Fire Department.—The following correspondence has passed between the Hon. John B. Scoles and the Trustees of the Fire Department:
NEW-YORK, March 1, 1859.
GENTLEMEN: It has been suggested to me that a lecture upon the history and principles of the Federal Constitution, would be very acceptable at the present time, when important questions are presenting themselves, and differences of opinion are entertained by those who are equally anxious to arrive at sound and truthful conclusions. It is a subject which I have reflected upon with no little interest.
I do not know a charitable fund I would sooner aid than that of the Fire Department of this city. Nor a body of citizens before whom I would prefer delivering such a lecture. I will do so with pleasure, if it be your wish, at any time and place which you may appoint. My subject will be "The Birth and Development of the American Republic."
With great respect and esteem,
I remain yours, truly, JOHN B. SCOLES.
Mr. ZOPHER MILLS, Mr. JAMES Y. WATKINS, Mr. SAMUEL B. THOMSON, } Committee of Trustees of Fire Department.
NEW-YORK, March 2, 1859.
The Hon. JOHN B. SCOLES,
DEAR SIR: Your favor of the 1st inst. is at hand. Your kind and liberal offer is with pleasure accepted. The lecture on "The Birth and Development of the American Republic," a subject that is interesting to the whole community, will take place at the Cooper Institute, on MONDAY EVENING, 14th inst., at 7½ o'clock. The price of tickets will be 25 cents each.
The expenditures from our Charitable Fund the past year, were over Thirty Thousand dollars ($30,000). The calls for aid are increasing. We therefore hope that this benefit will materially assist us in extending relief to the sick and afflicted firemen, and to the widows and orphans of those that have departed this life.
ZOPHAR MILLS, JAMES Y. WATKINS, SAMUEL B. THOMSON, } Committee of Trustees of N. Y. Fire Department Fund.

The Managers of the Nursery and Child's Hospital desire to acknowledge gratefully their obligation to the ladies and gentlemen who acted as Managers of the Charity Ball given on the 3d of March. The beauty and elegance of that entertainment was owing to the taste and energy of the management. To Mr. Cunard and to the officers of the Navy Yard, they owe many thanks for the loan of their flags; also to Dr. A. B. Mott for the use of the gas light "Charity," which added to the beauty of the decorations. The financial results will be published in a few days.

Edward H. Dixon, M. D., Editor of The Scalpel, attends exclusively to Operative Surgery and Office Consultations on the more obscure diseases of the Pelvic Viscera. Piles, Fistula, Fissure and Prolapsus, are cured by a process comparatively painless, and without the knife or ligature, or the least confinement from business. Dr. D. refers to a great number of citizens in almost every part of the Union, on whom he has operated. Every case can be pronounced curable, or otherwise on examination, as the conditions are always apparent to the practical observer.
Office hours from 1 to 3 daily, and 7 to 9 evenings, at No. 42 8th-av. At all other hours he is at his private Hospital, where every comfort of domestic life is provided for those who require surgical operations or careful dietetic treatment.

In Division Board of Officers,
FIRST DIVISION N. Y. STATE TROOPS,
NEW-YORK, March 4, 1859.
Brig. Gen. HALL in the Chair.
The Chairman announced that intelligence had been received of the decease of Lieut. Col. CHARLES H. SANDFORD of the Staff of the Major General, at Valencia, Venezuela the 8th ult.; whereupon, on motion of Brig. Gen. SPICER, a Committee of Three was appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the feelings of this Board in relation thereto.
The Chair named Brig. Gen. Spicer, 1st Brigade; Brig. Gen. Yates, 2d Brigade, and Col. Legal, 55th Regiment, as such Committee, who reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:
Whereas, the members of this Board have learned with profound regret the demise of their late Secretary, Lieut. Col. CHAS. H. SANDFORD, therefore,
Resolved, That we deeply deplore the loss of our esteemed and beloved fellow-officer, and sincerely sympathize with the family of the deceased in their sudden and severe bereavement.
Resolved, That the members of this Board wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.
Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of this Board, and a copy thereof be transmitted to the family of the deceased.
Resolved, That this Board do now adjourn.
Extract from the minutes. Brig. Gen. WM. HALL, Chairman pro tem.
Attest: Col. JOSEPH C. PINONNEY, Secretary pro tem.

Gold Mines.
LEAVENWORTH CITY AND PIKE'S PEAK
EXPRESS AND PASSENGER LINE.
The above Company has been organized with ample capital. We connect with eastern lines at St. Louis, Mo., and at Leavenworth City, K. T. Our first coaches leave Leavenworth City on the 10th day of April. We propose starting two daily passenger coaches, in addition to those that may be required for Express goods. Through tickets passing over our Line can be had at all the principal Railroad ticket offices in the East and North.
To obtain preference of seats, those holding tickets will be required to register at the Company's office in Leavenworth, taking preference according to such register.
We do not guarantee an arrival in any given number of days, but feel every confidence that the trip from Leavenworth City to our Depot in the mines of Denver City or its vicinity, will be made inside of twelve days; and after the road is well established, hope to make the trip inside of ten days.
J. S. SIMPSON, Nos. 5 and 7 Nassau-st., Continental Bank Building, (Room No. 8), New-York, is our General Agent, authorized to arrange for the sale of tickets, and also for Express Goods. (Signed), W. H. RUSSELL, Pres't.

MASON BROTHERS,
No. 46 Walker-st., have recently published
THE EMPIRE OF AUSTRIA:
ITS RISE AND PRESENT POWER.
By JOHN S. C. ABBOTT.
With Steel Portrait. 507 pp., crown 8vo., cloth, $1 50.
"To those who are acquainted with the graphic and glowing style of Mr. Abbott, with its singular power of fastening the attention of the reader, it need scarcely be stated that the history of Austria in his hands unrolls before us like some vivid romance; dazzling, full of movement, and brightened by the art of the writer in its most prosaic and familiar details."—[New-Yorker.
THE CONFIDENTIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF NAPOLEON AND JOSEPHINE, with numerous Illustrative Notes and Anecdotes. By JOHN S. C. ABBOTT. 494 pp. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.
"We can imagine no more interesting work concerning the great Napoleon than the one before us, which opens to us the heart of that wonderful man in the most beautiful connection of his life, his love for the charming Josephine."—[Phila. Amer. Courier.
MATTHEW CARABY:
A Narrative of his Adventures during the Autumn of 1848, among Friends and Strangers, in Town and Country.
By BENAULY,
author of "Compe-Out Corners." 12mo., cloth, 475 pp. Price $1 25.
"As a romance or a play, full of good feeling, with little or none of that sentiment against which Sir Peter Teazle so bitterly inveighed, yet in every page teaching right and reproving wrong; written in a semi-jocose style of badinage which few can use with propriety; commencing and ending with tableaux of the starting order, and containing an amount of incident, knowledge of New-York as well as country life somewhat remarkable, the book well deserved to be denominated an extraordinary one. We advise any who do not wish to spend the requisite time to read this work, not to read the initial chapter, as it will be found very difficult to withstand the temptation to go on and finish a production which commences so startlingly."—[Newark Advertiser.
THE LIFE AND TIMES OF AARON BURR.
By JAMES PARTON.
12th Edition. Crown, 8vo., cloth, 76 pp. Price, $1 75.
"By shaking the dust off half a dozen ponderous volumes, cutting out a leaf here and there, picking through and reviving a heap of yellow love letters, touching the springs of secret drawers, and holding up to the light certain locks of soft hair and sly, laughing miniatures, and gathering what friends and enemies have to report in England, America, France and Sweden, we obtain a biography of more than ordinary interest, contradictory enough in phenomena of good and evil, a romance in real life, or the story of an American Barry Lyndon."—[Frazer's Magazine, London.
THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES.
By BENSON J. LOSSING
Author of "Field Book of the Revolution." With Steel Plates, and Three Hundred elegant Illustrations.
Imperial 8vo., 672 pp. Cloth, $3 50; Calf antique, $5 50.
"The plan is excellent, and it appears to me to be new. The periods into which you have divided the work are appropriate, and must tend to fix in the mind of the reader a more intimate and distinct knowledge of the leading facts by which each period is distinguished.
"The thread of the narrative is well preserved, notwithstanding the variety of topics necessarily noticed, in regard to the occupancies of savage tribes, and the settlements and advance of the Colonies.
"The small maps, descriptive of localities distinguished by important events, will aid the reader who has not at hand large charts. This is a matter of importance to every reader. By fixing in the mind these localities, the memory is impressed with the facts, and will retain them more accurately and longer. And the same remark may be made as to the likenesses of historic characters which you have introduced.
"While your history, from its condensed form and excellent style, is well adapted to family reading and instruction, the best informed may peruse it with interest and profit. You have given a freshness to familiar and remarkable incidents in the narrative, which tell little short of first impressions."—[The Hon. John McLean, Judge of the Supreme Court of the U. S.
THE BATTLE ROLL,

J. B. LIPPINCOTT & Co., Philadelphia.
OPPORTUNITIES FOR INDUSTRY
AND
THE SAFE INVESTMENT OF CAPITAL; OR,
A THOUSAND CHANCES TO MAKE MONEY.
PREFACED BY LETTERS
TO A VICTIM OF THE LATE PANIC
On, Is Money-Getting a Lost Art: How Fortunes were made in Ancient Times; How Fortunes have been made in Modern Times; How to Get the First Thousand Dollars, which treats of How to Labor Profitably, and in what consists the Art of Economy. With an appendix, containing VALUABLE SECRETS AND MANUFACTURING RECEIPTS,
Collated from reliable sources, and including some that, it is said, have been sold, at various times, for considerable sums.
This unique book must not be judged by any other—it is the only one of the kind. Every one admits that some kinds of business are more profitable than others, and knows the importance of seizing the favorable opportunity, but no one, until now, has noted and commented on the various chances, schemes, projects and openings for those in want of a profitable business. The author—a gentleman of ability and a pleasing writer—has performed this most important service, citing chance after chance to make money, especially novel chances and new fields for adventure, in all parts of the world, and has made one of the most readable and interesting, as well as permanently valuable, books of the day. It is well worthy of being studied by every intelligent man who has his fortune yet to make.
One volume, large 12mo., 420 pp., $1 25.
The chapter "How to Get the First Thousand Dollars" is alone worth ten times the price.

THE ROMANCE OF THE RING,
AND OTHER POEMS.
By JAMES NACK. 12mo., cloth gilt, $1.
"The poetry of James Nack is characterized by a versification remarkably flowing, easy and musical, an unaffected and felicitous diction, and a depth and tenderness of feeling, for which he may be eminently considered the poet of the affections. For precocity of talent and attainment, under circumstances peculiarly unpropitious, he is an intellectual wonder. We are constantly reminded, in reading his productions, of Burns's, which they resemble in their naturalness and pathos."—[Preface by Gen. Morris.
"The collection is highly creditable to the writer's liveliness of fancy, purity of thought, and facility of versification. Although laboring under the misfortune of a total loss of hearing in early life, he is fully alive to the melodies of nature and the charms of social intercourse."—[Tribune.

Containing:
1. THE EVIDENCES OF DEISM: In which the author describes his passage through the hollow depths of Atheism, Materialism, &c., and gives his reasons for returning to the Deity for the solution of the terrible problems presented in life.
4. THE FABLE OF THE REDEEMER.
5. THE FIELDS OF BLOOD! A review of the political world, indicating the coming struggle of liberty and common sense against tyranny and priestcraft.
6. THE FABLES OF THE EXODUS: In which it is questioned whether Moses ever existed, and whether the Jews, as a nation, were ever captive in Egypt.
7. THE HARMONADE: An Epic. By FRANK CLINTON BARRINGTON. Book 1. The Encampment of the Nomades; 2. The Ten pie of the Priests; 3. The Palace of the Kings; 4. The Republic of the People; 5. The World of the Spirits; 6. The Universe of the Gods.
8. THE MOTHER OF THE NATIONS: In which it is argued that there existed in the heart of Asia, 6,000 years ago, a great and intelligent people, to which the more modern nations, such as the Jews, Egyptians, Chaldeans, &c., owed their knowledge of the arts and sciences they held in common with each other.
9. AN EXPOSITION OF BIBLICAL TRANSLATION: Showing, by quotations from many versions, that the Bible is not the same book in any two languages—the English saying one thing, and the French quite another.
16. PROOFS THAT "SOLOMON'S SONG" is a fragment of a Hebrew Drama, and that the Book of Job is merely the translation of an Arabian romance.
17. THE INFIDELS: A few Plain Statements, designed to show that a merely negative skepticism is the worst curse which can befall any mortal.
18. THE AGE OF SPIRITS: A Review of Spiritual Manifestations, which, like a two-edged sword, cuts both ways, both believers and doubters.
19. THE BUILDING OF THE CONTINENTS: A Record of the World for Six Hundred Million Years—showing that the world was formerly water, and that all continents and islands were built up by the natural produce of this element, after the manner in which we see the work still going forward among the Coral Isles of the Pacific,
AND EIGHTY OTHER SIMILAR ARTICLES, including a paper by Baron Humboldt, author of "Cosmos," on the motion of the Solar System around the Central Sun; "Notes" of Prof. Agassiz on "La Race Humaine," and "Cosmographie Universelle" of Lecourtier; "Geological Researches in the United States and Canadas," by Charles Lyell, F. R. S., &c.
