added to the subscription price. The following, therefore, are the
