—Miss Janie Ketchin left Wednesday to resume her studies at Converse.
—Mr. K. R. McMaster attended the Cole-Simms nuptials in Barnwell last week.
—Miss Lida Neil has returned to Easley, where she is teaching in the graded school.
—The Misses Dwight have returned to Columbia after a stay of several weeks with relatives in town.
—Mr. J. A. Hinnant has completed his new home on College Street and moved back into the same.
—Messrs. Clark McCants, Bratton Davis and Tom Lyles have returned to the South Carolina College.
—Miss Eunice Bacot has returned from Mt. Pleasant, where she has been visiting for several weeks past.
—Mrs. D. A. Pressley, of Columbia, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. M. L. Connor.
—Mr. Donald Richardson of Nelson left Wednesday for Princeton, N. J., to continue his theological studies.
—Hon. C. A. Douglas of Washington, D. C. has been on a short visit to relatives in Winnsboro and out in the country.
—The ladies of the Bric Church will give an ice-cream festival at the residence of Mr. A. Lee Scruggs on the evening of October 9. The public is invited.
—Mr. C. T. Brooks of Jennings leaves today for Columbia to enter the South Carolina College, in which he recently won a scholarship by competitive examination.
—Mr. N. A. Peay who has been very ill for a month, we are glad to know is much improved and is in a fair way to recovery. We sincerely hope he will soon be well again.—Greenwood Journal.
—The Fairfield Cotton Association meets Monday. Every farmer and business or professional man in Fairfield county should be present at this important meeting in behalf of bettering the conditions of the Fairfield farmers.
—The Southern Power Company will construct a railroad from Harmony, a station on the Seaboard Air Line to Camden. The road will be 60 miles long and will connect with the line now building from Fort Lawn to the Falls. The road will cost $600,000.
—The residence of Mr. W. C. Brown in the Longtown section was completely destroyed by fire on the night of the 18th. Practically nothing was saved from the house. Mr. Brown requests that thanks be extended to those who have so generously come to his aid.
—The home of Mr. D. H. Robertson near Flint Hill was completely destroyed by fire Sunday afternoon about 1:30 o'clock. The family were at dinner, when the fire was discovered, the same having caught from a defective flue. But little of the household furniture was saved. There was no insurance. Mr. Robertson had already arranged to move to Winnsboro this fall.
—The board of supervisors of registration meets the first Monday in every month. If the election on the proposition of voting the dispensary out of Fairfield county is ordered to be held in November, next Monday, the first Monday in October, will be the last opportunity for parties, not now registered, to register. So all should register next Monday and put themselves in position to exercise their right of suffrage. Be sure that you yourself are a registered voter.
—The millinery openings of Caldwell Dry Goods Co. and D. V. Walker & Co. the past week were well attended despite the very hot weather and the earliness of the season. Both these firms are showing very beautiful lines of millinery and there will be no need for the ladies of Winnsboro and Fairfield county to go elsewhere to get their fall winter hats. Those who have not yet seen these attractive displays of pattern and ready-to-wear hats should not fail to do so.

By the "Shield Brand" Clothing from Hafner Bros., Chester, S. C., and be shielded from high prices.

Jackson Creek Farmers.

The farmers of Jackson Creek organized a cotton association Monday afternoon. W. J. Turner was elected president and Jas. B. Stevenson secretary. The action of the county association was endorsed by the farmers agreeing to sell no cotton at less than 11 cents.

Mill Help Wanted.

Wanted, help for Fairfield Cotton Mills. Families will do well to investigate the advantages the mill offers over the farm. Many families here make from $5 to $8 a day. Rent and provisions cheap. Good school and churches. Apply to superintendent. 9-27if

Death at Woodward.

Mrs. John D. Montgomery died at her home at Woodward Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. She had been sick quite a long while. She is survived by her husband and two sons, S. L. and Chas. A., both of Woodward. The interment was at Concord church Sunday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. G. G. Mayes.

History and Relics—Mrs. W. H. Flenniken, chairman; Miss Susie Ketchin, Mrs. R. C. Gooding, Mrs. W. H. Willingham, Miss Frances Creight.

Memorials—Mrs. R. E. Ellison, chairman; Mrs. W. G. Jordan, Miss Mary Witherow, Miss Nannie Phinney.

When you visit Chester, S. C., call at Hafner Bros.' new and handsome clothing department.

Still Magistrate Kellar.

A few weeks ago a petition was filed with Governor Heyward by citizens of the Feasterville section, asking for the removal of Magistrate Kellar on the charge of drunkenness. A counter petition was also filed. The whole matter was referred to the county delegation. They held a meeting in the court house Monday for the purpose of hearing both sides of the question. A large number of the representative citizens of that section were present and testified. After a full hearing of the testimony the delegation reached the decision that there was not sufficient evidence for them to ask for the removal of the magistrate. So it is still Magistrate Kellar.

Death of Mr. A. Williford.

In the death of Mr. A. Williford, which occurred at his home Monday morning, Winnsboro loses one of its oldest citizens and Fairfield one of its most successful business men. Mr. Williford came to this county from Yorkville about twenty-five years ago and opened a livery, feed and sale stable, which he continued until the first of this year. He was also a large planter. Mr. Williford had been confined to his room for several months past. He was seventy-five years old. He is survived by his wife, who was a Miss Ratterree of York county, and his daughter, Mrs. J. L. Mimmugh, of Columbia. Several grandchildren, including those of his two deceased sons, Wade and Q. D., who died several years ago, survive him. His remains were interred yesterday afternoon in the cemetery of the Presbyterian church, the services being conducted by Rev. J. B. Campbell.

The pall-bearers were: D. V. Walker, J. E. McDonald, W. H. Flenniken, G. W. Ragsdale, L. E. Owens, A. W. Brown.

THE BIG STORE

On the Corner by the Town Clock has ready for your inspection over Thirty Thousand Dollars' worth of Dry Goods, Millinery, Shoes, Clothing, Hats, Underwear, Skirts, Jackets, Blankets, etc., etc.

Whatever a man needs, whatever a lady needs, whatever any member of your family needs in wearing apparel we can supply at rock-bottom prices. A great many goods have advanced in price, but our prices are as low, and on some goods lower, than last year. For instance, we are selling while they last, ALL THE BEST CALICOES AT 5c. A YARD. They cost more than that at wholesale in New York now. A great many cotton goods are scarce, and hard to get. You can get all you want here at the lowest prices. Every lady in the county owes it to herself to see our stock of Dress Goods, Silks and Trimmings. No old stock here. Our BIG SALE last February cleaned out ALL OLD GOODS and we have $3,000 worth of THE NEWEST DRESS GOODS to show you. We will please you in the material and please you in the price.

MILLINERY.

We did not have a single hat left from last season, so everything is fresh and new. The styles have changed a great deal, and small hats are the latest. This is the place to get the right kind and get them made by expert trimmers. Prices the lowest.

Remember, we give a HANDSOME PREMIUM with every $10.00 cash you spend, and on January 1st we give away over $100.00 in extra prizes. Get one of our circulars and learn all about it.

Your trade solicited.

CALDWELL DRY GOODS COMPANY.

Court Notes.

The court of general sessions was adjourned from Thursday morning until Monday on account of the sickness of his Honor Judge Townsend. He was taken sick Wednesday night and was quite sick for three days. His son, Mr. Ben Townsend, came over Saturday afternoon and took him to his home in Union, where he is reported as getting along very well. This is the first time he has lost any time since he has been on the bench.

Saturday the Winnsboro bar arranged through Associate Justice Gary, who is acting in the place of Chief Justice Pope who is quite sick, for Judge Prince to hold court here this week. Court was opened Monday with his Honor Judge Prince presiding and Mr. McClure of Chester acting in the place of Solicitor Henry, who went to Alabama Friday to the bedside of his brother, who is seriously ill. Mr. Deal is acting in place of Stenographer McCaw, who is sick at his home in Yorkville.

When the court adjourned Wednesday the case of Robert Heath for robbing a train was being tried. This case was resumed Monday morning with the same jury, the rest of the jurors of the first week having been discharged. The verdict of the jury was guilty.

The following grand jurors were drawn for the coming year: J. P. Kelly, A. N. Keistler, Longstreet Gantt, G. C. Hagood, M. B. Clark and O. W. Moore.

The business disposed of at Wednesday's session was as follows:

Dave Peay, who was found guilty of assault and battery, was sentenced to six months on the chain gang or to pay a fine of $30. He paid the fine.

Butler Ford was found guilty of assault and battery and given a sentence of six months or $40. He also paid the fine.

Robert Glenn was found guilty of stealing a bicycle and was given twelve months on the chain gang.

Will Wilson and Bayliss Pickens were acquitted of disposing of property under lien.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

This was an important decision in two appeal cases from the ruling of the mayor of the town of Winnsboro. Saunders and Hull had both been fined in the municipal court for the soliciting of laborers in the town of Winnsboro in violation of the following ordinance:

"That any person or agent, soliciting laborers to go beyond the limits of the town of Winnsboro to engage in work, shall be required to obtain a license from the town clerk for which he shall pay $25.00 for each day he shall so solicit labor in the town."

The appeal was sustained by his Honor Judge Prince on the ground that the wording of this ordinance made it apply only to laborers who were engaged in work in the incorporate limits of the town and so could not apply to persons living out of the town and who happened to be in town when employed by these solicitors. The defendants in this case had employed operatives from the Fairfield Cotton Mills, who were in Winnsboro at the time of their employment.

His Honor's decision did not touch on the constitutionality of the ordinance; his ruling was that the ordinance itself had not been violated.

Fairfield Cotton Association.

The next meeting of the Fairfield Cotton Association will be held at the court house in Winnsboro next Monday, the first Monday in October, at 11 o'clock. Every farmer in the county, who can do so, should be at this meeting and lend this great movement in behalf of a closer organization of the farmers of the South his strongest support. Every township should be organized into a local cotton association. Those townships, that have not yet been organized, should become so between now and this next meeting of the county association. A very important item in connection with the meeting to be held Monday will be the report of the committee on warehouses. This committee has already applied for a charter for a warehouse company with a capital stock of $25,000, divided into 2,500 shares of $10.00 each. Plans for warehouses have been submitted to them by the secretary of the South Carolina Association; so at this meeting they will have everything ready for making a full report. This will be strictly a business meeting, which should be attended by every farmer and every business or professional man, who is willing to give this movement in behalf of a more thorough organization of the Southern farmers his support.

If you are going to buy a suit or overcoat this winter, it would pay you to see Hafner Bros., Chester, S. C., before buying.

Mr. W. H. Flenniken will surpass his last year's record in cotton buying if he keeps up at the rate, at which he went it Saturday. His purchases that day were more than $27,500. For some of this he paid 10 1/2 which was the very tip top of the market. Mr. Flenniken is a hustling buyer.
