Pianos Made Durable as Violins.
DRIGGS' PATENT STRING-CLAMP
FOR PIANOS
has been approved by the leading musicians.
APPROVED BY THE EDITORS of The New-York Tribune, Nov. 25; New-York Times, Nov. 11; New-York Herald, Oct. 28; Musical Review, Nov. 9; New-York Express, Oct. 29; New-York Evening Post and The New-York World, Jan. 8.
BY THIS PATENT STRING-CLAMP
the oblique and twisting strain of the strings, amounting to near 7,000 pounds, is wholly taken off the bridge and sounding-board. This alone is the tone secured against deterioration so perfectly as the violin.
ALL OTHER PIANOS GO SPEEDILY TO RUIN.
Worn-out Pianos permanently restored to original beauty by the STRING-CLAMP, at a cost of from $50 to $60. The latter amount includes new strings and new covering to hammers throughout.
New Pianos secured against decay as to tone.
TIME required to make these alterations, ONE WEEK.
Pianos, with the Patent String-Clamp, for sale.

THE LABORER'S FRIEND.

The laborer's friend is that which saves
The time, and cash, and labor,
And makes him, while a happy man,
A good and honest neighbor.

Now, in the O K Soap of Pyle
(So magic in its power),
If you will try it you will find
The blessings it doth shower.

'T will wash the dirt and grease away
With very little labor,
And save you cash and time as well:
The truth we tell you, neighbor.

In washing clothes its magic touch
Will also show its power;
And thus on man, and woman too,
Its blessings it doth shower.

PYLE'S O K SOAP, sold by Grocers everywhere. Depot, cor. Washington and Franklin-sts.

READ THE FOLLOWING NOTICES FROM THE PRESS:
"The most elegant edition of Dickens's Works ever published. No English edition approaches it in beauty of form, typography, binding, and illustrations."—[Boston Transcript.
"To say that this is altogether the finest presentation of Dickens to the American public, does not convey an adequate idea of the elegance of this edition, because all readers are not aware that Dickens has been very much abused by his American publishers."—[Chicago Tribune.
"Of the illustrations by Darley and Gilbert, the names of those unrivaled artists are a sufficient guaranty. We have seen few steel engravings in which exquisite finish and all the spirit of the apparently careless etching were so well combined."—[Cincinnati Gazette.
