drew's Society, and Willy Wallack of the German Society, Directors. The permanent office of the Board will be at No. 86 Greenwich street, where applications for advice will be received and attended to promptly. To enable all the Benevolent Societies to join this organization, the Board adjourned to meet at the same place on Saturday evening, Feb. 14, at 8 o'clock.

DIED OF HIS WOUNDS.—Coroner Schirmer held an inquest yesterday on the body of Thomas Clare, who died at the New-York Hospital on Sunday morning. The deceased was admitted to the Hospital on Tuesday last, suffering from a stab in the thigh which had been inflicted by John Howe. The evidence taken by the Coroner, showed that on Tuesday morning Howe was found on the stairway of house No. 143 Leonard street, where deceased formerly resided, in a state of intoxication. Clare, being a friend of Howe's, assisted the latter up stairs to his room. Howe soon became quarrelsome, and commenced flourishing a dirk-knife, which Clare and his wife undertook to take from him. While doing so, Clare was wounded in the thigh, and was subsequently conveyed to the Hospital. Howe was arrested and committed to the Tombs, where he has since been deceased. Dr. Fisher made a post mortem examination, and found that deceased was suffering from nervous excitement and general prostration, in addition to his wound, and stated that during the sickness preceding his death he had suffered from an attack of delirium tremens. The Jury found that deceased came to his death in consequence of prostration and delirium tremens, superinduced by a stab received at the hands of John Howe, Jan. 3. The prisoner, who is a seaman by occupation, stated that he did not wound Clare intentionally. Howe was recommitted to the Tombs to await the action of the Grand Jury. The deceased was a native of Ireland, 35 years of age.

HOMICIDE IN JANE STREET.—On the night of the 2d inst. a fight occurred in the grocery store of John Hollins, No. 95 Jane street, in which Stephen Kennedy and several others took part. G. W. Church, a married man living over the grocery, came down stairs to see what the trouble was, and soon became involved in the affray. The belligerent parties found their way into the street, where the fight was continued. During the melée Church was struck over the head with a cart rung, and fell senseless to the pavement. His injuries were not considered dangerous, and the occurrence was not made public. Church gradually grew worse, however, and on Sunday night last died from the effects of the blow received during the fight. Kennedy was arrested on suspicion of having struck the blow which ended so fatally, but the evidence was not sufficiently strong to warrant his being held. Coroner Jackman commenced an investigation of the causes of death, and Drs. Beach and Edwards made a post-mortem examination of the body, which disclosed the fact that deceased came to his death from compression of the brain caused by a fracture of the skull, the result of the blow with the cart rung. The evidence taken by the Coroner implicated a man named Martin Toole in the affray, and the police are now looking for him, he having been missing since the death of Mr. Church. The Coroner's investigation will be concluded this morning. The deceased was a native of this State, 38 years of age, and a very respectable man. He leaves a wife and four children.

A SAD CHAPTER IN SOCIAL LIFE.—A painful circumstance, illustrative of life in California, occurred yesterday (Dec. 13). Among the passengers by the mail steamer Orizaba was Mrs. Nathan Moser, who came in search of her husband. She brought letters from Richard Busteed, esq., of New-York, to Messrs. D. P. & L. Barstow, lawyers of this city, to the effect that Mr. Moser had left New-York for California several months ago, since when nothing had been heard from him by his wife or friends. Mail after mail passed by, and, after waiting in vain to gain intelligence of the absent one, the faithful wife determined to go herself in search of her husband, but with secret misgivings that some calamity had befallen him. She applied, therefore, to Mr. Busteed, who made such legal arrangements for her, as were necessary, and started with the introductory letter above mentioned.

Mr. Busteed also wrote a private letter to Messrs. Barstow, with full details of the matter, inclosing beside one for Mr. Moser. On the arrival of the lady, she communicated with Messrs. B., who immediately promised to make inquiries for her husband, giving her assurances that they should not be long in ascertaining as to his whereabouts, if the thing was possible. Upon investigation, these gentlemen learned that the missing man was the one mentioned in the Sacramento papers, as having killed himself a few nights since, and the inquest in relation to which the papers contained on Thursday last. It appears that Mr. Moser arrived here several months since, on the Golden Age, and, during the passage, was robbed of several gold watches and other valuables.

This ill luck continued after his arrival in this city and in Sacramento; and being of a depponding turn of mind, he was at length driven to suicide. This act he committed by lying down and placing the muzzle of a gun against his head, and pulling the trigger with his foot. He was instantly killed. Mr. Barstow immediately repaired to the room of the wife and imparted the news to her in the most delicate and gradual manner possible. Despite the misgivings which had filled her mind, the intelligence was a dreadful shock to the unhappy lady. It was a sad termination to the pleasant expectations she had indulged of being again united to her husband. Her arrival in California was about twenty-four hours after the inquest upon the body. BROOKLYN ITEMS.

The Draytons perform two of their charming Parlor Operas this evening at the Polytechnic Institute—"Nothing Venture Nothing Have," and "Better Late than Never." Señor Oliveira will also appear and perform on his violin.

DR. SCUDDER IN BROOKLYN.—This evening Dr Scudder gives his first lecture in Adelphi Hall, for the benefit of the Ladies' Union Relief Association. His first lecture at the Tabernacle, last evening, drew an overflowing house.

THE PECK SLIP FERRY COMPANY.—This Company have recently increased their capital to $300,000 and a large proportion of the increased stock has already been taken.

PRESENTATION.—On Sunday night the congregation of the Reformed Dutch Church in Fourth street presented their pastor, Rev. Dr. Porter, with a purse, containing seven hundred dollars. He has been the pastor of that church for ten years.

THE STATION-HOUSES.—During the late severe cold, and wet weather the cells of the Fifth Precinct Station-House have been in a dangerous condition for the confinement of prisoners. It required all the care of the officers in charge during the past two weeks to prevent the prisoners from freezing, and now the cells are so damp and unwholesome as to be unfit for use. No accommodation is to be had, either, in the Stations of the Fifth and Sixth Precincts, for lodgers, except in the cells. Appropriations have been made for a new Station for each of these Precincts: but no definite step have yet been taken to procure them.

THE LATE EXPLOSION IN CARROLL STREET.—An inquest was to have been held yesterday, upon the body of Charles Hallenback, who was killed by an explosion in the percussion cap factory of Dr. Goldmark, at the foot of Carroll street, on Saturday last, but in consequence of the absence of several jurors the investigation was adjourned until Tuesday (to-day), at 2 o'clock p. m.

DIED IN JAIL.—Coroner Horton held an inquest yesterday upon the body of John Scott, who died in jail of delirium tremens. The deceased had been committed for drunkenness by Justice Cornwell on Saturday. He was 34 years of age, and without family. He resided in New-York. The body was removed to the Dead House for reclamation by his friends.

APPROPRIATING CHRISTMAS TREES.—A man named Wm B. Francis, residing in the town of Gravesend, was brought before Justice Blackly yesterday, on the charge of cutting pine tree tops in the woods of William Bennett, previous to 25th December last. The tops were disposed of, as alleged, for Christmas trees. Their value was stated to be about $200. The defendant says that he obtained permission of Mr. Bennett to cut the wood, which complainant denied. The defendant was held in $1,000 bail to await trial before the Court of Sessions.

PASSING COUNTERFEIT MONEY.—A young man named Samuel Worden was committed by Justice Cornwell yesterday on the charge of passing counterfeit $2 bills on the Freehold (N. J.) Banking Company.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT—Jan. 9.—Before Judge BETTS.

THE SLAVER EMILY.

The suit to condemn the brig Emily, on the ground that she was a slaver, was commenced to-day. It will be remembered that the vessel was seized by the United States sloop-of-war, Portsmouth, on the coast of Africa, under suspicious circumstances. Lieut. Stevens, who brought her home, was examined as a witness, and he related substantially the same story as published at the time the vessel was brought into this port.

COURT OF OYER AND TERMINER—Jan. 9.—Before Justice INGRAHAM.

THE FOURTEENTH-STREET POISONING CASE.

Ex-Judge O'Connor, in behalf of Margaret Burke, who is charged with having poisoned the family of Mrs. Beetham and Mr. Fayette Robinson, in Fourteenth street, moved for the prisoner's discharge, on the ground that she had been confined in prison for the last ten months. The statute provides that unless a prisoner is tried within ten terms after an indictment has been found, he shall be discharged, unless good grounds are shown for the delay. In this case the District-Attorney stated that the delay had been occasioned by the absence of material witnesses, but that he would try the case at this term or at the commencement of the next. The Court denied the motion, but with liberty to renew at the end of the term.

NOLLE PROSEQUI.

In the case of Andrew Dwight, charged with making fraudulent conveyances, the District-Attorney asked leave to enter a nolle prosequi. The District-Attorney stated that the matter grew out of a dispute between parties in regard to a Western railroad, and he was convinced that the indictment should not have been found.

The Judge directed that the leave applied for be granted.

CASE OF JAMES SHEPHARD.

In the case of James Shephard, convicted of arson and sentenced to be hanged, and subsequently granted a new trial by the Court of Appeals, Mr. Ashmead, counsel for the prisoner, stated that the indictment had been removed by the District-Attorney from the Court of Sessions to the Court of Oyer and Terminer, without giving him notice of it. He doubted the right or power of the District-Attorney to remove an indictment in this manner at his discretion. The prisoner had been confined in prison two years and six months, and the facts put in proof would hardly be sufficient for a Court to put to a Jury to pass upon.

The District-Attorney replied that he had merely exercised a power provided by statute.

After some further argument, the Judge reserved his decision.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—SPECIAL TERM—Jan. 9.—Before Judge HILTON.

THE LIQUOR SUITS.

About one hundred of the suits against liquor dealers for violation of the Metropolitan Police law, in regard to selling liquor on Sunday, were on the Calendar to-day. On the first being called the whole of them were reserved, to await the decision of the General Term on the cases already tried.

SUPREME COURT—CHAMBERS—Jan.—9.—Before Justice LEONARD.

THE TILLOU FORGERY CASE.

The People agt. George Bowne.

In this case the counsel for the defendant moved to have the case sent from the Court of Sessions to the Oyer and Terminer, on the ground that an impartial trial could not be had. The prisoner was convicted a few months ago, in the Court of Sessions, on a charge of forging the name of Ex-Recorder Tillou to a check, upon which the prisoner, it was alleged, obtained the money. The case was taken to the Supreme Court, General Term, which reversed the judgment, and ordered a new trial. This trial the prisoner desired to have in the Oyer and Terminer.

After hearing the District Attorney in opposition, the Court denied the motion.

John H. Anthon for motion; Mr. Sedgwick opposed.

Before Justice SUTHERLAND.

Swain agt. Hodges—Order settled.

SPECIAL TERM—Jan. 9—Before Justice INGRAHAM.—DECISIONS.

David Banks, jr., et al. agt. Oliver L. Barbour et al.—Complaint dismissed, without prejudice to right of plaintiffs to bring an action for damages, and without costs.

Devlin agt. Brady.—Motion for a new trial denied, with $10 costs.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS—Jan. 9.—Before City Judge RUSSELL.

The greatest part of the morning was spent in the trial of Stephen Sullivan and Patrick Muldoon, for passing counterfeit $2 bills on the Phillipsburg Bank of New-Jersey, upon Patrick Lonran the keeper of a porter-house at No. 509 Third avenue and others. Sullivan, it appears, gave the bills to Muldoon, who, not knowing that they were counterfeits, passed them off for some beer in treating Sullivan. Muldoon is an employee of the Second avenue Railroad Company, and was rewarded for sentence. Sullivan says he is a peddler. He was sentenced for a term of five years and three months in the State Prison.

Ellen Schreiber pleaded guilty to shoplifting on the 28th Nov., when she was seen to drop $45 worth of silk at A. T. Stewart's, through an opening in her dress, into a bag suspended beneath. She was remanded until Tuesday.

G. E. Perrin, pleaded guilty of committing an assault upon Geo. A. Bogle, a dog German, by coming behind and beating him on the head. Remanded.

Louis Borman was tried and convicted of an assault upon Francis Foldmen on the 18th July. Remanded.

Edward Morris was tried for receiving some coats which had been stolen by John Rezan from the Wardrobe of Joseph McCorkle, No. 34 Washington-square on the 27th of May. He was acquitted.

Wm. H. German, a Sixth-avenue car-driver, was convicted of an assault on Andrew Irving on the 26th November, stabbing him in the left side. It was shown that Irving assaulted German first, and that the act of stabbing him was committed in self-defence. The prisoner was discharged.

Louis Cameron, charged with grand larceny, was tried and acquitted, and James McNamee, for rioting illegally a year ago in the Fourteenth Ward, was also acquitted. Adjourned.

MONDAY, Jan. 9—P. M.

In opening transactions at the Stock Board to-day there was considerable firmness, and the impression prevailed that there might be a small rally. As the call proceeded, however, the bears showed more disposition to sell, and the buoyancy was lost. The continued stringency in money, and the undercurrent of apprehension that it may increase, had the effect not only to throw cash stock on the market but to deter buyers, excepting to cover short contracts. The quantity of the various stocks on the street is unusually large, and the public do not appear disposed to relieve the brokers, even at the present comparatively low prices. The condition of our political affairs is undoubtedly having more influence upon the Stock market than appears upon the surface, leaving it more exclusively than it would be in a more settled state of things, to the daily contests between the bear and bull jobbers. The principal buyers to-day were the shorts, and it is supposed that the short interest in the street is now smaller than for some weeks. Central was in good demand, and fairly steady until the Second Board, when it sold down to 73½. Reading opened at 41½, but a rumor being circulated that the transfer books were to be removed from this city, the stock came out freely, and after the Board considerable sales were made at 41. A proposition to remove the books has been before the Directors, and was defeated by two votes. The further consideration of it has been postponed till the meeting of the new Board. The Western shares were moderately active, and without important change, closing a trifle below Saturday's prices. Illinois Central was more active than usual, under favorable advices from London, but closed heavy. The advices by the Arabia are to the effect that, in the aggregate 20,169 of the shares of the Illinois Central had been paid in full, chiefly by turning in the Debentures and Freeland Bonds of the Company—$280,000 of the Debentures and $462,000 of the Freeland Bonds. These, with the Freeland Bonds canceled in the Land Department, amounting to $182,000, have discharged $644,000 of the Freeland debt. Erie is without activity. The advices from London are very favorable to the prospects of the new scheme of organization. A large number of "seconds" are coming in. Panama was in fair demand and steady. In the Bond market quotations were heavy. The bears made a sharp attack upon Missouri 6s which sold down to 79½, sellers' options, being pressed on the market. Railroad bonds were quiet, and the Erie issues lower excepting Seconds. Government 5s, 1865, sold below par, and those of 1874, which were subscribed for at 1 to 3 ₱ cent prem., sold at ¼ ₱ cent prem. At the close the market was dull but steady at the annexed quotations: Virginia 6s, 90½@90¾; Missouri 6s, 79½@79¾; Canton Co., 16½@17; Cumberland Coal Co., 15½@16; Pacific Mail, 75½@75¾; New-York Central Railroad, 73½@73¾; Erie Railroad, 8½@8¾; Hudson River Railroad, 42½@42¾; Harlem Railroad, 9@9½; do Preferred, 33½@34; Reading Railroad, 41@41½; Michigan Central Railroad, 37½@37¾; Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana, 6½@6¾; do. Guaranteed, 16½@16¾; Panama Railroad, 127½@127¾; Illinois Central Railroad, 57½@58; Galena and Chicago Railroad, 62½@63¾; Cleveland and Toledo Railroad, 20@20½; Chicago and Rock Island Railroad, 62½@62¾; Illinois Central 7s, 86@86¼.

In foreign bills there is but little doing, and rates are heavy. Sterling is 108@109 nominally, but little business is being done above 108¾. Francs 5.22½@5.18¾.

Freights—To Liverpool: 350 bales Cotton at 7-32@3-16d.; 300 boxes Cheese at 27s. 6d.; 30 boxes Bacon at 26s.; 1,000 Salted Hides on private terms. To London: 600 tcs. Beef at 5s. @5s. 6d.; 150 bbls. Pork at 3s. 6d.; 50 boxes Bacon at 25s. A bark and a schooner to Aspinwall, with coal, at $4 50. A vessel of 150,000 feet capacity from Wilmington to Curacoa, with lumber at $10 ₱ M. The bark Kate Lincoln, 263 tuns, and the brig War Eagle, 250 tuns, have been sold on private terms.

The business of the Sub-Treasury was: Receipts, $172,247 59—for Customs, $100,000; Payments, $195,150 34; California drafts, $33,000; Balance, $7,714,162 58.

Annexed are the earnings of the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railroad in December:

	1859.	1858.
Freight	$45,156 65	$40,334 83
Passengers	14,178 66	20,696 58
Mails	1,335 41	2,384 41
Total	$58,170 12	$59,415 82

The business of the Clearing-House to-day was $26,743,547. The East River Fire Insurance Company has declared a dividend of 6 per cent, payable on demand. The Union Dime Savings Institution will pay the usual interest dividend of 6 per cent, on sums under $500, and 5 per cent on sums above $500. Thos. Monahan, esq., at present Vice-President of the Fulton Bank, has been elected President, in place of J. Kernochan, esq., resigned. The failure of Mr Rufus Story, wholesale grocer, long established in business, is announced. He is understood to have experienced large losses by speculations in spices. There is a moderate demand for the new issue of 6 per cent Treasury Notes at 1-10 per cent prem.; those bearing 5½ per cent interest have been sold at ¼ ₱ cent discount. Messrs. Whitehouse, Son & Morrison, advertise in another column to buy New-York city stocks.

The following gentlemen were elected Directors of the Manhattan Gas Company to-day: M. Taylor, H. Young, John Alstyne, John A. Robinson, W. H. Smith, John R. Ludlow, U. J. Smith, John J. Phelps, Charles Roome, John J. Cisco, Floyd Smith, Wm. V. Brady, Henry A. Hurlbut, B. B. Sherman, Benjamin W. Bonny.

We see no symptoms yet of the relief in the Money market which, according to some of our cotemporaries, we were to have immediately after the 1st inst. Among the stock houses there is somewhat less difficulty in supplying wants, but the pressure is now extending to the mercantile classes. The Banks having lost specie largely have found it necessary to contract their loans which has thrown a larger amount than usual of paper into the street for sale at a time when the demand has sensibly decreased. The consequence has been considerable difficulty in passing paper, and although the rates for four and six months gilt-edged are nominally 7@8 ₱ cent, yet we have heard of very prominent names being sold to-day at 9@10 ₱ cent. Demand loans are 7 ₱ cent, and not easy to obtain, on favorite collateraln.

John McClave has sold 2 lots on the south-east corner of 145th-st. and 8th-av., running 49 feet 11 in. on 8th-av., and 100 feet deep, for $1,700; 145th-st. is 100 feet wide. Mess
