SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE FIVE-TWENTY BONDS

The Search of Neutral Vessels and Mails.

NO INSTRUCTIONS EVER ISSUED TO OUR CRUISERS.

How Did Foreign Governments Get Any?

Special Dispatch to The N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, May 3, 1863.

THE SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE FIVE-TWENTY BONDS.

The subscriptions to Five-Twenty Bonds yesterday amounted to about $14,000, all told.

THE ALLEGED INSTRUCTIONS TO OUR CRUISERS.

The alleged "instructions" to our cruisers touching neutral vessels and mails, which were laid before Parliament recently, and were made the basis of all that Lord Lyons did in the Peterhoff case, were never sent to our naval officers. Secretary Seward suggested them to Secretary Welles, but they were never issued. How they came into the possession of foreign Governments, bearing the character attributed to them, is a question which will sooner or later be investigated.

FUGITIVES FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

Ex-Senator Willey is here, a fugitive from West Virginia, as is ex-Senator Carlile, whose place of sojourn is not known. Their exodus was occasioned by the Rebel raid in that direction, and it is said that the feeling against Mr. Carlile was particularly exhibited. The Secessionists about Morgantown welcomed the armed Rebels and gave them of their food; but the latter returned the kindness by relieving them permanently of their horses, cattle, &c., saying that this contribution was small compared with what has been required of their friends in other parts of the Confederacy.

DECISION CONCERNING THE INCOME TAX.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has made the following decision:

Where a husband and wife live together, and their taxable income is in excess of $600, they will be entitled to but one deduction of $600, that being the average fixed by law, as an estimated commutation for the expense of maintaining a family. Where they live apart they will be taxed separately, and be each entitled to a deduction of $600.

WASHINGTON, Saturday, May 2, 1863.

H, 12th Va. infantry, and J. A. P. Conley, Second Lieut. Co. D, 2d N. C. cavalry. They were sent to the Old Capitol this morning.

Secretary Chase Among the Solid Men of Boston.

BOSTON, Saturday, May 2—p. m.

Secretary Chase made a brief address to the large audience assembled to greet him at the Exchange to-day. He gracefully acknowledged the financial support extended to the Government by the capitalists and merchants of Boston, and paid a warm tribute to the patriotism of the New-England States.

Mr. Chase said that he did not pretend to have the power of seeing through national horoscopes, but he thought he might safely venture to say that this war was near its termination.

LATER FROM MEXICO.

DATES FROM VERA CRUZ TO APRIL 22.

One Half of the City in Possession of the French.

The French transport-steamship Allier arrived at this port yesterday from Vera Cruz, having sailed from thence April 22. Her commander, Pradier, reports that dispatches had been received from Gen. Forey to the effect that the siege of Puebla was favorably progressing, and that they then were in possession of half of the city. Commander Pradier further states that the reports in the New-York papers respecting the repulse of the French at Puebla are entirely without foundation.

From St. Thomas—Movements of the Privateers.

The bark Theresa, Capt. J. H. Avery, from St. Thomas April 18, arrived yesterday. She brings home as passengers Capt. Bolger and crew, late of the bark Lapwing, and Capt. Harriman and crew, late of the bark M. J. Colcord, both of which vessels were captured on the 27th of March by the privateer Florida.

Capt. Bolger reports: Sailed from Boston on the 9th of March for Batavia, with a cargo of coal and merchandise; and on the 27th, in lat. 31° 30', lon. 32° 30', was captured by the privateer Florida. He and his crew were taken on board the Florida, and a prize crew put on board the bark, with two howitzers.

The bark M. J. Colcord was taken on the 29th of March, in lat. 28°, lon. 33°, and a prize crew put on board. The understanding was that both barks should rendezvous at lat. 29°, when their cargoes would be taken out. Both vessels were in company with the Florida on the 30th of March. Three boys belonging to the Lapwing remained on board the Florida. April 1, lat. 29°, lon. 34°, spoke Danish brig Christiana, from Dublin to St. Croix, and the crews of both prizes put on board. All the chronometers and other nautical instruments were retained on board the Florida.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Saturday, May 2, 1863.

The steamship Constitution, Capt. Watkins, sailed this forenoon at 10 o'clock for Panama. She takes 700 passengers and $730,000 in treasure for England, and $250,000 for New-York.

[The above dispatch came through in one hour.]

There is a good trade doing with Mexican ports, principally in dry goods and merchandise suited to the extensive mining enterprises going on there, and with Oregon and other northern ports. But trade with the interior of the State is unaccountably delayed. Generally markets are heavy, with little recent change in prices. Operations in mining stocks absorb the attention of many capitalists and business men. Gould and Curry mine has just declared a fourth monthly dividend of $100 per foot.

Well-authenticated information from the Reese River confirms the richness of some of the silver mines opened in that region.

THE FIGHT FOR THE AMERICAN CHAMPIONSHIP.—This match comes off on Tuesday next. The contestants' Coburn and McCoole, attended by their respective trainers, left New-York on Thursday last for the vicinity of the selected battle-ground, there to put the final polish on their training preparation. A large number of the most influential sporting men of Cincinnati and St. Louis have already arrived to witness the fight. McCoole is regarded as the pugilistic representative of the West, and a great deal of money has been speculated throughout that section of the country on the result. He is an immensely powerful young fellow, deficient in fistic science and activity, but having the very important advantage of some 20lb in weight over his opponent. In this city Coburn is the favorite, the odds of $100 to $80 being currently offered; his friends grounding their confidence on his skill, gameness, quickness and great experience in the tactics of the ring. The distance to the battle-ground will have the effect of deterring all but the wealthier portion of the sporting fraternity from being present. The precise locality will not be generally indicated, except to a favored few, until Monday next, at the rendezvous in Philadelphia.

The rowing match for the championship of the Thames, between the present holder of the title, Robert Chambers, and George Everson, for $1,000 a side, came off on that river on the 14th ult.; Chambers winning easily at the finish. He will now be matched against Green, the champion oarsman of Australia, who has visited England purposely to contend for the championship.

ARREST OF A SOUTHERN EDITOR.—Mr. Hambleton, the former editor of The Atlanta Confederacy, published at Atlanta, Georgia, who was arrested in this city a few days ago by order of the Provost-Marshal, has not yet been disposed of by that officer, but will probably be sent to Fort Lafayette in the course of a day or two. Mr. Hambleton says he has had no connection with the "Confederacy" since the Spring of 1860, and states that his object in coming North was to recruit his health, as for some months past he has been troubled with hemorrhage of the lungs. Upon leaving Atlanta he went to Memphis for the purpose of visiting his brothers and sisters, arriving about the time the guerrilla band under Col. Richardson, made a dash upon our troops there, killing and wounding 100 men. The Rebels dashed upon the men while asleep, and after butchering all they could, scampered off. Gen. Hurlbut sent out a force immediately to scour the country, but the sneaking cut-throats had escaped. From Memphis Mr. Hambleton went to Cairo, being permitted to enter the Union lines on the plea that he was a refugee from Conscription—thence to Detroit, Niagara and this city, where he put up at the Metropolitan Hotel. He was arrested at the instance of a gentleman whom he claimed as an old and intimate friend, and whom he had treated with much consideration and courtesy at the South. Mr. Hambleton had a considerable amount of Southern money in his possession, but no gold as has been stated in some of the papers. He has friends in New-Hampshire, and was on his way thither (so he says), intending to remain there during the Summer and rusticate. At present he is in the custody of Capt. Armstrong of the 10th N. Y. Artillery.

To the Editor of the New-York Herald.—DEAR SIR: As I see many wonderful testimonials in your paper in favor of Dr. SCHENCK'S Medicines, I wish you to insert the following statement. Although it has been several years since I was cured of Consumption, and still remain in good health, I feel it my duty to let the public know all about it:

In the first place I took cold that settled in my back, causing much lameness, and about a month after I got another cold that settled on my lungs, and brought on an attack of the pleurisy. The pleurisy settled in the upper part of my right lung, and formed an abscess that, after much pain, broke in about two months, when I discharged, in 12 hours, about a pint of matter. At this time I had almost a constant fever, with a very high pulse and frequent chills; a very sore throat that discharged large quantities of a thick though mucous substance. I was advised by Dr. Craig, an old physician of Rahway, to try SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP; he said he had known great benefit to be derived from it. I accordingly commenced taking it. I had a severe pain under the lower part of my ribs, in my lungs, that continued to increase. My physician gave me digitalis and squills to keep down the rapid circulation of the blood.

My physician, on examination, pronounced my lungs affected a good deal; and as I continued to get worse all the time, concluded I would go to Newark and have my chest thoroughly examined. I accordingly went, and was thoroughly examined by Drs. Smith and Dougherty, who after a thorough examination, told me there was a number of ulcers forming in the lower part and at the back; but where the abscess was, it appeared to be healing. On asking what they thought of my prospects of getting well, they said when the ulcers came to break, if my strength was not too much exhausted, nature might possibly throw off the disease, and I might recover. (Doctors never like to extinguish the last ray of hope.) They prescribed digitalis and squills (the same as I had been taking, with some other things I did not try). This was about the first of July. I had at this time taken four bottles of Syrup. I still continued to get worse, and after taking six bottles, and finding I got no better, I concluded it was doing me no good, and I might as well stop taking it; when I soon began to get worse faster than ever. The fever increased, night sweats came on, my cough got tight, my feet and ankles swelled, my throat ulcerated, and the pain in my side increased, and I soon gave up all expectation of ever being any better in this world.

After taking no Syrup for four weeks, and when I was so weak that it was with difficulty I could get up when I was sitting down, to see if I could get any relief from the pain I endured, and with no expectation of getting well, I again commenced with the Syrup, when I soon regained my appetite, and by the time I had taken two bottles, my cough got free, and I raised freely; the ulcers began to break, and the air passed more freely into the lungs, and I began to feel better. And then, to see what would be the effect, I took no Syrup for a week, when my appetite again left me, and I began to get worse again. Finding that it was the Syrup that helped me, I took to it in earnest, and soon began to get better. The ulcers kept breaking, one after another, until several had discharged. I could feel the air pass into the lung, and with less pain. That gave new life to me, and contrary to the expectation of every one, I began to get better very fast. I was always perfectly resigned to the will of God, but I never despaired or gave up, but used all the exercise my strength would allow, and in about forty days from Sept. 1, I gained 25 pounds of flesh; my throat, that had been ulcerated several times, got better, and I would raise from my lungs matter mixed with blood, until it gradually stopped. After using eighteen bottles I appeared to be almost well; but unfortunately taking cold, I was obliged to continue the Syrup, until I had taken twenty-five bottles. I believe, at the present time, my lungs are entirely healed up. There appears to be a part of my right lung gone; my right breast has shrunk in, or is smaller than the left. I feel as well at the present time as I ever did, but am not as strong.

Dr. Schenck is personally unknown to me, but I shall always feel a lively gratitude to him, for it is with the blessing of God, and the use of his Syrup, I am now alive.

HENRY E. MUNDY.

The undersigned, resident of Rahway, hereby certifies that I am well acquainted with Henry E. Mundy; that I visited him during his illness last Summer, and believe him to have been in the last stages of consumption, and know his statements to be true. DAVID S. CRAIG, M. D.

RAHWAY, April 19, 1863.

We, the undersigned residents of Rahway, are well acquainted with Henry E. Mundy and Dr. David S. Craig. We well remember the sickness of the former, and that his recovery was an astonishment to all.

JOHN J. SHAW, }

UNITED STATES INTERNAL REVENUE, Ninth Collection District of New-York, XIIth, XIXth and XXIid Wards of the City of New-York.

Assessor's Notice.—The taxpayers of this District are hereby notified that, pursuant to the provisions of the Act of Congress, passed July 1, 1862, entitled "An Act to provide Internal Revenue to support the Government, and to pay Interest on the Public Debt," and the Act to amend the same, passed March 3, 1863, the second annual assessment will be made on and after the first MONDAY (4th day) of May inst. The assessment will embrace the following items:

1. INCOMES.—All incomes for the year ending Dec. 31, 1862, must be returned to the Assistant Assessors in accordance with the instructions of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, upon the blank forms provided for that purpose. The Assistant Assessors will furnish to taxpayers a copy of the instructions when desired, and they are also provided with the blank forms for the returns, which must be made under oath.

2. ENUMERATED ARTICLES.—All articles named in section 77 of the law (Schedule A), will be assessed for the taxes to which they are liable for the year ending May 1, 1864, viz:

Carriages, kept for use, or for passengers.
Yachts.
Billiard Tables, kept for use.
Silver Plate, kept for use.
Gold Plate, kept for use.

These returns will be made in the same form as heretofore.

3. LICENSES.—Section 15 of the amendments of March 3d, 1863, provides:

"That the several Assessors shall on the first Monday of May next (1863), and on the first Monday of May in each succeeding year, direct and cause the several Assistant Assessors to proceed through every part of their respective districts, and inquire after and concerning all persons being within the assessment districts where they respectively reside, and liable to a license duty under the provisions of this Act, or of the Act to which this is in addition, and assess such persons as in said acts is required. And all licenses so assessed shall continue in force until the first day of May next succeeding.

"And all licenses granted after the first day of May in any year shall expire on the first day of May following, and shall be issued upon the payment of a ratable proportion of the whole amount of duty imposed for such license; and each license so granted shall be dated on the first day of the month in which it is issued: Provided, That any person, firm, or corporation, that on the first day of May next shall hold an unexpired license, shall be assessed a ratable proportion for the time between the expiration of the license and the first day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-four."

All persons doing business within this district will perceive by the above that they must apply for a new license to run from the date their present license expires (which, in most cases, is Sept. 1st, 1863), to the first of May, 1864. Whenever by the amendments new rates of license are established, the new license will be assessed at the new rates, and, in all cases where the present license expires Sept. 1st, 1863, the new license will cover a period of eight months, and must be assessed to pay two-thirds of the yearly tax.

HEADQUARTERS COMPANY A, 50TH N. Y. VOLS., FALMOUTH, Va., Sunday, April 26, 1863.

At a Meeting of Company A 50th N. Y. Vols., called this day, for the purpose of paying a last tribute to a deceased brother, Sergt. MICHAEL BANKS, who died at Stanton Hospital, Washington, D. C., April 24, 1863, the following resolutions were offered:

Whereas, The Almighty Father having seen fit to take away from our brother soldier and devoted friend, Sergt. MICHAEL BANKS, be it, therefore,

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his afflicted parents, to whom we trust it will be a great consolation to know that he died while engaged in the support of his country's cause. To his brother who is engaged in arms against us, we pray it may be a severe lesson—one that may cause him to pause in the step he has taken against his country and kindred.

Resolved, That we, to ourselves, deeply mourn the loss of a true and devoted companion, a kind friend—one who was the possessor of a tender, kind, and affectionate nature, and of a moral and virtuous character. May his loss teach us to imitate his example. To our country of a devoted soldier, a true and earnest supporter of the Union, and one who was willing to sacrifice both life and happiness in its defense, he died as he lived—an honest man, the noblest work of God.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his bereaved parents, and also that they be published at the head of the Regiment and in the New-York Herald, Times, Tribune, and Mercury.

HORACE P. RUGG, Captain Comdg Company, Chairman.

GAVETT DOWNING, Orderly Sergt., Sec'y.
