ECLECTIC MAGAZINE!
The August number is published, with a rich table of contents. A beautiful print, the TRIAL OF QUEEN KATHARINE OF ARAGON, embellishes the number. Twenty-seven human faces appear in the scene. Queen Katharine, King Henry VIII., Cardinal Wooley, Cardinal Campeggio, the Archbishop of Canterbury, etc., are the leading portraits, with Lords and Ladies. Its artistic composition is much admired. The July number has a splendid Portrait of the Warrior King
VICTOR EMANUEL.
The Hon. EDWARD EVERETT.
EMPEROR LOUIS NAPOLEON,
EMPRESS EUGENIE:
full-length portraits in recent numbers of The Eclectic. Every intelligent family should by all means have The Eclectic upon the parlor table.
The beautiful Prints and Portraits of each of these numbers are well worth 50 cents alone, beside the 144 pages, double columns, in each number, of varied choice reading. Any or all of these will be sent prepaid to any address for 42 cents each, sent in postage stamps.
Each new subscriber who pays one year in advance for The Eclectic will receive either of the splendid Premium Prints, worth $2 50 each. The Eclectic is $3 per year.

PAUL MORPHY'S
FIRST CONTRIBUTION ON CHESS
IN
THE NEW-YORK LEDGER.
Mr. MORPHY'S first Paper on Chess will be published in the LEDGER for Aug. 6, which will be ready for sale at 1 o'clock p. m. on MONDAY next. Among other things, this initial Paper contains a game played by those eminent masters of Chess, McDonnell and Labourdonnais, with a careful analysis and valuable comments by Mr. MORPHY.
The plan which Mr. MORPHY proposes to pursue, in conducting the Chess Department of the LEDGER, is one which it is confidently believed will meet a long-felt want on the part of Chess players throughout the world, and impart to Mr. M.'s contributions a PERMANENT PRACTICAL VALUE, as well as an immediate popular interest.

ACADIA; OR,
A MONTH WITH THE BLUE NOSES.
By FREDERIC S. COZZENS.
Two Elegant Illustrations, by Napoleon Sarony.
One Volume. Price $1.
From The New-York Baptist Chronicle.
"Fred. Cozzens, by a happy accident, in quest of health—we congratulate him upon its recovery—may be long enjoyed, and employ it as well as upon this good book!—went to Acadia. There he saw the Evangeline.
"'Fair was she to behold, that maiden of seventeen summers,
Black were her eyes as the berry that grows on the thorn by the way-side;
Black, yet how softly they gleamed beneath the brown shade of her tresses.'
"He saw her, and many another,
"'Wearing her Norman cap, and her kirtle of blue, and the earrings
Brought in the olden time from France, and since, as an heirloom, Handed down from mother to child through long generations.'
"He saw, besides, many other persons and things, among which—whether persons or things we leave to the taste of the reader—were some droll specimens of fugitive slaves. The early history of the simple-hearted Acadians, and the wrongs they suffered—we venture to say, a subject even less known to more persons than the history of the United States, or even the Bible—is gleaned at in a comprehensive manner, and with the writer's accustomed playful grace and gentility."
For sale by all Booksellers. Copies sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, by DERBY & JACKSON, Publishers, New-York.

SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE!
SAVE THE PIECES!!
ECONOMY!!! DISPATCH!!!
"A STITCH IN TIME SAVES NINE."
As accidents will happen even in well regulated families, it is very desirable to have some cheap and convenient way for repairing Furniture, Toys, Crockery, &c.
SPALDING'S PREPARED GLUE
meets all such emergencies, and no household can afford to be without it. It is always ready and up to the sticking point. There is no longer a necessity for limping chairs, splintered veneers, headless dolls and broken cradles. It is just the article for coral, shell and other ornamental work so popular with ladies of refinement and taste.
This admirable preparation is used cold, being chemically held in solution, and possessing all the valuable qualities of the best cabinet-makers' Glue. It may be used in the place of ordinary mucilage, being vastly more adhesive.
"USEFUL IN EVERY HOUSE."
