LAW INTELLIGENCE.

SUPREME COURT—CIRCUIT—MARCH 27.—Before Justice LEONARD.

Wilmerding, Hognet & Humbert agt. Kelly, Sheriff.

The plaintiffs sued the Sheriff to recover possession of $500 worth of dry goods which had been levied upon under an attachment issued out of the Supreme Court in October, 1861, in favor of Lathrop, Livingston & Co., against Smith, Riley & Hughes. On the trial the facts were mostly admitted. It appeared that the goods were sold to Smith, Riley & Hughes of Philadelphia, at an auction sale held by plaintiffs on the 2d of October, 1861. The terms of sale were, "cash in bankable money;" "no delivery considered complete until the terms of sale have been complied with."

On the 3d of October plaintiffs sent the goods to Howland, known to them as a person who packed goods for Smith, Riley & Hughes and he gave them a receipt as received from Smith, Riley & Hughes. The receipt did not contain a statement that the delivery was conditional, nor was anything said upon the subject. Howland had other goods belonging to Smith, Riley & Hughes to be packed, and all were packed in one case, marked with their address, and taken to the Camden and Amboy Railroad depot to be forwarded to the purchasers at Philadelphia. While awaiting the means of transportation the Sheriff, on the 4th of October, made his levy. No charge was made of any bad faith in the purchase. The defendant claimed that although the sale was conditional, there had been an absolute delivery of the goods, and that it appeared the intention of the plaintiffs to waive the condition which was declared at the sale.

The Court charged that the title of the goods had not passed out of the plaintiffs, unless the jury found that they intended to make an absolute and unconditional delivery.

The jury gave a verdict for defendant.

For plaintiffs, Mr. Prentiss; for defendant, A. J. Vanderpoel and Mr. Millis.

UNION LEAGUE OF THE LOYAL MEN OF BROOKLYN.—The prominent citizens of Brooklyn, of all parties, have taken measures to form a Union League of loyal men, for the purpose of sustaining the Government in the prosecution of the war against the Rebellion. The National War Fund Committee have taken the initiatory measures by instituting a League, under a constitution, of which the following are the principal points:

Article I declares the object of the organization to be to bind together in a common League all true patriots who are resolved to persevere and perpetuate the Union of these States at every hazard or sacrifice of person or property; who will sustain to the last the constituted authorities of the nation in their struggle with armed Rebellion, and who, by unwavering courage, patience, fidelity, and constancy, will, at all times and places, and in all forms, stand by the Government which was made by our fathers. It is not intended by the members of this League in any manner to pledge themselves to any course of united political action, but each member is left free to act in all elections in accordance with his political preferences, the only object being to unite to support the National Government in its efforts to suppress the Rebellion now waged against its authority by a portion of the people of the Union, and not to create a political party—it being the purpose of the members of the League to dissolve when the objects for which it was created have been accomplished.

Articles 2, 3, 4 and 5 provide for the enrollment of members, the election of officers, appointment of committees, &c.

Article 6 provides that all local Leagues which shall be formed in the respective Wards of the City under the auspices of the Central Association, and which shall adopt as part of their constitution the declaration of principles set forth in Article 1st of the Constitution, shall be auxiliary to the Central League, and a component part thereof, and all persons enrolled in such auxiliary ward organization shall be members of the League.

Article 7 provides that the Ward Leagues shall perfect their organization by the election of officers and the adoption of regulations and by-laws not inconsistent with this Constitution, and by the enrollment of members, each of whom shall sign, upon admission, the following declaration:

"We hereby enroll ourselves members of the Union League of the Loyal Men of the —— Ward of Brooklyn, and we cordially adopt the 'Declaration of Principles' set forth in this Constitution, and pledge ourselves to an unconditional loyalty to the Government of the United States, to an unwavering support of its efforts to suppress the Rebellion, to spare no endeavor to preserve unimpaired the national unity, both in principle and in territorial boundary, and to maintain the power, glory and integrity of the Republic."

The President of each Ward Association shall be a Vice-President of this Central League.

The Executive Council of the Union League is composed of the following gentlemen, who will be recognized as belonging to both the Democratic and Republican parties:

A. A. Low, esq., S. B. Chittenden, esq., the Hon. S. S. Powell, the Hon. Conklin Brush, Nathaniel Briggs, esq., the Hon. James Humphrey, the Hon. John A. Cross, H. C. P. Smith, the Hon. Samuel Sloan, the Hon. J. S. T. Stranahan, S. L. Husted, esq., Ambrose Snow, esq.; Charles A. Meigs, esq., the Hon. E. A. Lambert, C. J. Lowrey, esq., C. J. Bergen, esq., C. L. Benedict, esq., Alex. McCue, esq., J. V. Messmole, esq., Samuel M. Meeker, esq.

The President of the Executive Council is the Hon. J. S. T. Stranahan; Corresponding Secretary, Mr. C. L. Benedict; Recording Secretary, Mr. C. J. Lowrey.

ANOTHER WESTERN GUNBOAT.—The United States gunboat Covington, Ensign Daniel Jones commanding, left Cincinnati on Thursday for duty—the first of Commander Sanford's fleet.]
