$500 REWARD.—BLANCHARD'S MESSAGE TO "THE SOVEREIGN PEOPLE" OF THE UNITED STATES has made the Parsons, Politicians, and Old Fogies writhe in very agony. But has it driven the scurrilous editor of "The World" newspaper crazy? Let him produce the "note" from me which he pretends to have in his "possession," and for denying the existence of which, he rashly or insanely dares to accuse me of "mendacity," and I, CALVIN BLANCHARD, Publisher of Liberal Books and General Wholesale and Retail Bookseller, at No. 76 Nassau st., New-York, will give him $500.
"A rare and rich book is the 'Message'—the latest of the fifty reformatory books issued by Prophet Blanchard, the Mohammed of the nineteenth century."—[Sunday Mercury.
Price of the "MESSAGE" (48 pages), ten cents, or 15 copies for $1. Catalogues gratis. All my books mailed, postage free, on receipt of price.

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY RELIGIOUS NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD.

THE INDEPENDENT

Is now acknowledged to be not only one of the most successful, but one of the most invaluable Family Newspapers in the country. It circulates throughout the entire North from Maine to Oregon, and is also gradually making its way into the Border Slave States. Its corps of Special Contributors numbers more of the distinguished writers known in American Literature than can be boasted by any other similar publication. Among the contributors are Mrs. HARRIET BEECHER STOWE, author of Uncle Tom's Cabin; JOHN G. WHITTIER, The Quaker Poet; Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER, (one of whose sermons, revised by himself appears in the INDEPENDENT every week); Rev. STEPHEN H. TYNG, Rector of St. George's Chapel, in this City, whose writings are instructive to all readers; HORACE GREELEY, who furnishes a regular weekly article on public affairs; JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL, the well known Poet and Professor; WILLIAM PAGE, one of the first American artists, whose contributions on art are of equal weight with Ruskin's; BAYARD TAYLOR, whose interesting sketches and personal reminiscences of distinguished men and women are now appearing every week; Rev. THEODORE CUYLER, of Brooklyn; WM. M. EVARTS, Esq., of the New-York Bar; Miss EDNA DEAN PROCTOR, editor of Beecher's Life Thoughts; GRACE GREENWOOD, the well-known authoress; JOHN BIGELOW, of the New-York Evening Post; Rev. ROBERT M. HATFIELD, of the Methodist Episcopal Church; Rev. Dr. GEORGE B. CHEEVER, now traveling in Europe, and writing letters of his travel; with many other writers whose weekly contributions make the pages of the INDEPENDENT so rich that ten times the money which the paper costs would be a cheap price for it.

Mrs. ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING, of Florence, Italy, contributes to THE INDEPENDENT her freshest and finest poems.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS in every quarter of the civilized world contribute letters to its columns, informing its readers of the progress of events in all nations.

The COMMERCIAL Department is a recognized standard authority, quoted by the country Press far and wide.

Its EDITORIAL STAFF consists of the following persons, aided by other writers: Rev. LEONARD BACON, D. D., of New-Haven; Rev. RICHARD S. STORRS, Jr., D. D., of Brooklyn; Rev. JOSEPH P. THOMPSON, D. D., of New-York; Rev. JOSHUA LEAVITT, D. D., of Brooklyn, and THEODORE TILTON, esq.

The INDEPENDENT is now rapidly increasing in circulation every day, and its conductors stand pledged to give it increasing excellence in proportion to its increasing patronage.

The price of subscription is Two Dollars a year when sent by mail out of the City. To subscribers who receive it by carriers in New-York and Brooklyn, the price is $2 50. But the publisher makes the following

EXTRAORDINARY INDUCEMENT TO SUBSCRIBE.

If any person will send the names of three new subscribers to the INDEPENDENT, accompanied with the money (that is, Six Dollars for the three subscribers), will be presented for his trouble with a handsome copy of

WEBSTER'S UNABRIDGED DICTIONARY,

Pictorial Edition, containing 1,500 engraved illustrations. To persons living in the country the Dictionary will be promptly forwarded by Express. When it is considered that the price of the Dictionary is of itself $6 50 at the bookstores, it will be seen that Three Copies of the INDEPENDENT for one year, and a Dictionary besides, and all for only Six Dollars, make about as good an investment for so small a sum of money, as the market anywhere affords.

The INDEPENDENT of this week, out on Thursday morning, will be a splendid number, which will amply repay anybody's perusal.

Please order a specimen copy, which will be sent gratuitously to any address. All letters should be addressed to

THE SECOND EDITION FOR NOVEMBER
of the
OFFICIAL ILLUSTRATED RAILWAY GUIDE
OF THE
UNITED STATES AND THE CANADAS.
The CIRCULATION OF APPLETON'S GUIDE is larger than
ALL OTHER WORKS OF THE KIND combined, and
THE DEMAND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.
There is scarcely a town, village, or city in the country but that it reaches. Independent of its utility as a Railway Guide, which gives the time of the departure and arrival of the different trains,
FROM AND TO THE PRINCIPAL CITIES, it also gives the distances from station to station, at the same time informing the traveler the moment the various trains are due at the numerous stations situate upon the railways.
THOUSANDS AND TENS OF THOUSANDS of copies of APPLETON'S RAILWAY GUIDE are sold upon the railways of the United States and the Canadas. There is scarcely an intelligent traveler but that considers it just as necessary to PURCHASE APPLETON'S RAILWAY GUIDE
previous to commencing a journey, as to purchase their tickets previous to entering the cars. Many purchase it not only in consequence of its correctness in giving the time of departure and arrival of trains, but also in consideration of being THE ONLY COMPLETE RAILWAY GUIDE.
It is the only Railway Guide which gives an account of railways and their progress from month to month. It is the only Railway Guide which contains an endless chain of dates and incidents of travel from month to month. It is the only Railway Guide which contains nearly
ONE HUNDRED RAILWAY MAPS,
representing the principal railways of the country, delineating the stations, distances from station to station, connections, &c., together with much other valuable, instructive matter, which renders it INDISPENSABLE TO RAILWAY TRAVELERS.
In evidence of the truly wonderful popularity of APPLETON'S RAILWAY GUIDE, and the enviable position it occupies, we would refer to the following, which we select from many communications received from every section of the Union,
NORTH, SOUTH, EAST, AND WEST.
"This admirable compilation is increasing so rapidly in circulation, that, in this respect, it promises soon to outrival the English Bradshaw. In the care with which the tables are put together, and in the extent and variety of the information which it conveys, it, however, has no equal"—[New-York Herald
"APPLETON'S ILLUSTRATED RAILWAY GUIDE.—Our own experience has induced us to say before what we now say again, that this is by far the best of all publications of the kind. It is more accurate and more extensive than any of its competitors."—[North American and U. S. Gazette, Philadelphia.
"We should as soon think of starting on our journey without a valise, as to go on our journey without the latest edition of this useful and entertaining hand-book."—[Boston Journal.
"We consider that the Publishers have conferred a benefit upon the traveling public by the publication of this work. The name of the firm is a sufficient guarantee that the work of furnishing a reliable Railway Guide will be faithfully continued.
"We would recommend that the Railway Companies throughout the United States and the Canadas (who have not yet done so) recognize and support Appletons' Railway Guide as their official organ, and that correct copies of time-tables and advertisements be forwarded to them."

THE BOBBIN BOY!

THE GOVERNOR.

LET YOUR BOYS READ THIS BOOK.

It is the true life of a poor boy who started at the very foot of the ladder, only a Bobbin Boy in the factory, with no natural advantages, no schooling except a few years of very early childhood. Yet by a strong will and firm principle, with constant application in the few spare hours he gained from those usually devoted to sleep and his meals, he has acquired not only an education, but a power of oratory not often surpassed—that makes THE MAN the choice of the people their Governor.

It is a book full of interesting incidents that forms every boy's life—he had his troubles, his faults, as all boys have.

Charlie Stone, his playmate and intimate friend, is now one of the most popular agents of one of the most celebrated mills in the country. He also started in life as a poor Bobbin Boy.

The book is written in the Rev. Mr. WM. M. THAYER'S most attractive style, and illustrated by Billings. It is a large book for the
