In and Around Blackstock.

Mr. J. N. Caldwell moved to near Winnsboro to-day.

Mr. James H. Craig, representing the Chattanooga Plow Co., spent Christmas here with his parents.

The way that our young folks come home on holidays and vacations speaks well for the community, and family training. Here are some of those students, teachers, etc., who come home to spend the holidays: Misses Margaret and Agnes Douglas, instructors of Winthrop, and the Chester graded school, respectively; Dr. James Douglas and Prof. John Douglas, of Davidson College; Mr. R. L. Douglas, attorney of Chester, and Mr. W. A. Douglas, of Rock Hill; Prof. R. E. Craig, of Elko, and Mr. E. L. Craig, young lawyer of Columbia; Mr. John R. Craig, Jr., operator at Fort Hill, and Mr. Alex Craig, of Clemson; Miss Katharine Brice, of Jonesville, N. C., and Mr. Lewis White, of Due West. Perhaps there are others of whom we have not heard.

Mrs. Mary Mullican, of Chester county, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ragsdale.

Miss Mary Ragsdale, a trained nurse of Columbia, spent Christmas with her mother.

Mr. Chas. Douglas, of Winnsboro, spent Christmas with his daughter, Mrs. J. A. McCrorey.

The little daughter of Dr. Coleman who has become blind is being treated in Chester by the X ray. The sympathy of all goes out to Dr. and Mrs. Coleman in this sad affliction of their little child.

Mr. J. E. Craig recently went to Marion to visit his son Arthur, or more exactly to see his new grandson.

Messrs. Geo. L. Kennedy, J. R. Craig and Charles Bell, went on a hunt a few days ago. Mr. Kennedy fell over a stump and bruised his chest; beside this there were no accidents to the hunters or the hunted.

Mr. J. T. Carter's mule ran away with him yesterday. He escaped injury, but the buggy was somewhat damaged.

Miss Jennie Gladden, of De Witt, has been visiting the family of Mr. J. W. Hood.

Miss Sarah Hall and Mr. Dan Hall, Jr., of Winnsboro, are visiting relatives here.

The most important social event that has enlivened our town in a long time was the silver wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hood, on the 21st inst., from four to ten o'clock p. m. Mr. Hood is the popular proprietor of the Blackstock hotel, which was the scene of conviviality and feasting. The big house was beautifully and artistically decorated with ivy and holly. Above the mantels in the parlor and the dining hall were the dates "1880-1905" in silver, and here and there were silver hearts and cupid darts, which recalled to many the romantic past and love's young dream, and sweetened for others the joys of the present. The supper was truly a royal feast for the eye as well as the inner man. All the good things of the season were served in profusion by pretty misses, daintily attired in white. Despite the bad roads a large number of guests were present from far and near; and the many beautiful gifts attested the esteem and good wishes of a very large number of friends. Dec. 29, '05. J. E. Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold under guarantee to do the same for you, by McMaster Co., Obeur Drug Co. and John H. McMaster & Co., druggists, at 50c. a bottle. Buy them today.

Mercy is an attribute of high moral character. As men grow toward the divine they become gentle, forgiving, compassionate. —Beecher, Sife of Christ.

A Thousand Dollars' Worth of Good.

"I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain," says A. H. Thurnes, a well-known coal operator of Buffalo, O. "I got no relief from medicines until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones, and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." Sold by McMaster Co.

Greenbrier Dots.

The Christmas holidays, which are drawing to a close, have been spent pleasantly by both the old and young of Greenbrier.

The entertainments which have been given to the young folks have been very numerous. One of the most enjoyable events was the evening spent with Miss Blair on last Tuesday.

Our college students, after much hard study, are enjoying the pleasures of Christmas vacation as only college students can. Among whom are: Miss Elizabeth Curlee of Columbia College, Mr. Edwin Lyles of South Carolina College, Mr. Ernest Blair of Wofford Fitting School.

Much life has come to our community by the returning home of so many of our young folks, who, for the past few months, have engaged in work out of the community. Among whom are Misses Jessie and Beaufort Lyles, Miss Nora Curlee, Messrs. Gedding Smith, Sheridan Rutland and D. E. Powell.

Mr. F. A. Magruder, who has been in Columbia for the past few weeks, has returned home.

Miss Attye Phillips is spending the holidays at her home in Springfield, S. C.

Miss Mabel Curlee returned from Greenwood, S. C., last Saturday.

Among those who have been visiting in the community are, Mrs. Preston Brown and Miss Marguerite Brown, of Augusta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Will Carter, Miss Mamie Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ligon, of Columbia; Misses May and Jennie Lee Roberts, and the Misses Lupo, of Monticello.

On last Tuesday evening Mr. Jim Lyles died at the home of his sister, Mrs. S. F. Castles.

In Mad Chase.

Millions rush in mad chase after health, from one extreme of faddism to another, when, if they would only eat good food, and keep their bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills, their troubles would all pass away. Prompt relief and quick cure for liver and stomach trouble. 25c. at McMaster Co., Obeur Drug Co. and John H. McMaster & Co.'s Drug stores; guaranteed.

Bear Creek Briefs.

Another Christmas has come and gone, and a very pleasant one it proved to all in this locality.

The children had quite a pretty "tree" at the school house on Saturday evening, and old Santa made glad the hearts of the little ones by his generous bestowal of gifts.

On Christmas night the young folks had an enjoyable dance at the home of Mr. J. S. Sykes, and another on the following evening at the residence of Mr. Jas. Kelly, of Smallwood.

Invitations are out for a party at Mr. G. L. Hollis' to-night.

Messrs. M. L. Cooper, Elton Wilson, and a party of others, went on a big "hunt" from Tuesday until to-day.

Quite a number are leaving their homes here and moving nearer town. Messrs. Chas. Dinkins, G. L. Hollis and W. S. Cooper are going nearer Columbia, and Messrs. Chas. Heins and Glenn Cooper have gone to Greeleyville.

Mrs. A. M. Barnes and children, of Renzi, Texas, are visiting her brother, Mr. Jas. S. Sykes.

Mr. Preston Cooper, of Mt. Zion Institute, is at home for the holidays.

Miss Elsie Cooper, of Ridgeway, is visiting her cousin, Miss Ola Cooper. Dec. 29.

A Certain Cure for Croup.

When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is one preparation that can always be depended upon. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail, viz. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. M. F. Compston, of Market, Texas, says of it: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it always gives prompt relief." For sale by Obeur Drug Co.

The secret of life is to die to self, to awake in the image of God's love and be satisfied. —Bishop Sessums, of Louisiana.

Boy's Life Saved From Membranous Croup.

"My little boy had a severe attack of membranous croup, and only got relief after taking Foley's Honey and Tar," says C. W. Lynch, a prominent citizen of Winchester, Ind. "He got relief after one dose, and I feel that it saved the life of my boy." Don't be imposed upon by substitutes offered for Foley's Honey and Tar. Sold by McMaster Co.

Rates For Cotton Convention.

New Orleans, Dec. 20.—Railroads in the cotton belt of the South have announced a rate of one fare for the round trip for the mass convention of Southern Cotton association to be held in New Orleans January 11, 12, and 13. This is the same rate given last January when the farmers, merchants and bankers from Virginia to Oklahoma, to the number of over 3,000, met at New Orleans to organize the association.

The coming meeting is the first general convention to have been held since the original meeting and indications point to even a larger attendance. President Jordan states that he would like to see 5,000 delegates at New Orleans and in view of remarkable and enthusiastic cooperation of the cotton producers during their 11 months of organization, Mr. Jordan's estimate may not fall much short of the desired number. The New Orleans meeting will be held under the auspices of the New Orleans Progressive union and New Orleans Cotton exchange, who are defraying all expenses. Secretary Henry Mayo of the New Orleans Progressive union announces that Odd Fellow's hall has been selected as the meeting place. This is one of the largest halls in the city and is on Camp street, facing the square opposite the city hall, just five blocks from Canal street, is well heated and lighted and convenient to the various exchanges, the hotels and all street car lines.—The State.

The Key That Unlocks the Door to Long Living.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spare men who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much, or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale by Obeur Drug Co.

The Simpsons have sold the Glenn Springs property—the most famous health resort in the state—to a Spartanburg company composed of Victor M. Montgomery, Walter S. Montgomery, A. L. White, J. B. Lee and Aug. W. Smith. The property consists of the spring, the hotel and 55 acres of land. The price is not stated, but the new company is capitalized at $200,000.

Coughs, Colds and Constipation.

Few people realize when taking cough medicines other than Foley's Honey and Tar, that they contain opiates which are constipating besides being unsafe, particularly for children. Foley's Honey and Tar contains no opiates, is safe and sure, and will not constipate. Don't be imposed upon by aking substitutes, some of them are dangerous. Sold by McMaster Co.
