THE INDEPENDENT OF THIS WEEK,

OUT THIS MORNING,

Is one of the most attractive numbers issued during the present year. Not to mention one half its contents, the following articles will be found of special interest:

"HOW I CAME TO BUY A FARM."

BY

BAYARD TAYLOR.

Mr. Taylor, who has just been engaged as a special contributor to THE INDEPENDENT, gives in it a opening article a picturesque and charming account of his farm at Kennett Square, Pennsylvania, interspersing his entertaining narrative with many allusions to his travels in foreign lands, and with many poetic and humorous reflections.

"CHRISTIANITY AND COLOR."

A graphic and pungent article by

HORACE GREELEY,

Being an eloquent plea to admit the Negro to full right of Suffrage in the Empire State.

Mr. Greeley is a regular contributor to THE INDEPENDENT. Something new, instructive, and valuable will be found every week in its columns from his pen.

HENRY WARD BEECHER

Contributes a revised report of one of his best Sermons. The great congregation who heard the discourse on a recent Sunday morning from the text, "What I say unto you I say unto all, Watch," will be glad to find a faithful transcript of it in this week's INDEPENDENT.

"THE LOST ONE FOUND."

A series of very practical and instructive papers by

REV. STEPHEN H. TYNG, D.D.,

"GOV. MORGAN, OF NEW-YORK."

A new poem addressed to the "Wide-Awakes," by

WILLIAM H. BURLEIGH.

A pointed and graphic article by

REV. THEODORE L. CUYLER,

Being an appeal to Christian men to lead nobler Christian lives.

"HARVEST AND LIBERTY."

A picturesque and patriotic Poem bearing on the Presidential election, by

EDNA DEAN PROCTOR.

A Biographical Account of

"AN INTERESTING CAREER,"

being a history of the life and labors of a British civil officer in the West Indies, who has recently received from Queen Victoria the honor of Knighthood, yet who notwithstanding Chief-Justice Taney's repugnance to such promotion, is a NEGRO—the first NEGRO who has ever been made a BRITISH KNIGHT or NOBLE—and whose public career is sketched in THE INDEPENDENT of this week, by "A West Indian Octoroon."

A NEW AND TRUE ARTIST.

An account of a man of genius in an attic, by

THEODORE TILTON.

"THE LETTER-PRESS MISSION."

A poem suggested by the recent appeal for books for the prisoners at Sing Sing.

"THE LITTLE SUFFERERS."

A story of Katy and Lena Fox, written for the instruction of Little Children.

THE INDEPENDENT.

THE NEW-YORK EXAMINER of the present week has original articles for the times on the following topics:
SNEERS AT ORTHODOXY.
OLD AND NEW—WHICH IS BEST!
ANONYMOUS ENDOXERS.
ALLEGED CHURCH "DESECRATION."
THE FAST RELIGIOUS PRESS
SENSATION PREACHING.
PRESIDENT-MAKING.
DR. TRENCHANT'S TABLE-TALK—
ABOUT DESTITUTE CHURCHES.
MRS. JUDSON'S POETRY.
Beside the above, THE EXAMINER has a great variety of NEWS ARTICLES, and Sketches for FAMILY READING.

"Few of our religious papers occupy higher ground or enjoy more fully the confidence of their own and other denominations, than does that sterling organ of the Baptists, The New-York Examiner. The editor has made arrangements with the Rev. R. Williams, D. D., by which The Examiner will, each week, contain an article from the pen of the Amity-st. pastor."—[Boston Post.

THE EXAMINER is published at No. 115 Nassau-st., New-York, at $2 a year to mail subscribers, and $2 50 by carriers—payable in advance. But, as a temporary and special arrangement, it be continued till the close of 1860, it will be sent for one year, from the time the money is received, to any three new subscribers for $4; and to any five new subscribers for $5, and at the same rate to any additional number, above five.

THE EXAMINER has a larger circulation than any other Baptist Paper in the world, and is the best ADVERTISING MEDIUM.

"IT CANNOT BE DONE."

Some people say "it cannot be done," for no other reason than that it has not been done. Such men forget, however, that things can be done in 1860 which could not be done in 1840 or 1850, and the publishing of the HOUSEHOLD JOURNAL, with such a glorious bill of fare, will be another proof of what can be done by the proper division of labor—first-class talent in every department—and with the all powerful help of Horace that steam-propeller. First number appears on FRIDAY (to-morrow), the 21st. Three cents.

"IT CANNOT BE DONE."

Timid, if not ignorant people say "it cannot be done," because the reading and thinking public are not numerous enough to support such a first-class paper as the HOUSEHOLD JOURNAL will be. We say take it—a mistake, if not a libel upon an intelligent people, and remain to be proved whether the people of our country prefer an inferior article to a superior one. First number of the HOUSEHOLD JOURNAL appears on FRIDAY (to-morrow), the 21st. Three cents.

"IT CANNOT BE DONE."

Some say "it cannot be done" because it has no stories in it, and therefore the boys and girls (both old and young ones) won't buy it. That also is a mistake, as it will have stories in it, and those of the very best; but it will have many things beside stories, and better than stories as all the boys and girls will acknowledge when they see it NEXT FRIDAY (to-morrow), the 21st September. First number appears then. Price three cents.

"IT CANNOT BE DONE."

Some people say "it cannot be done," because men's heads are turned with politics. Enthusiasts and demagogues in politics we don't expect will buy THE HOUSEHOLD JOURNAL, but as they have, in many cases, sensible wives, sons, and daughters, they will buy THE HOUSEHOLD JOURNAL in preference to any other, for its excellent Tales, its new and good Music, its lessons in French and German, its Poetry, its Scientific Information, its Domestic Economy, its Chess, its Wit and Humor, and its general entertaining and instructive matter, combined with amusement, and its cheapness. First Number appears on FRIDAY, the 21st (TO-MORROW). 3 cents.

"IT CAN AND WILL BE DONE."

Such is our determination in regard to publishing THE HOUSEHOLD JOURNAL every week, filled jam-ufull of the best, most entertaining, and most first active matter ever presented within the compass of any single sheet in the world. For 3 cents a week can THE HOUSEHOLD JOURNAL be bought, with its matchless bill of fare. Seeing is believing. Try one number on FRIDAY, the 21st (TO-MORROW). 3 cents.
To be had of all News Agents.
