"A DELECTABLE BOOK FOR ALL TIME."
This Day Published
THE THIRD VOLUME
OF
THE LIFE AND LETTERS
OF
WASHINGTON IRVING.
By his Nephew,
PIERRE M. IRVING.
Price in cloth, $1 75.

N. B.—Those who have had the first two volumes will be supplied with the third until July 1 at the same price.
"The most attractive American volume of the month is the third volume of [this popular national biography.]"

The incidents of the "Tour on the Prairies"—"Astoria" The Great Fire in N. Y.—Purchase of Sunnyside—Western Land Speculation, etc., etc.—"Many of the novel and all interesting." "Mr. Irving's Experience in Spain is given in most graphic and pleasant details." &c.
"Indeed, we have only to reiterate our commendation of the good taste, good sense, tact, and judgment wherewith the author of this memorial has executed his delicate and difficult, though delightful task. To those who enjoyed the personal acquaintance of Washington Irving, there is not a page, a letter, or an anecdote in this volume which does not bring the living, loving man directly before the mind's eye and the heart's recognition. We congratulate the public upon the fact that still another volume of this delightful biography awaits them; it will comprise the last thirteen years of Irving's life."—[Boston Transcript.
