Blood Food.—Dr. BRONSON having been so far reduced by consumption as to be considered beyond all hope of recovery by the most eminent of the medical profession, and also by himself—a regular physician of twenty years practice—as the last resort, conceived the idea of ANALYZING THE BLOOD, and applying the subject of physiology to the more immediate connection, and effect of the state of the blood upon the health and system. The result has been the production of this BLOOD FOOD, from the use of which Dr. BRONSON was restored to perfect health. Within six months after its introduction, over two thousand consumptives were effectually cured by it. If you have any complaints of a consumptive tendency, Cough, Cold, Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, or pain in the Side, lose no time in procuring a bottle of the BLOOD FOOD. Taken by drops. Price $1 per bottle.

Third Assembly District.
No. 458 BROOME-ST., Oct. 28, 1859.
GENTLEMEN: Having just returned, after a short absence from the city, I find that during my stay, three several bodies have nominated me as a candidate for Assembly. It had been my determination, for private reasons to keep out of politics, but my personal friends seem to think that it would be ungenerous in me to decline so marked a favor. Therefore I should be pleased to meet the Nominating Committees at the Fifth Ward Museum Hotel, on SATURDAY EVENING, Oct. 29, at 8 o'clock.
Your obedient servant. H. N. WILD.

OFFICE OF THE AMERICAN EXCHANGE FIRE INS. CO., No. 128 Broadway, New-York, Oct. 24, 1859.

TIMOTHY TITCOMB'S NEW BOOK.
GOLD-FOIL
HAMMERED FROM POPULAR PROVERBS.
By TIMOTHY TITCOMB.
1 vol. 12mo., about 350 pages. $1.
The same, in full gilt, $1 50.
In this book, the author has taken the nuggets of pure gold from the proverbs of the people—the truths verified by human experience—and hammered them into foil, revealing the extent of their truthfulness and value, and adapting them to the purposes of the life of the present age. It is, in fact, a volume FOR the People, by one OF the People, the People themselves furnishing the texts. The author betrays in this, as in all his preceding works, a rare knowledge of human nature, a thorough apprehension of the wants of the every day life of the world, a genuine sympathy with the struggles, doubts, and trials of the Christian life, and a faith in humanity that is alike inspiring to him and his reader. The book should find entrance and welcome into every household in the country.

ATTENTION GERMANS!
THE PUBLISHER OF THE
NEW-YORK HUMORIST
(a German Weekly Paper, admitted to be one of the best published in the United States) is happy in being able to announce to the German public that he has succeeded in securing the services of DR. J. H. D. SEMME, to write exclusively (in the United States) for his paper; and who, accordingly, will commence his first (of a series)—an intensely exciting Romance: THE REVOLUTION OF BERLIN, 1848—in the issue of November 5, 1859.
Dr. Semme is well known as the most celebrated of German Romance Writers, and the readers of THE HUMORIST may expect a succession of rare treats; no better evidence of which is needed than the fact that since Dr. Semme has been a contributor to the "Gartenlaube" its circulation has rapidly run up from 50,000 to 90,000.
To do justice to the Romance, we have engaged one of the best Artists in the city to worthily Illustrate it.
The subscription price is $3 per annum, $1 50 for six months, payable in advance.
To prevent disappointment, we beg orders to be sent in early, that we may strike off the necessary copies.
Letters covering subscription, please address to PUBLISHER N. Y. HUMORIST,
Box No. 4,035, or
No. 72½ Chatham-st.,
New-York.
City subscribers will be served by our carriers.
News Agents will please send their orders to J. WICK, General Agent, Box No. 3,698 New-York.

HOW THEY DIFFER!
The great merits of Mrs. Stowe's new book,
THE MINISTER'S WOOING,
as a book of art, are admitted by all. There is some difference of opinion, however, upon its orthodoxy, among orthodox editors.
Says The New-York Observer:
"It is well fitted to bring into contempt the old-fashioned doctrine of the gospel, and is therefore hailed with great satisfaction by the enemies of the truth. The Christian Register, the Unitarian paper of Boston, and the bitterest of that school, says of this last work of Mrs. Stowe, 'that it will do more to break down orthodoxy, than all the direct efforts of our Unitarian pulpits and press could possibly accomplish.'
"We do not doubt it. And it is for a grief and lamentation that professedly religious and orthodox papers will aid in sounding the praises of a book that is charged with deadly poison, and aimed with deadly intent against the most sacred truths of God's holy word."
Per contra, says The New-York Evangelist:
"Nowhere have we met with pictures of New-England life so exquisite—and yet so true—of its calm, still beauty; of the house hold piety, the tender love, that beautify and bless its homes. How noble is the portrait of Hopkins, the simple, grand old man—so grave and silent, yet so gentle and so good.
"We observe that several of our religious journals have attacked 'The Minister's Wooing' quite fiercely, on account of a supposed theological taint in one passage, where Mrs. Marvyn, in her despair at the supposed loss of her son at sea, breaks forth into bitter exclamations at the thought that he may have made also eternal shipwreck. This, they think, is designed to insinuate a doubt of future punishment. But it seems to us rather harsh judgment, to measure words placed in the mouth of one of the characters of a story as rigidly as if they were deliberate opinions avowed and defended in a Theological Treatise. It is not at all in that light that we look upon this book, but as a simple tale of religious faith and tender, trembling love—a tale as sweetly pure as that of Ruth, and as such, we pronounce it one of the most exquisite creations ever woven out of the finest tissues of a woman's heart and brain."
"WHO SHALL DECIDE WHEN DOCTORS DISAGREE."
The Publishers appeal to the people, who in less than a fortnight have ordered 20,000 COPIES.
