Military Notices.

First Regiment United States Chasseurs.—The Hon. JOHN COCHRANE, Colonel; ALEX. SHALER (7th Regiment), Lieutenant-Colonel; WM. H. RIBLET (7th Regiment), Major. Great opportunity for Recruits. Men are required to complete the full complement of the Regiment. The following are some of the advantages the Regiment possesses:
1. The Secretary of War has authorized it to be raised.
2. It will be directly in the United States service.
3. Whenever a Company is full it will be mustered in.
4. Uniforms and equipments will be furnished to the men at once.
5. On being received at their quarters, in New-York City, the men will have their sustenance furnished to them.
6. All camp and garrison equipages will be furnished whenever and as required.
7. The Regiment being full, it will march directly to Washington.
8. The President of the United States commissions the officers, and the United States pays them and the men.
9. Each Volunteer is entitled to fifty cents for every twenty miles he travels to the City of New-York to be mustered in, and fifty cents for every twenty miles he travels from the place where he is mustered out to New-York City, and at that time $100 cash in addition.
Hasten, men, or this excellent opportunity will be lost.

Recruiting for the United States Army.—A Recruiting Station for the UNITED STATES ARMY, 12th Regiment of Infantry, has been opened at Yorkville, 83d-st. and 3d-av. Young able-bodied men who desire to enlist will receive all information by calling at the above place.
Capt. A. J. DALLAS, U. S. A., Recruiting Officer.

Military Camp Utensils.
Every article requisite for camp and field use—canteens, iron kettles, stools, cots, camp bassets and chests, complete for four or eight persons, of improved pattern.
SOYER'S PORTABLE CAMP STOVE,
the most complete article in use. We have furnished a number of our regiments with them, and it gives satisfaction. Furnished at short notice, and at wholesale prices, by BALDWIN & JOHNSTON, No. 61 Maiden-lane.

Special Notice for the War.—First-class drill-sergeants for Cavalry or Infantry, old soldiers, Californians who have known camp life, men who have crossed the plains, good riders and shots, who are prepared for rough service and extremities of short subsistence, can address Col. F. W. LANDER, Cincinnati, Ohio, stating their experience and qualifications. Merit to be the criterion of place.

Voice from the Army.
NEW-YORK, April 30, 1861.
I am directed by MAJOR ANDERSON to say to you that the SOLIDIFIED MILK sent by you to Fort Sumter was in daily use by the officers there, and that it was regarded by them as an excellent article in every respect.
I made use of it also in my hospital, and it is, in my estimation, THE BEST SUBSTITUTE FOR FRESH MILK.
I am, Sir very respectfully, your obedient servant,
S. W. CRAWFORD, Assistant Surgeon, U. S. A.
To C. A. ROBERTSON, M. D., President, 23 Liberty-st., N. Y.

Winthrop Guard—ATTENTION!—A few more Recruits will be taken in this company, which will be sent into camp on WEDNESDAY next, June 26. Recruits will be uniformed and equipped immediately; none but able-bodied men of good character will be accepted. Apply this day at the Headquarters of the company, Mercer House, corner of Broome and Mercer-sts., between the hours of 9 a. m. and 7 p. m.
Lieut. LEWIS, Commanding.
