When first danced in Madrid by Cubas it created the WILDEST ENTHUSIASM, the populace having insisted on her being the Stage in honor from the Theater and bestowing on her the most enthusiastic tribute of cheers and flowers. EL OLE represents, perhaps in its most glowing form that intense passion which is the characteristic of the dance of Southern Spain, the very words of whose songs are hot and fervid. THE CUBAS will dance EL OLE in the precise costume worn in Andalusia on nights of festive dance, and impart to it all the rapture and abandon which belongs to this, the most magnificent of the National Dances of Spain.

THURSDAY, Aug. 21—P. M.

The market to-day is again some ⅛ ⅌ cent lower, with considerable hesitation to operate to any extent, shown on all sides. Stocks open dull, and operators felt their way cautiously. The public mind, at this time peculiarly sensitive to military movements, was yesterday disturbed by flying rumors of the retreat of Pope toward Washington. This, interpreted in its worst sense, precipitated the decline which is now in force, and until some certain information is gathered from official sources, the market will continue irregular. Government Coupons of 1881 sold at the previous afternoon price to 100¼; the rest of the list was dull, except in Demand Notes, which were better, at 107⅜@107¾; State Securities were also inactive, a fall of 1 ⅌ cent occurring in Tennessee 6s, at 51@51¼, and Missouri 6s, 47¼@51¾. Gold, with sales of some $150,000, stood at the exact figures of yesterday, 115¼@115½. Pacific Mail with its usual nervousness, fluctuated at 109¼@109, and closing at 109¼@109½. Cleveland and Pittsburg was another exception, being ⅛ ⅌ cent higher, at
