FINANCES OF OTHER CITIES.—Controller Hawes is almost daily receiving the annual reports, containing the financial transactions of other cities throughout the country, and of important foreign cities, having taken special pains to collect as large a library of them as possible from the use of his Department. Foreign consuls have been requested to assist him in this matter, and have in many cases responded. An interesting library of reference, which has already attained respectable proportions, is thus gradually being built up, and will soon be highly prized by the student of municipal government. The documents are available to any person having occasion to refer to them, upon calling at the Controller's office.

T. F. MEAGHER LITERARY UNION.—A society of young men, under the above name, gave their first annual exhibition last night at Clinton Hall, Mr. John McGrath in the chair. The Club numbers quite a respectable body of members and meets on Tuesday evening of each week at No. 435 Fourth avenue, for debating and general literary cultivation. Meagher's "Vindication from Treason" and "Spirit of the North," the dying speech of Robert Emmet, and other pieces of a similar character, were recited in a creditable manner.

THE ELEVENTH WARD REPUBLICANS.—Last evening, the Eleventh Ward Campaign Club met at Logar's Hall, No. 435 Houston street, Hamilton Wade, President of the Club, in the chair. A number of new members were added to the roll. Several of the members engaged in an earnest conversation upon the work of the campaign, evincing a strong determination to make the most persistent efforts to secure the success of the Republican ticket when nominated.

FIRE IN EAST THIRTY-FIFTH STREET.—About 8 o'clock last night a fire occurred in the basement of the building No. 86 East Thirty fifth street, owned by Mrs. Martha A. Kennedy of Newark, N. J., but being discovered at an early moment, the flames were extinguished before they had made much progress. The fire was the result of inattention on the part of a boy who had been left in charge of the building. It appears that the lad had kindled a large fire in the furnace used for heating the building, and after giving it full draft, had gone out, leaving the heating apparatus to take care of itself. The building was damaged to the amount of about $100. Fully insured in city companies.

FATAL FALL.—Yesterday morning an Irishwoman, 50 years of age, was killed by falling down stairs on the steamship Vigo, just arrived from Queenstown. She was attempting to go up to the main deck when she lost her footing and fell to the bottom, killing herself almost instantly. Coroner Jackman held an inquest on the body.

BROOKLYN ITEMS.

IMPROVEMENTS AT HUNTER'S POINT.—Extensive improvements have been commenced at Hunter's Point for the accommodation of the business of the Long Island Railroad, which is to terminate there. About 10 acres of land are to be made by filling in, upon which are to be erected car-houses, engine-houses, machine shops, and a depot.

THE FINAL MEETING OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.—The last yearly meeting of the Board of Supervisors was held at the Jail, in Raymond street, on Tuesday evening, and the usual resolutions complimentary to the presiding officer and Clerk were unanimously adopted. A communication from Coroner Herton was submitted calling attention to the miserable little shed at the foot of Tillary street, now used as a Dead House, but which is altogether unfitted to the purpose for which it is used. The place is not only too small, but is so ly out of order, and so old and dilapidated that it would be a waste of money to repair it. As it is the only place provided for the use of coroner's dead, and for making post-mortem examinations on the bodies of unclaimed strangers some decent house suitable for the purpose should be secured as speedily as possible. The subject was laid upon the table, to be acted upon by the new Board.

The salary of Henry E. Cadley, Clerk in the Surrogate's office, was fixed at $800 per annum. A report was submitted stating that 158 volumes had recently been added to the Lunatic Asylum Library by donations and purchase, making altogether 240 volumes. A resolution was adopted by which the county Treasurer is directed to notify the Board of Excise Commissioners that the amount received for licenses in 1859 has not been transferred to the county, and in case the amount is not so transferred that the Treasurer be authorized to commence a suit against the Commissioners for the recovery of the same. The minutes of the Board of Supervisors were directed to be bound, when the Board adjourned sine die.

DEATH FROM SCALDS.—Coroner Horton held an inquest yesterday, upon the body of a child of Mrs. Mortah Morrow, of No. 11 Jay street, which died of scalds, caused by pulling a bowl of hot soup from the table, the contents of which fell upon its person. A verdict in accordance was rendered.

ADMITTED TO PROBATE.—The Surrogate yesterday admitted the will of the late Wm J. Potts to probate, and directed that letters testamentary issue to the executors named therein. The eldest daughter is thereby cut off—the youngest child being entitled to all the property.

SERIOUS BURNING ACCIDENT.—A little girl named Louisa Hoffman, whose parents reside in South Fourth street, near Sixth, E. D., yesterday, while playing around a bonfire, accidentally caught her clothes on fire, and was so severely burned that her recovery is doubtful.

ALLEGED ATTEMPTED RAPE.—A man named Paul McDermott, was yesterday held for trial by Justice Ryder of the Eastern District, on a charge of having attempted to commit a rape upon a little girl 10 years of age, daughter of Charles Brammer, residing at the corner of Graham avenue and Powers street.

NOT SO.—A very pathetic story has been related of a young man who lost all his money by gambling on board the steamer Empire State between New-York and Fall River, and then drowning himself by jumping from the boat. It was a barrel that fell overboard, and not a man. So says The Norwich Bulletin.

NEW-JERSEY ITEMS.

SUPPOSED SUICIDE BY SHOOTING.—The body of an unknown man, apparently a German, about 30 years of age, was found yesterday afternoon lying at the foot of the hill leading to West Hoboken, under circumstances which leads to the supposition that he had committed suicide by shooting. Upon examination it was found that a bullet had entered the mouth, and passed out at the back of the head. Deceased was about 5 feet 6 inches in hight, had black hair, heavy dark sandy whiskers and moustaches, and dark blue eyes. He had on a dark brown frock coat, black vest, light cassimere pants, and a pair of boots with a hole cut on the side of one of the instepe. On his person was found powder and bullets, a silver watch, two brass and three iron keys, and a blue pocket handkerchief, with white spots. An inquest will be held to-day.

THE HUDSON COUNTY DRY DOCK COMPANY.—The Hudson County Dry Dock Company have nearly completed their dry dock, and intend to put it in operation about the middle of May. They have commenced the erection of a ship house at the foot of Greene street, Jersey City, 45 by 80 feet, and three stories in hight. The company are also about to lay the keel of a three-masted schooner of 320 tuns, to be completed by the 1st of September.

A NEW CHURCH.—The Hudson City Baptist Society of Bergen, are about to erect a Church edifice on Madison avenue and Centre place, on the Jackson estate. It is to be built of brick, with stone trimmings; the house of worship will be 56 by 80 feet, with a lecture room on the rear, 28 by 68 feet in size. The steeple will be 160 feet in hight. The edifice is expected to be completed early next Winter, and will cost about $20,000.

SUDDEN DEATH.—About 9 o'clock last evening George Tebbles, residing at No 266 Canal street, Jersey City, was found by Officer Robbins on the steps of Mathew Doyle's porter house, No. 199 Green street, as was supposed, in a fit of intoxication. The officer rabbed him, and he walked a short distance, when he fell, complaining of being very cold. He was placed in a wagon, and conveyed to the Station-House, where, upon removing him from the wagon, he was found to be dead. It was subsequently ascertained that he was not intoxicated, but had been in the stock in the morning, since which time he had been wandering about the city. Coroner Gaffney impanneled a Jury who, after viewing the body, adjourned until this evening at 7½ o'clock. Meantime Drs. Quider and Morris will make a post-mortem examination. The deceased leaves a wife and two children.

MARINE AFFAIRS.

The brig Baltimore, Capt. Potter, arrived to-day from St. Marks, St. Domingo, with advices to April 16. Capt. P. reports that on the 8th inst. a very heavy shock of an earthquake was felt at that place. Several buildings were thrown down, and considerable other damage done in different parts of the town. Up to the 12th inst. several slight shocks had occurred, which so alarmed the inhabitants that they abandoned the houses and slept in the streets. It was supposed that a large amount of damage was sustained in other parts of the island. The shocks were felt on board of the vessels lying in the harbor, causing their masts to shake violently, etc.

MISSING SHIP ST. PATRICK—HER PROBABLE DESTRUCTION BY FIRE.

The New-Orleans Picayune of the 18th inst. says:

Much anxiety has been felt in our city for some time past in reference to the ship St. Patrick, which left this port about 1st December last, bound to Liverpool with a cargo of cotton, but has not since been heard of. We have, therefore, obtained from Capt. Doyle of ship Marathon, as also from Capt. Crockett of bark Oraville, which left this port about the same time as the St. Patrick, the following reports, which it is to be hoped may lead to some more certain knowledge as to the probable fate of the missing vessel and her crew. Capt. Doyle of the ship Marathon states that on a voyage from this port to Havre on the 29th of December last, at 2 a. m., in lat. 38, lon. 46, he came up with a large ship laden with cotton, on fire, with all the masts gone, bowsprit and jibboom standing, mizzenmast towing over the stern by the rigging, the ship heading before the wind and sea, and in one mass of fire from stem to stern, all the top work and upper deck burned off.

After lying by and around the wreck to be fully satisfied that there could be no living being on board, no boats holding on to leeward, as was thought might be the case, bore up and proceed on her voyage, leaving the ship to her fate, and with a sad and painful uncertainty as to what was or would be the fate of the unfortunate crew, even if they had got clear of the wreck in the boats. Capt. Crockett of bark Oraville, on a voyage from the port of Corunna, states that in about the same longitude and latitude, on the 29th December last, at 10 p. m., or 20 hours after the Marathon passed, he saw a vessel on fire—changed his course and went as near the wreck as possible. The wind and sea were very high, and being under close-reefed topsails, passed near enough to be satisfied there was no one on board. The wreck was burned to the water's edge, and the sea breaking overit so as to deaden the fire, which at intervals, however, continued to break out in a large blaze.

Capt. C. kept his vessel before the wind for some time, thinking there might be some boats from the wreck to leeward. He also says it is probable the vessel might have been struck by lightning, as he had experienced heavy lightning and thunder for two or three days previous and at the time of passing the wreck. The following is a list of the officers and missing crew of the St. Patrick: Capt. Washburn Files, wife, and son, of Thomaston, Me.; Wm. Grant, first officer, of Rockland, Me.; Charles Spear, second officer, do.; Daniel Rogers, steward, unknown; Gabriel Rogers, cook, of Boston; Wm. Griffith, Peter Callann, John Bacane, Antoni Tupa, Geo. Robinson, John Cadd, Geo. Harris, Robt. Fry, Phinnies Patrick, Henry Baker, John Money, Joseph Morris, John Davis, and Charles Cook, seamen, all unknown; carpenter, name unknown.

NAVAL INTELLIGENCE.

The Court Martial recently held at Norfolk, Va., on gunner William Maguire, U. S. Navy, acquitted him. Fifty-one ship carpenters and thirteen laborers were discharged from the Norfolk Navy Yard, on Saturday last. The steamer Decotah at Norfolk, will soon be ready for sea, her destination will be the Coast of Brazil. The new war steamer Seminole, heretofore mentioned, will leave Pensacola in a few days on a trial trip to Norfolk, Va. The trial of the engines of the new steamer Pawnee, took place yesterday, along side of the wharf at the Philadelphia Navy Yard. The engines proved very satisfactory to all concerned.

Advices from Monte Video state that the members of Capt. Pages exploring expedition were all in good health and progressing well. The U. S. sidewheel steamer Pulaski, and frigate Congress, were at Monte Video on the 26th February, all well. The U. S. steam gun boat Mohawk, Capt. Craven commanding, was at Sagua la Grande on the 19th ult., all well; the Mohawk is in excellent order, having recently been overhauled at Key West. The following U. S. vessels were at Vera Cruz, on the 15th ult.: Corvette Preble, Saratoga, and Brooklyn, all well.

Nothing of importance is transpiring in the Navy Yard at present, and but a very few of the old hands are retained on the books. The stone ways of the Western Ship-House are progressing slowly; the cooperage, carpenter, and blacksmith departments are quite deserted. The new Marine Barracks are progressing, and will be ready for occupation by next Fall. The Navy Yard Barracks are garrisoned by about eighty rank and file, three lieutenants, and one captain. The new marine uniform, recently approved by the Secretary of the Navy, will be served out by the first of May at all the marine barracks in the United States. There are about 300 men on board of the old receiving ship North Carolina. It is suggested that one of the "cable ships," the Susquehanna, will be commissioned and dispatched to China forthwith. We have only three small vessels at present in the East Indian, China, and Japan seas. There are three men of war expected here about the 15th of next month—the Roanoke from Aspinwall, with the Japanese Embassy on board, and the brigs Perry and Bainbridge from the coast of Brazil. The United States steamship Pocahontas was at Key West on the 10th inst., all well. The Pocahontas is a new vessel, and has proved satisfactory in every respect. The United States steam frigate Powhatan will undergo some slight repairs at the San Francisco Navy Yard before she leaves with the Japanese Commissioners for Panama, en route for Washington.

SHIP BUILDING AT GREEN POINT, BROOKLYN.

Mr. E. F. Williams has in frame at his yard in Green Point a pilot-boat of 95 tuns, for the Sandy Hook pilots, designed expressly for speed. He has also just laid the keel of a clipper-bark of about 350 tuns, for the Mexican trade. She is building for Mr F. Alexander of New-York.

Messrs Webb & Bell are building a small steamboat of 100 tuns, for the Harlem River.

Mr. E. Whitlock is also laying the keel of a small propeller of about 50 tuns.

N. Y. Wholesale Prices of Country Produce.

FOR THE WEEK ENDING WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25, 1860.
[Reported exclusively for THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, by DREW & FRENCH.]

NOTICE TO CONSIGNORS OF FARM PRODUCE.—Put everything in neat order. Mark plain indelible directions on every package, including weight, with tare, count, and name of articles. Also tuck a bill of particulars inside of one package marked "Bill," and always send one by mail, with notice when and how things are forwarded.

COMMISSIONS.—For selling Berries, Fruits &c., where packages are returned, and on small lots of stuff, 10 ℔ cent. Other Farm Produce generally, 5 ℔ cent.

GROWERS are for sales of good Produce, in good order, at wholesale, such as farmers realize, and not Jobbers' or Speculators' prices.

BUTTER—The weather is cool, and favors the maintenance of prices. The receipts have been moderate, and the shipping demand for near by Southern ports, has to say been good. Under these favoring circumstances, prices are barely sustained, and our figures below representing present transactions, should be received with caution. There seems good reason to expect a dull market to morrow and very possibly lower rates for new through the balance of the week. Strictly fine old Butter is nearly out of first hands, but there is some of that sort left, upon which the holders have advanced their rates, and some sales of the finest in Welsh tubs, have this day been made at 18c. On the lower grades of old there is no improvement, and it must are long disappear or depreciate into grease.

We are indebted to Mr Geo Corkburn, exporter, for the following statistics of the export of Butter to Great Britain:

Shipments of Butter in all of 1859.

To London	34,874 ℔	Nearly all grease.
To Liverpool	317,256 ℔

Total in 1860, to April 15	1,250,042 ℔

Equal to about 17,000 packages.

The recent large export of Butter was nearly all fair to good table quality; the season for shipments for the lowest grade or grease being now about commencing. The export of good Butter from this country to Great Britain, is entirely exceptional and not likely to again occur, unless induced by a similar low range of prices. This export demand has been quite a good-send, and has saved the Butter markets of this country from a much lower depth.

The extreme high price of Cheese now ruling, induces many Butter-makers to turn on to Cheese, but we think these changes will be nearly or quite balanced by the increase of dairies over new territory, too limited in the number of cows to each, for successful cheese-making. So that the production of Butter will not be much, if at all diminished.

There seems no reason to expect, with a favorable season, more than a moderate range of prices for Butter, but there is very little danger that the ensuing season will result as disastrously as the one just closed. We quote the present market as follows:

CHEESE.—The stock of old in first hands is exhausted, or nearly so. New Cheese arrives sparingly, and the week's end, well-made and well-cured sells readily at high figures. We are happy to report also that the proportion of poor new Cheese is thus far much smaller than in former years. Past experience, and the present extreme high rates as compared with Butter, seem to have put dairymen upon the right track at last, and we trust the skimming-pan will become an obsolete utensil so far as Cheese is concerned. Early-made Cheese, to secure the best prices, must retain all the cream, should be colored to the shade of rich Summer cream, and quickly and thoroughly cured in warm rooms. During a recent trip through Oswego, Jefferson and Lewis Counties, we have heard many anxious inquiries and speculations regarding the policy of contracting dairies for the season at the present high rates offered, or of holding on for the chances of the market. We abstain from all advice in a matter so purely speculative, but will name some considerations which we think ought to have weight with those interested.

If the large Cheese factors are contracting freely here at 8½@10c. for the season, according to quality, times of delivery, &c., it is clear that they anticipate a high market, and expect to make money by the operation. They made money handsomely on their contracts and purchases of last season, and they have every facility for understanding and estimating the present and prospective condition of the principal cheese markets of the world. If, however, as some have intimated on y a choice dairy here and there is taken, and others equally good avoided, an interior policy, looking to a general stay of proceedings on the part of dairymen for the present, may govern present action. It is very clear that the present extreme high prices have been induced by the very large English export demand; and the testimony is equally clear that this extra
