At the Regular Meeting of the Seventh Ward Republican Association, held Wednesday evening, April 3, 1861, the following resolutions were passed:
Resolved, That, considering the course pursued by Daniel L. Pettit, and prompted, as it is, by a desire to serve the interest of both Ward and party, and believing it merits the condemnation of every honest Republican.
Resolved, That, having labored hard to place our noble 7th in its present favorable position, we can not refrain from giving vent to our indignation at the acts of a few politicians "What is to" to introduce the rule or ruin system, we therefore solicit the co-operation of our fellow-Republicans in the maintenance of right, justice, and our regular organization.
JAMES F. FREEBORN, President.
DR. CHAS. MARSH, 1st Vice-Pres't.
HENRY BREMER, 2d Vice Pres't.
JOHN N. GALLAGHER and CHAS. H. HALL, Secretaries.

At a Meeting of the Seventh Ward Republican Association, held at No. 60 East Broadway, on FRIDAY EVENING, 5th inst., the President, Daniel L. Pettit, esq., in the chair—
The minutes of last meeting were read and approved. On motion the roll of the Association, as revised by the Committee appointed at a previous meeting, was adopted. On motion, the offices in the Association heretofore filled by persons who have since allied themselves with a bogus Association in the Ward, were declared vacant; and the following-named gentlemen were elected to fill the vacancies:
Mr. THOMAS MURPHY, 1st Vice-President.
Mr. J. BANCROFT STEVENS, Treasurer.
Mr. WARREN ROSEVELT, Secretary.
On motion the Chair was requested to appoint, as early as possible, an Executive Committee to consist of one from each Election District.
On motion, the thanks of the Association were tendered to the late President, JOSEPH B. CLOSE, Esq., for the able and fearless manner in which he conducted the meetings of the Association. Mr. Close briefly responded in a speech in which he complimented the Republicans of the Ward for their energy in bringing "order out of chaos," and for completing the organization of the Association with such complete success.
On motion, adjourned. DANIEL L. PETTIT, President.
CHARLES H. HALL, WARREN ROSEVELT, Secretaries.

From The New-York Observer.
"Steadily and successfully the splendid memorial which Dr. Sprague is raising in honor of the Ministry of the Word in America is rising to its completion. Beautiful in its proportions, perfect in its plan, and harmonious in its several parts, it bids fair to stand among the works of the age, as a monument to the industry, genius, and piety of the author, as well as a monument of the wise, the good and the useful in the Church of Christ, whose names are written in heaven. For twenty years past Dr. Sprague has been engaged upon it. With powers of execution professed by few, and an industry indefatigable and scarcely paralleled by any literary man, he has been pursuing the great work of his life, sustained by the conviction that he was doing an important service to the Church and posterity. Everything Dr. Sprague does is done well. His style is a model for ease, perspicuity, and purity.
"The history of the Methodist denomination is one of the moral wonders of the world. Their early history in this country shows an amount of heroic Christian enterprise in planting the Gospel in repulsive fields, such as no other denomination can claim. Among the contributors to this volume are Judge McLean, Drs. Lipscomb, Stevens, Kidder, Bangs, Clark, Strickland, Kennedy, Nahely, Cartwright, Wightman, McClintock, Hedrick, Thomson, Olin, Summers, and scores of others."

A GREAT SENSATION COMING.—
TREMENDOUS FLUTTERING AMONG THE EVIL-DOERS IN THE METROPOLIS.
The announcement of a New Local Story by
NED BUNTLINE,
has produced a tremendous flutter among a certain class of fashionable criminals in the metropolis, whose conscience tells them that their evil ways will be exposed and laid bare, by that undaunted foe of lawless villains.
THE REVEREND MR. SHIVER,
the fashionable and hypocritical minister;
MR. HULSEY,
the keeper of a gambling-hell;
MR. CAIN,
an infamous but successful politician;
MRS. MALTON,
the bewitching husband-destroyer;
ARE PORTRAITS
OF
LIVING MEN AND WOMEN,
Who figure in
NED BUNTLINE'S GREAT LOCAL STORY, ENTITLED
THE DEATH-MYSTERY;
A CRIMSON TALE
LIFE IN NEW-YORK.
Every one who desires to read this moral and truthful exposé of the parties who have figured in several recent "mysteries" that have sent a thrill of indignation and wonder throughout the community, and who have hitherto escaped the avenging hand of justice, should get a copy of
THE NEW-YORK MERCURY

NED BUNTLINE AGAIN IN HARNESS.
After several months of retirement, during which the great magician of the pen has been busily engaged in gathering facts connected with an exposure of certain "Mysteries," of great public interest to the citizens of New-York, and which have required the unceasing vigilance of a corps of special agents, acting under his direction, to ferret out, NED BUNTLINE once more presents himself to his hosts of admirers, confident that the result of his recent labors in a high and holy cause will be duly appreciated by his numerous friends.
The new work, which has thus required so much research and labor, and which is replete with the most powerful interest, from the first line to the end, is entitled:
THE DEATH-MYSTERY;
LIFE IN NEW-YORK,
Will be published in
THE NEW-YORK MERCURY
FOR APRIL 20,
READY AT ALL NEWS AGENCIES
AT NOON, ON MONDAY NEXT.
NOTE FROM THE AUTHOR.
EAGLE'S NEST, March 26, 1861.
Messrs. Chaddwick, Southworth & Whitney:
I have no hesitation in saying, and you may, if you choose, so announce the fact, that the story of THE DEATH-MYSTERY surpasses, in interest, and faithful development of living character, any work that I have ever written. In it I have striven to unmask the hypocrites of society, to expose the criminal whose money enables them to evade the law, and to vindicate the holy cause of right and justice. I have in no previous effort ever striven so earnestly to edify and instruct the public.
As ever, yours,
NED BUNTLINE.
Who can doubt that such a work, by so popular and competent an author, will be read by every man, woman, and child who can secure it?
