St. Louis. The action and result thereof were such as had been foreshadowed by the city papers. All the banks agreed to sell Exchange on the East at cost, for bankable funds at 1 premium. This action was intended to place Missouri credit on a better footing, both at home and abroad, and we trust it will accomplish the end. Some of the banks favored the resolution a week ago, but were overruled. It has been understood for some days, however, that it would soon take place, and the banks have been strengthening themselves accordingly. It is true that they will be enabled to furnish all the exchange they may be called upon to sell, at 1, or even a lower rate. It will be seen by the weekly statement of the city banks, that they are very strong in specie funds. Although they relied much more of their strength on this week than ever, they show an increase of gold of over $20,000."

WOOL—There is a moderate business doing in Domestic qualities, at full prices, but the general demand is not so good as last week, owing probably, in part, to the less favorable advices from Europe. A London circular of Mr. Geo. B. Windeler, dated Aug. 16, remarks: "There have been but slight fluctuations this month in the public sales of fine Wools, the progressing inferior flocks have hardly attracted so much competition lastly as during the opening week; altogether, quotations have been rather in favor of buyers. Including to-day's catalogue, 62,917 bales have been sold, comprised of 16,674 bales Port Phillip, 16,975 do. Sydney, 6,193 do. Adelaide, 6,113 do. New-Zealand, 238 do. German, 136 do. Buenos Ayres, 9,836 do. Cape, and 485 do. sundries. The sales fixed for the 20th inst. and 23 prox. having been withdrawn, this series will terminate on the last day of this month. Toward the next series in October about 14,000 bales have arrived to this date. In the market for Domestic Wools there appears to be, likewise, a momentary depression; prices are quoted with 1½@2½ ⅌ lb reduction, as compared with the close of last month. A public sale is announced to take place at Rotterdam on the 15th prox., comprised of 1,650 bales Sydney, 900 Cape, 250 do. Buenos Ayres, and 150 do. Odessa scoured; also, in Antwerp a public sale of Buenos Ayres Wool is anticipated early in September." The stock of California is augmenting, but the receipts of other descriptions are moderate, and there is no disposition to press sales unless at full former rates; sales of 125,000 ℔. Domestic Fleece at 34@38c. for common to full blood, chiefly at 45@50c. for de laine and clothing quality, and some choice lots for Domestic purposes at 57½@61½c.; also, 350 bales medium to fine California at 18@20c., as to quality, and 150 bales Peruvian at 26c., 6 mos.
