By Captain William Brown, Eskevire.

THE ORPHEUS C. KERR PAPERS.
Containing a full and veracious history of the valiant McKEWSEL BRIGADE, whose magnificent exploits in the capture of forts and cities, and the practice of profound strategy, have struck terror to the heart of envious Europe, and fractured the backbone of the rebellion in innumerable places. The book opens with an entirely new and CURIOUS AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL NARRATIVE, setting forth certain interesting events of the irreprehensible author's childhood, the proposed opinion of him entertained by the doctor, his production of the first Daffnecker, Assertion Pieces that ever utterly absorbed and confounded the British critics, his unhappy flight to the celebrated Sixth Ward, and gradual descent to the groundless ultimate of living in Washington!
The remarkable adventures of the beloved General of the Mackerel Brigade; the gifted and philosophical Captain William Brown, Esq.; the strategical Captain Bob Shorty; the conservative Captain Samuel Smith; the Orange County Howitzers, and the Anatomical Cavalry—not to speak of the gothic Sed Pegasus, the frescoed dog, Bologna; as well as the

MARRYING FOR MONEY.
A TALE OF REAL LIFE.
BY MRS. MACKENZIE DANIELS,
Author of "My Sister Minnie," "Fernley Manor," "Our Guardian," &c., &c.
Printed from the advanced proof-sheets, purchased by us and received per last steamer from England.
PRICE, FIFTY CENTS IN PAPER, or SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS IN CLOTH.
WILL BE PUBLISHED TO-MORROW (SATURDAY.)

READ WHAT DR. R. SHELTON MACKENZIE, EDITOR OF THE PHILADELPHIA PRESS, SAYS OF IT, EDITORIALLY, IN THAT PAPER:

MARRYING FOR MONEY.—Mrs. Mackenzie Daniels, an English novelist of considerable repute and merit, has written an excellent novel on this text, called "Marrying for Money," which T. B. Peterson & Brothers have just published from the advanced proof-sheets, purchased from the authoress. A book of so much merit, and of so little pretension, is very rarely met with. It is total interest and purpose, a love story, but, unlike most works of that class, is full of interest from the great truth of its characters and the thoroughly probability of its incidents. The heroine, a certain damsel named Violet, is a splendid, natural, sensible and lovable woman. Her real lover and second husband is worthy of her. There is a Miss Powle too, one of the best of old maids, whom we specially endorse. In a word, next to Mrs. Henry Wood, author of "The Earl's Heirs," "The Channings," and "A Life's Secret," and on a level with Miss Mulock, we now claim position for Mrs. Daniels, as a good novelist. The book is exactly suited to this season, when people have no great relish for more than intellectual enjoyment. We are sure to see it, in a few days, in every one's hands. As usual, it is published at one-fifteenth of the English price, or at 50 cents in paper, or 75 cents in cloth, an index of which price the publishers will send it everywhere, free of postage.

Booksellers, News Agents, and all others will please send on their orders at once for what they want of this book.
Address all orders at once to the publishers,

ROOFING SLATE.
EAGLE SLATE COMPANY.
Depot—Corner of 10th-av. and 12th-st., New-York. | Quarries at Hydeville, Vermont. A. K. SNYDER, Superintendent.
ADAM PENTON.
This Company invite the attention of the public to their superior and well-known GREEN and PURPLE ROOFING SLATE, which they are prepared to deliver from their Quarries or Depots in all sizes suitable for roofing.
The public are cautioned against a spurious and inferior article which has been represented and used as "Eagle Slate." A slate roof is preferable to tin, shingles or iron.
If well put on it lasts a lifetime without needing repairs. It is as clean as tin or shingles. It needs no paint. Rain water from a slate roof is pure; it has no fear of decayed wood or paint. Slate roofs are fire-proof; insurance companies favor them; steam will not affect them.
The slate manufactured by this Company has been extensively used upon the public buildings of the New-York Central, Pennsylvania, and Long Island Railways. Orders addressed as above, or to G. FURMAN, No. 26 Courtlandt-st., New-York, will receive prompt attention.
