MAYOR'S OFFICE, New-York, July 24, 1860. TO CONTRACTORS.—PROPOSALS, inclosed in a sealed envelope, indorsed "Proposals for the Harlem Bridge," and with the name of the bidder written thereon, will be received at the office of the Mayor, at the City Hall of the City of New-York, until the 6th day of August, 1860, at noon on that day, when they will be opened at the Mayor's Office aforesaid, by the "Commissioners of Harlem Bridge," before a full Board, for the dredging, stone filling, piling, granite, rubble stone, cast iron cylinders and superstructure (each separately) for said bridge.

Proposals must be directed to "The Commissioners of Harlem Bridge." The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all of the estimates offered if the Board deem it for the interest of the Counties of New-York and Westchester.

Bidders are required to write out the amount of their bids in addition to inserting the same in figures. Blank forms of proposals, together with the specifications and form of contracts, can be obtained at the office of the Mayor, and the plans can be seen at the office of the Engineer, Wm. J. McAlpine, esq., No. 18 William-st., in the City of New-York. J. B. AULD, Sec'y Commissioners of Harlem Bridge.

TO FARMERS and MARKET GARDENERS, WANTING PERMANENT EMPLOYMENT.—The subscriber will hire for three or five years, or purchase, from five to fifty acres of good, improved LAND, with one good house (a farm house) and outbuildings, nearer or not over 20 miles from the city, and not more than a couple of miles from a railroad or steamboat station. The applicant must possess the means of stocking it, and must entirely oversee and cultivate it, and supply a family of five persons with milk, butter, and vegetables; in return for which he will receive the entire proceeds of his labor, and the opportunity of purchasing the land at his leisure. The applicant may select the place, subject to approval. None but a married man of first rate character need apply. Address FARMER, Tribune Office.

$2,000 OR MORE.—NEWSPAPER.—A gentleman of education, intelligence, and energy, with this amount or more, in cash, can make an arrangement in an old established and respectable weekly newspaper office, where his money can be always under his own control, and where a partnership can be had after a time if mutually suited. No better opening in this line exists for the right kind of man, and no one need reply but an eligible party, and one who has the cash. Address SAFETY, Box No. 121 Tribune Office.

$300.—PARTNER WANTED—To purchase the interest of a retiring partner in an established cash business, giving a steady and reliable income. An honest, industrious man, who will devote eight hours per day to the business, and be content with a fair income, can apply to LYONS & Co., No. 36 Maiden-lane.
